Myrtle White

Myrtle Marie White, 95, passed away on Tuesday, April 28, 2015, at Hawks Ridge Assisted Living in Hood River, Ore. Myrtle was born Sept. 16, 1919, in Speers Ferry, Va., to Zachariah F. Dills and Amanda Dills.

Myrtle White

She was preceded in death by her son Dale H. Goetz; and her grandsons Timothy Bailey and Dale A. Goetz.

Myrtle is survived by her husband, Russell White, of Hood River; daughter Lillie Bailey, of Greenleaf, Idaho; her grandchildren Kim (Goetz) Anderson and Ann (Goetz) Senetar of Parker, Colo.; her grandson Art Bailey Jr., of Cheyenne Wyo.; and multiple great-grandchildren.

A funeral with reception following will be held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 13, at Anderson's Tribute Center. Following the reception, interment will be at Mountain View Cemetery, 1235 Tucker Road, Hood River.

Myrtle's family would like memorial donations to be given to Providence Hospice of the Gorge, 1630 Woods Court, Hood River, OR. 97031.

Arrangements under the direction of Anderson's Tribute Center (Funerals • Receptions • Cremations) 1401 Belmont Ave., Hood River, OR 97031; 541-386-1000. Please visit andersonstributecenter.com to leave a note of condolence for family.

Marylou Edgerton

Marylou Alta Edgerton was born July 14, 1924 in Hood River, Ore., the only child of Bruce M. and Edna Billings. Her first years were spent living on the family homestead in Parkdale before moving to Hood River. Marylou attended kindergarten through her senior year in high school in Hood River; graduating from Hood River High School in 1942.

After high school Marylou moved to Seattle, Wash., where her best friend and future husband, Robert (Bob), was already working for The Boeing Airplane Company. Marylou also went to work at Boeing in the summer of 1942 where she became one of the original "Rosie the Riveters," and part of the "We Can Do It" generation. She worked on both the B-17 and B-29 air frames.

After Bob entered the Army and was stationed in Philadelphia, she followed him there, obtaining employment with the Ration Board. Marylou and Bob were married in Philadelphia on May 19, 1944. From Philadelphia, Marylou moved to New Orleans, again following Bob to his next station. When Bob was sent to the Philippines, Marylou came back to Oregon, living in Portland, where they settled after Bob was discharged from the Army at the end of World War II.

In 1948 Marylou and Bob moved to Silverton, Ore., to help her parents establish their flower and nursery business. Marylou and Bob had two children, first welcoming Carol Joy in 1950 and then Robert Bruce in 1953.

Marylou was very active in numerous local organizations, including Jaycettes, VFW Auxiliary, Ramona Chapter Order of the Eastern Star and The Oregon Garden. She finished her career working as a teacher's aide at Evergreen School in Silverton. Marylou passed away April 8, 2015.

She is survived by her son, Robert (Rob), and daughter-in-law Janene of Yamhill, and two grandchildren, Lisa Chau (Jimmy), of Portland, and Andrea Edgerton, of Bend.

Marylou was preceded in death by her daughter, Carol Edgerton, in 1988, and her husband, Robert, in 2007.

Services are scheduled for 10:30 a.m. May 12 at the Silverton United Methodist Church. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, remembrances be made to the Silverton United Methodist Church, or The Oregon Garden.

The family wishes to thank the staff of the Jennings-McCall Care Center and Care Partners of Hillsboro for their tremendous help during Marylou's final transition. Arrangements are under the direction of Unger Funeral Chapel, 229 Mill St., Silverton, OR 97381; 503-873-5141. Please visit ungerfuneralchapel.com to leave a note of condolence for family.

Mother's Day celebration at the Discovery Center

Columbia Gorge Discovery Center is giving free admission to everyone during the annual Mother's Day Celebration on Sunday, May 10, 2015, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The free admission is offered as a thank you to the Columbia Gorge community for support over the past year.

The Basalt Rock Café will host a special Mother's Day Brunch from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The menu features a burrito and waffle bar, with a selection of waffles, sausage, bacon, ham, scrambled eggs, fresh fruit, home-fried potatoes, tortillas, salsa and cheese. Hot and cold beverages are included. Mimosas will also be available for $5, and you can enjoy your brunch on the open-air patio. Brunch prices are $15 per person, $8 for kids 10 and under, with children under 5 free.

Columbia River Trading Co. has a large selection of gifts for mom, including scented lotions, jewelry, wine, chocolate truffles, unique gift items made by local artisans, and more. Ask about custom gift baskets, gift cards, or free gift wrapping. You never need to pay admission to shop at the Columbia River Trading Co. museum store or Basalt Rock Café.

Native plant seedlings from Humble Roots Farm & Nursery of Mosier, will be for sale from 10 to 3 p.m. Owners Kristin Currin and Drew Merritt will be selling an assortment of native plants, including orange honeysuckle, camas, desert parsley, milkweed, lupine, shrubs, gold current, mock orange chokecherry, lilies, buckwheat, checker mallow, tiger lily, Washington lily, harebell, and California poppy. They will share their expertise on the plants that grow best in your area, and the importance of landscaping with native plants to support the ecological integrity of the Gorge and to maintain the native plant population.

Dick Stentz will conduct a bird watching tour on the grounds from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. You will have a chance to see the raptors of the Gorge on the glove and up close during the live raptor presentations at 11 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. in the M. J. Murdock Theater.

Take a guided wildflower identification walk at 12 noon and 3 p.m. with Barbara Robinson, and view some of the 100 species of native plants on the museum grounds. Barbara is one of the best informed experts on native plants in the gorge, and has been the director of the Native Plant Restoration project at the Discovery Center since 1997.

Bring the whole family to the Columbia Gorge Discovery Center for a day of fun.
