

PET OF THE WEEK

Lindy needs daily walks and lots of snuggles

Lindy

This week volunteers at Adopt A Dog have selected Lindy as the program's adoptable pet of the week:

Lindy is a sweet, adorable 9 month old Pittie mix girl weighing in at 45 pounds. She was actually adopted from us seven months ago, but the family just doesn't have the time this pup needs and so she spent a lot of her days in a crate, or outside on her own, searching for trouble to get into. She is very playful with other dogs, adores kids, and still very much in that puppy stage, so chew toys are whatever she can find!

She just seems to have fun no matter where she goes, or what she's doing, but rope toys and squishy things are her favorite, so keep them nearby! Lindy hasn't had much training, but boy, is she learning fast! She's got some good doggie manners under her belt and is more than happy to learn as many tricks as she can, because TREATS RULE!

Lindy has become a wonderful walker with the leash, comes when you call her name and she thinks cuddle time is awesome. Lindy needs a home where she can get daily walks and exercise, plenty of snuggles, and a devoted family to call her own. She is current on shots, microchipped and spayed. The adoption fee for Lindy is $205. The fee to adopt is charged to recoup standard veterinary expenses. Since many of our dogs are in foster, please call ahead to meet Lindy in Odell at the Hukari Animal Shelter 3910 Heron Drive, or call for more information at 541-354-1083. Adoption hours are Wednesday, 5-7 p.m. and Saturday, 9-11 a.m. You can fill out an application online at our website, www.hoodriveradoptadog.org, or download and scan and email to us at adoptadog@gorge.net, or fax it in to 1-877-833-7166. We offer 24PetWatch microchips, which include free registration into the 24PetWatch pet recovery service.

Whether you're writing fantasy, historical, or contemporary fiction, a vivid and vividly communicated world is always an asset to your story. This workshop will discuss worldbuilding at both the micro and macro levels, including the making (and breaking) of rules, how and when to draw inspiration from real life places, and the art of bringing your world to life through solid, specific description.

Write Like a Best-Seller with Roland Smith

Roland Smith will explain the step by step process he uses to write his books. It has worked for him for over 40 books in the past 25 years. "It will work for you if you are willing to do the work," he said.

Saturday, May 30, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Spring Author Festival

Twelve authors in the bookstore on one day! Breezeway Boutique Flea Market and Dog-Gone-It food cart all on site. Free and open to the public.

Hit with Gratitude: From Fact to Fiction with Lorie Ann Grover

When trials hit, how do we run in triumph? When we have a blind spot for blessings, how do we embrace gratitude? Novelist Lorie Ann Grover leads those interested in writing stories arising from their own life experiences. With young adult novels springing from her own history, she'll guide workshop attendees in capturing their memories, then assist them in turning their writing into fiction, and finally experiment with the verse format.

Don't Write What You Know with Stasia Ward Kehoe

We are often told to "write what you know" and that "to be a good writer, you must be a great reader," but what do these clichés truly mean? Inspired by excerpts from great YA novels and fueled by improv games, writing exercises and group discussion, students will explore ways to use (or choose to ignore) catch phrases and conventional wisdom on the journey to becoming their own best writer selves.
