RESPONDING TO NESTLE

HRVHS students Alden Gendreau, left, and Charley Boonstra (along with her sister, Everley), talk with Farmers Market clients Thursday about a film project they are starting in response to Nestle's promotion of the proposed water bottling project in Cascade Locks. Boonstra said the Earth Club at Hood River Valley High School is seeking donations to support its own short video in opposition to the Nestle plan, to be produced this summer and featuring local youth.

THE YEAR WRAPS UP

Samantha Rogen, one of the organizers of Mr. HRV, wraps newly-crowned Owen Kozec in his courtly cape in the May 28 event at Bowe Auditorium, as Cooper Holzman admires his basket of swag provided by local residents. Year-end events at HRVHS include the June 2 farewell choir concert, the First in Family to Graduate ceremony at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, and commencement ceremony on June 5.
