

Music, robotics, and more – A First Friday Sampler

Chic Preston plays rare solo show

The Pines, 202 Cascade, hosts Chic Preston June 5, 5:30-8:30 p.m., in a rare solo show. Preston will be sharing his own songs which have drawn comparison to those of Dave Carter and Dave Frishberg. Chic aims to make a Soul connection with listeners through the medium of his voice.

Engineering Fair fills up a block on Oak

STEM – Science, Technology, Engineering and Math – students invite the community to get involved, from 5 p.m. Oak Street will be closed between First and Second streets to make room for electric cars, robotics, and more.

Drumming on State Street at Riverside

The front of Riverside Community Church will be filled with African drumming, face painting and other activities during “First Friday” on June 5. All ages are invited to come on by and join in the fun. Drums will be provided. Riverside is located at the corner of 4th and State Streets in Hood River.

‘Slayed on the Slopes’ author at Waucoma

Waucoma Bookstore is hosting Pacific Northwest novelist Kate Dyer-Seeley for a book signing on Friday, June 5 at the bookstore, 212 Oak St., from 5-8 p.m. Dyer-Seeley will be signing “Slayed on the Slopes,” the second book in the Pacific Northwest Mystery series set in Portland, Mount Hood, and the Columbia River Gorge. The first book in the series is “Scene of the Climb.” After talking her way into a job writing for Portland’s Northwest Extreme magazine, Meg Reed may now really be in over her head. Actually, about 8,000 feet over her head. She’s at Mount Hood’s remote Silcox Hut, covering the seriously hardcore Ridge Rangers — when a tragic mystery needs solving before cabin fever does them all in.

A ‘Darling’ time to be had on Third Street

On Third Street between Oak and Cascade, two new shops and a third celebrating its first anniversary, will be open for First Friday. Remedy Juice and 64 Oz. growler station, both new this spring, will be serving libations, and The Darling Boutique, 114

Third, marks its first anniversary with complimentary champagne and cookies. Look for the bright pink chairs.
