Gregg Rolie returns to the Columbia Gorge Hotel July 19

Gregg Rolie

The Columbia Gorge Hotel and Spa is proud to present the return of Gregg Rolie on Sunday, July 19, to kick off its outdoor summer concerts overlooking the Columbia River. Doors will open at 5 p.m. and the show will start at 6 p.m. Tickets are $20.

Gregg Rolie is a founding member and was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame as a founding member of Santana. Throughout his 30 year music career, he has played with The Storm, Abraxas

Pool, and Journey, for whom he was the original keyboard player. Gregg and his band played at the Columbia Gorge Hotel in 2012 to a sold out crowd so get your tickets early.

Columbia Gorge Hotel, 4000 Westcliff Dr., Hood River; 541-386-5566.

'Kool Stuff' at River City July 11

Portland alternative rock band Kool Stuff Katie has a show scheduled for Saturday, July 11, at the River City Saloon. Although the show is 21 and over, a portion of the proceeds will benefit the Hood River Middle School music department. River City Saloon, 207 Cascade Ave., Hood River; 541-387-2583.

Darling's play Marley's July 10

The Strangled Darlings return for their 3rd annual performance on the patio at Marley's Corner Pub on the Heights in Hood River on Friday, July 10. A truly outstanding duo from Portland, the multi-instrumental George and Jess perform original Americana doom pop. They've been on tour all over the US with a style and sound you won't want to miss. All ages welcome, music starts at 6:30 p.m. Marley's Corner, Scottish Pub & Drive-Thru, 1216 C Street, Hood River; 541-386-0153.

Willie & Nelson at The Pines

This week at The Pines: First Friday, July 3, 5:30-8:30 p.m. Enjoy an energetic and fun display of rock and blues from Willie and Nelson. This talented group loves to show us a good time. The Pines Tasting Room, 202 Cascade Ave., Hood River; 541-993-8301.

Open mic at Good Medicine

The Good Medicine Lounge on the Heights announces a weekly open mic on Thursdays from 6-8 p.m. The tea house hopes that the music can "become a popular gathering for the neighborhood that focuses on well-being and is accessible to all ages." The Good Medicine Lounge, 1029 May St., Hood River, (541) 436-2540.

Secret Salsa meets July 10

CAST THEATRE is rehearsing for its summer musical, Next to Normal, which opens at Cascade Center for the Arts next Friday, July 10. The rock musical explores how one suburban household copes with crisis and mental illness. Actors will be mic'd up and singing with the accompaniment of a 5-piece ensemble at the show. In the scene above, married couple Dan and Diana share a bitter moment as their son, Gabe, looks on. Actors from left, Peter Tappert, Emily Vawter and Duncan Krummel. Volunteers are still needed for the production on July 11, 17, 18, 23, 24 and 25, including usher and bartender positions. Email Kristyn Fix (events@columbiaarts.org) for details.

SOME TLC

The lineup was a little unusual for these veteran players as a new lineup formed for the first time, as Tastes Like Chicken, at the Pray for Wind dinner at Stonehedge Gardens June 25. Mark Daly plays guitar, with Ed Dietrich on bass and Ryan Kolberg on percussion. "It's always nice to get together," Daly said, joking that "Ryan is usually playing guitar or bass but he's on the kit tonight, he's multi-talented and, of course, I hate him!" Daly and Dietrich have also played together in the band Hop Trip Stumble Fall. The Pray For Wind event was sponsored by Columbia Gorge Windsurfing Association (hence the band's backdrop) with proceeds supporting CGWA youth programs.
