LIBRARY TRIVIA NIGHT AT PFRIEM

Team Matt's Here won both rounds of the Jan. 29 Library Trivia Night at pFriem Family Brewing. Kate Seeley of pFriem and trivia emcee Rachel Timmons, top left, welcome the 40 players (24 were expected), and players get acquainted and prepared for questions about literature and local history. Pfriem regularly donates the use of its second-floor room, also called The Library, to local non-profits, and donates beer sales to the groups. "We are really grateful for the partnership," Library Director Rachael Fox said.

NEW HVAC

Library was closed through Tuesday for installation of new 50-ton heating and ventilation system; above, contractor Harrison Davisson hoists the 50-foot-long housing for the HVAC Monday.

Starting with Black History Month, Library hosts variety of February events

Black History Month events at the Hood River County Library kick off a long list of events at the local branches, starting with a Feb. 5 gospel choir concert.

See Happenings, page B3 for details.

Cardboard body armor

Visit the Hood River Library Makerspace on Saturday, Feb.

22 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. to make your own piece of body armor out of cardboard.

Hood River Valley High School senior Brooklyn Williams will lead participants through a simple process of constructing a pauldron (shoulder armor) from cardboard and other simple materials.

This program is suitable for children ages 8 and up only, and preregistration is required.

The program is free. For more information, contact the Hood River County Library District at 541-386-2535 or info@hoodriverlibrary.org, or visit their website at hoodriverlibrary.org.

Marvel Trivia

The Marvel Trivia event has been rescheduled for Feb. 22 at 4 p.m. "Teens, adults and skulls welcome."

Save The Date

March 14 is the return of Feast of Words, the annual "party in the library." The event features local food and drink, silent and live auctions, with proceeds this year used for masonry repairs on the original 1913 Carnegie Library portion of the downtown branch.
