ABOUT CORNS....

Before Using After Using

What is a Corn? Physicians call it a Clavus, a calous or horny thickening of the skin, over a joint in a toe, with a central core or "kernel". A corn cut in half would look very much like this:

A--The Corn
B--The "Kernel"
C--Sack of Fluid
D--Base
E--Skin
F--Jest of Toe

What Produces a Corn? PRESSURE. Not necessarily that the shoe is tight-but while apparently roomy, does, at some position during walking, press upon one spot; the result is a "CORN"

Having a Corn. WHAT SHALL I DO FOR IT? Ah! now there is the question. Some people pare them, getting a little temporary relief, but stimulating the corn to twice as rapid growth--Well, here is a clear and colorless fluid called

Willamette Corn Cure

IT WILL REMOVE CORNS AND LEAVE A NATURAL SKIN IN ITS PLACE

For Sale by all Druggists. 25 Cents per Bottle

For Sale by all Druggists. WILLAMETTE CORN CURE

CITY NEWS.

Mrs. Lucy Braxton is convalescent.

Mr. John Sample is again seen on the streets after a serious illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Lulu Estman's son Willie has been confined to the bed for the past two weeks.

Mr. Barnard has accepted a position with the N. P. R. Co., and is running between Portland and Tacoma.

Some of the young people have started a dancing school and are reported to be making excellent progress.

Mr. Wm. Washington's friends are glad that he is able to be around again, although yet too weak to resume his usual occupation.

Holiday times have caused the interest in the Paul Lawrence Dunbar Literary Society to wane, but it is only temporary, as the members and others are looking forward to many more enjoyable evenings.

Rev. A. Anderson, on Monday last, read a paper before the ministers' weekly convention on "The Past, Present and Future of the American Negro." It was well received and has caused considerable comment.

The invitations are out for an entertainment to be given by the Star Social Club on the 28th of December, Odd Fellows' hall. As admission is to be strictly by card, it is expected to be a recherche affair. The club is made up from employees of the Hotel Portland.

Rumor has it that a prominent barber is inquiring the rent of small cottages and the price of furniture; also that he has begun to purchase albums and other ornaments that seem to be out of place in a bachelor's apartments. It is also said that a certain young lady is soon expecting to come to Portland to live. Is there any connection between these two items?

Professor Dobbins delivered two very fine illustrated lectures at the A. M. E. Zion church on last Sunday and Monday evenings. The lectures were both interesting and instructive and the pictures among the finest of the kind ever shown to a Portland audience. It is to be regretted that a larger number did not avail themselves of the opportunity to enjoy such a rare treat.

One of the latest organizations among the colored people of this city and one that we predict will do a vast amount of good is a branch of the W. C. T. U. It is named in honor of one of our representative women, the Lucy Thurman League. The officers who are conscientious, earnest workers, are: President, Mrs. J. N. Fullilove; vice-president, Mrs. Elliott, also leader of the mothers' meeting; secretary, Mrs. K. Gay; treasurer, Mrs. A. Duncan; superintendent of the L. W. L., Mrs. B. R. Carle. This society meets every Tuesday evening at the "Noon Rest," 105 1/2 Third street, at which meetings all that are interested in temperance work are invited.

As is usual at this season of the year extra activity is to be noticed in the different churches and the Sunday schools fill up in anticipation of a visit from Santa Claus, who, we are told, only comes to visit good boys and girls; but, as we seldom find any that he did not remember, we conclude either that all our boys and girls are good or else that he is deceived by their looks when he comes around. He is reported to have made arrangements to meet the children at the Bethel A. M. E. church on December 23, Saturday evening, and on December 24, Sunday evening he will be due at the A. M. E. Zion church. We bespeak a large attendance of the young people and their friends on each occasion. Excellent programmes have been arranged for each evening.

When medicines will not cure you, or when you get tired of spending money for medicines, buy the Natural Body Brace from J. A. Clemenson, druggist, 227 Yamhill street, between First and Second.

Columbia Steam Laundry, Astoria, Oregon.

R. H. Schwartz, druggist and apothecary, 225 Burnside street, between First and Second, Portland, Or.

Creamery and bakery. Country butter and fresh eggs a specialty; also creamery butter. Mrs. B. Boydston, proprietor, corner Second and Columbia streets, Portland, Or.

The Comfort, 144 Sixth street, bet. Morrison and Alder. Fine wines, liquors and cigars. A fresh, cool glass of beer always on draught.
