EULOGIZED THE FILIPINOS

Senator Hoar Praises the Tagals.

ROLL CALL OF DEAD STATESMEN

House Debated on the Questions of Armor-Plate and the Building of Warships in Government Yards.

Washington, April 19.—For more than three hours today, Hoar, the senior senator from Massachusetts, occupied the attention of the senate with a speech in opposition to the policy of "imperialism" upon which he maintained this government had embarked. As prepared, the address was 50,000 words in length, but Hoar omitted much of it, owing to an incipient attack of la grippe, from which he was suffering. He spoke for three hours, and while it was a tremendous strain upon him, the more important passages of the argument were delivered with force and vigor.

The speech was brilliantly written, was illuminated with splendid rhetorical figures, and was rich with citations from history. One of the notable parts of the address was the eulogy of Aginaldo, Hoar did not liken the insurgent leader to Washington, as has been done heretofore, but to Kossuth, Oom Paul, Joubert and Nathan Hale. In statecraft, he likened Aginaldo and his associates in the leadership of the Filipinos to the best minds ever produced in the Asiatic race, a race which handed down to us "the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, the poetry of David, the eloquence of Isaiah, the wisdom of Solomon and the profound philosophy of Paul."

One of the most effective parts of the speech was his fancied roll-call of some of the distinguished statesmen of the United States on the question of the retention of the Philippines. He began with George Washington and closed with William McKinley, each in a sentence giving a reason for his vote. Every vote was in the negative, except that of Aaron Burr, who voted "Yes," and said: "You are repeating my buccannering expedition down the Mississippi. I am to be vindicated at last." When the name of William McKinley was called, he replied: "There has been a cloud before my vision for a moment, but I see clearly now; I go back to what I said two years ago: 'Forcible annexation is criminal aggression; governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, not of some of them, but of all of them.' I will stand with the fathers of the revolution. I will stand with the founders of the Republican party."

The effect was dramatic. As Hoar pronounced his peroration, the stillness in the chamber was intense. Applause swept over the galleries, but it was hushed quickly by the president pro tem.
The second day's debate upon the naval appropriation bill in the house today was confined closely to the subject matter of the bill, and was, as a rule, devoid of interesting features. The questions of armor plate and the building of warships in government yards, as yesterday, attracted most attention. The general debate was closed today and tomorrow the bill will be read under the five-minute rule.

A BATTLE AT CAGAYAN.

Tagals Attacked Case's Troops in Mindanao.

Manila, April 19.—Twelve hundred Tagals attacked Case's battalion, headquarters of the Fortieth regiment, at Cagayan, Island of Mindanao, April 7. The Americans had 15 casualties, while of the attacking force 50 were killed and 80 wounded or taken prisoners.

The enemy, numbering 150 riflemen, the remainder being bolomen, archers and mounted spearmen, swooped down in a howling mass at daylight, surprising and killing three of the sentries. They swarmed through the streets in small parties, some bearing scaling ladders, by means of which they attempted to enter the houses. The Americans tumbled out of the barracks and formed in the plaza, and companies began sweeping the town. The subsequent street fight lasted 20 minutes.

Twelve of the wounded Americans are now on board the hospital ship Relief. The enemy withdrew to the mountains in great confusion.

General Montenegro, one of the insurgents' best fighters, has surrendered to Colonel Smith in the mountains near Camling, in the province of Talaoc, where, with General Macabulos, he had been trying to reorganize the Filipino army. Colonel Smith, with five companies of the Seventeenth infantry, nearly surrounded the force of Montenegro, who, discouraged by the impossibility of making his men stand against the Americans, surrendered. Macabulos escaped.

The insurgents have attacked San Jose, in the province of Batangas, and Santa Cruz, on the lake, fruitlessly.

The first American coal ever shipped to Japan has arrived Nagasaki. The steamer Needles has reached that port with 6,000 tons from Virginia.

PARTISAN RANCOR.

Farm Debate in the House on President's Change of Mind.

Washington, April 20.—The debate on the naval appropriation bill under the five-minute rule today drifted into politics, and for a good portion of the afternoon members fought hammer and tongs across the political aisle. The partisan rancor almost culminated in a sensational scene between Grosvenor, of Ohio, champion of the administration, and Williams, of Mississippi. Some of the Democrats began worrying Hawley, of Texas, by pointedly asking if the president had not changed his mind on the Puerto Rican tariff question, and Grosvenor finally threw himself into the breach. Williams made an interruption that drew a sharp rejoinder from the Ohioan about the "unfair advantage" taken by the Mississippian. This aroused the wrath of the latter, and after Grosvenor had concluded, he made a stinging response, in which he said parliamentary language would not permit him properly to characterize Grosvenor's offense. Later, Grosvenor disclaimed intentional affront, and there the matter ended. Some progress was made with the bill, but most of the controverted points went over. A motion to strike from the bill the contingent fund of $500,000 for the navy department was defeated.

HAWAII'S GROWING TRADE.

Largely Increased Exports and Imports Last Year.

Washington, April 20.—Consul-General Heywood, at Honolulu, has transmitted to the state department the report of the collector-general of customs of Hawaii for 1899, which provides some interesting figures, concerning the increased commercial prosperity of the islands. Goods to the amount of $15,032,830 were imported from the United States, while the value of the exports to this country amounted to $22,517,753. Trade with other countries was comparatively slight, although imports to the amount of $1,774,675 came from Great Britain. The remainder of the export trade was carried on with China, Japan, Australia, New Zealand and Canada. Machinery was imported to the amount of $2,089,278, nearly double the importation during 1898, and imports generally showed a material increase over those of the preceding year. Sugar to the amount of over $21,000,000 was exported. The rice exportation was greatly below that of 1898. The total exports of the year amounted to $22,928,741, being an increase of about $5,000,000 over last year's trade.

Tore Off Their Badges.

London, April 20.—According to a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Lourenco Marques, nearly half the members of the Chicago corps, when offered Mausers on their arrival at Pratoria, tore off their Red Cross badges.
