The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system. It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. E. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had sores on my hands and face for five years. It would break out in little white pustules, crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the medicated soaps and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

CONSUMPTION

HYPNOTISM AND PUGILISM.

Easy Subject Becomes a Tough Customer When Under the Influence.

One of the most remarkable cases of hypnotism yet reported is attracting the attention of medical men here, says the Baltimore Sun. The victim, too, for a time made things lively for about twenty persons who were attending a tea in the West End last evening. The scene of the singular actions of the victim of hypnotism was at the residence of W. J. Gilman, No. 922 West Marshall street. The subject of the hypnotists was John Sweeney, the son of a well-known livery man.

During the evening it was suggested as an additional means of entertaining the guests that some one be hypnotized. Young Sweeney, who is quite a powerful young man, offered his services, and was soon under the influence of a young operator named Cook. In a few moments it was seen that the young man was completely under Cook's influence. The company became annoyed and suggested that the spell be broken and the victim released. This was attempted, but in vain. The young man cut up all sorts of antics. In his efforts to release his patient the operator was terribly slugged and several of his front teeth knocked out. Sweeney manifested wonderful feats of strength. At times half a dozen or more men attempted to seize and bind him, but could not do so. The services of a stalwart policeman were called upon. When he got within reach of the latter's fist he received a terrific blow, which sent him spinning away more than twenty feet. Sweeney, under the peculiar influences, appeared to imagine himself a prize-fighter, and for a time it was well that few disputed this point with him.

A physician was finally summoned, and after a long struggle the young man was handcuffed. He was removed to a hospital for treatment. Sweeney remained in a stupor until the next morning about 8 o'clock.

GRATEFUL FOR A KIND ACT.

How an Indian Rewarded a Man Who Rendered Him a Service.

In "Travels in New England and New York" President Dwight of Yale College tells a good story of Indian wit and friendship.

In the early days of Litchfield, Conn., an Indian called at the tavern and asked the landlady for food, frankly stating that he had no money with which to pay for it. She refused him harshly, but a white man who sat by noted the red man's half-famished state and offered to pay for his supper.

The meal was furnished and the Indian, his hunger satisfied, returned to the fire and told his benefactor a story. "You know the Bible?" said the redskin.

The man assented. "Well," said the Indian, "the Bible say, God made world, and then he took him and look at him and say, 'He good, very good.' He made light and he took him and look at him and say, 'He good, very good.' Then he made dry land and water and sun and moon and grass and trees, and took him and look at him and say, 'He good, very good. Then he made beast and birds and fishes, and took him and look at him and say, 'He good, very good.' Then he made man and took him and look at him and say, 'He good, very good.' Then he made woman, and took him and look at him, and he no dare say one such word."

That last conclusion was uttered with a meaning glance at the landlady. Some years after this occurrence the man who paid for the Indian's supper was captured by redskins and carried to Canada, where he was made to work like a slave. One day an Indian came to him, recalled to his mind the occurrence at the Litchfield tavern, and ended by saying: "I that Indian. Now my turn pay. I see you home. Come with me."

And the redskin guided the man back to Litchfield.

The Barber Shaved the Floor. A man entered "Bobby" Uricho's tonorial parlour the other day and asked for a bottle of hair restorer. Robert affably sold him one, remarking as he accepted the 50 cents it cost that it would be well to dilute it, as it made hair grow so fast that it kept its users awake at nights cutting the capillary excretion back. Just as the customer was going out of the door the bottle slipped and fell to the ground, scattering the valuable fluid in all directions. Robert refused to give back the 50 cents.

"Tell you what I'll do," said he, with a magnanimous air. "I'll sell you another bottle at cost price, 13 cents."

"Dinged if you will," said the bald man, and in the presence of a curious crowd he got down on the floor and proceeded to rub his head in the pool of restorer. After it was well soaked he got up and went out. Uricho now puts in all his spare time shaving the floor where the restorer was spilled.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Logic. He clearly deemed himself possessed of the divine afflatus. Poor, deluded man!

"Poets," he argued doggedly, "are born!"

"But," I objected, "they are not born every minute!"

That was to say, while all poets were perhaps suckers, all suckers were by no means poets.

I firmly believe that my logic shook his confidence in himself, at least for the nonce.—Detroit Journal.

The Sixth Michigan cavalry, of the famous Custer brigade, was commanded by a colonel who had formerly been a member of the Michigan bar. In the early morning of the last day at Gettysburg his regiment, with others, was in line awaiting orders. The men grew impatient and excited, and gradually became noisy in their talk and laughter. The colonel bore it for a few moments, and then, turning to his men with a nervous gesture, he called: "Keep silence there!" Instantly adding in an apologetic tone: "Not that I care, but it will sound better!"

Already these wonderful oyster beds begin to show the results of reckless overfishing and approaching exhaustion.

The common pot-roast of beef is very much improved by being larded with thin strips of salt pork; the butcher will do this if requested. The pork imparts a richness to the beef and to the accompanying sauce that is much more delicate and less greasy than when the usual piece of beef suet is cooked with it.

Vanity of Syrian Women.

A medical missionary in Syria writes that the vanity of Syrian women is sometimes most amusingly exemplified. A short time ago a patient in the hospital at Beirut succeeded in having her friends smuggle in to her a number of forbidden articles of food and numerous toilet accessories. In her locker were discovered a piece of looking-glass, a small quantity of French chalk and a minute supply of rouge, all intended to aid in the decoration of her person for the impending operation. She protested tearfully when the cosmetics were confiscated, and refused to be comforted, saying that she did not like to look so pale.

Kaiser Said to Wear a Cuirass.

A story is current in Berlin to the effect that ever since the murder of King Humbert the German emperor has worn a cuirass of finely tempered steel. It is also said that when passing through Rome to embark for China Count von Waldersee presented to King Victor Emanuel a cuirass of identical manufacture as a present from the kaiser.

KILL THE GERMS! Spread of Germs Through the Human System Instantly Checked by "5 DROPS."

"5 DROPS" is a germ killer; a preventive of disease; a builder of nerve force; a maker of pure blood; of healthy tissue. Where it is used there can be no disease. It is a foe to germ life. Left to themselves, without adequate measures of prevention, the germs which enter the weak human system multiply so rapidly that their numbers become a human comprehension, destroying the structures of the body until death comes to the victim's relief. "5 DROPS," if taken at the time, is an absolute preventive of disease. IT is the only absolute cure for Rheumatism, driving out of the system forever the uric acid and other impurities which cause it in its various forms. It is taken up at once by the blood. Hence its work is quicker, surer and many times more effective. You should never be without it. Secure a bottle today. You will then be on the safe side. "5 Drops" is harmless and can be used by a child as well as an adult. It is used with unflinching effect in the following diseases: Rheumatism, Sciatica, Backache, Neuralgia, Gout, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Hay Fever, Catarrh, Group, La Grippe, Liver and Kidney Troubles, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Nervous and Neuragic Headaches, Earache, Toothache, Heart Weakness, Paralysis, Creeping Numbness, Etc.

I WAS AT DEATH'S DOOR. Gentlemen: I want to tell you what your "5 Drops" has done for me. I was for two years a sufferer of untold misery. My feet were swollen so I could not wear shoes and my hands were drawn so I could not open them, nor could I shut them. They cramped and ached. My husband had me try every medicine he could hear of and I still suffered untold agonies. Nothing I could get would ease my pain, until last November one of my neighbors had Rheumatism so bad he could not walk. He told my husband about "5 Drops" curing him, so he got me a dollar bottle, and in three weeks I walked without a cane and could use my hands, something I had not done for two years. I give all the praise to "5 Drops." My neighbors know that I was at death's door. Now I have used four bottles of "5 Drops" and can do my work with ease. I am still taking it sometimes. If this were not my good friend getting suffering people to use "5 Drops," use this as you please. If any one doubts this, send them to my friends and neighbors. ELIZABETH C.
