has discharged the duties of this important and coveted office. When will the young men of the race learn that the only hope for them or any other race to rise is by the way of hard, honest toil and employment of some kind? Idleness is a curse to any race or individual. It is the mother of poverty, crime and immorality, the evil from which so many of the race are sufferng.

Boston, Jan. 5 — Just before Booker T. Washington left Boston, where he has been raising funds for the permanent endowment of the Tuskegee school, he received a letter from Andrew Carnegie to the effect that the latter had decided to give $20,000 for the erection of a library building for the Tuskegee Institute. The building will be erected entirely by student PHILIP V. CAESAS, President; TRUMAN W. ENOS, Vice-President; O. B. SELVIG, Cashtee; JACOB H. VANDERBILT, Assistant Cashter. labor.

In Oklahoma there are 60,000 corored people, men, women and children, or 18,000 colored voters; from careful compilation of statistics there are 7,000 colored men owning farms, which will strike an average at $800 each, which is a very low average, as there are a number of colored farmers who can cash their farms today for $3,000. But placing all at $800 each, that would make a great total of at least $5,800,000 owned in farm property by colored men of Oklahoma.

There are about one hendred business establishments among the colored people in St. Louis, among which are eight well-doing groceries, three extensive dealers in general merchandise, besides a goodly number of paving and mechanical businesses conducted in the most creditable manner. One corporation with a capital stock of $50,000. They have 16 dentists and physicians who have a flourishing practice, and who are rapidly acquiring a competency. These Negro doctors are learned and skilled, so recogtors are learned and skilled, so recognized by both races, among which their practice extends. In legal profession twelve lawyers find a lucrative field for their talents. One is a prosecuting attorney for the city, and others have represented celebrated cases be fore the state and federal supreme courts.
