

THE HAPPIEST HEART.

Who drives the horses of the sun Shall lord it but a day; Better the lowly deed were done, And kept the humble way.

Aye the Same.

THEY were two happy ghost lovers, and they had slipped down to earth again to see how it fared with earth-bound lovers now.

"ONCE I ACTED AS YOU ARE DOING."

let us help them," said the girl ghost, eagerly. "I could be unhappy and sorrowful now—if I had not forgotten how to think of what and how we suffered during that terrible estrangement.

"There was no need," said the man ghost, tenderly, "our love was too strong to let us stay apart."

"If she really loved me she would see that I am not cross, but only troubled, and he would comfort me with loving words and caresses."

"Dear heart! What is the matter come together, really, truly, in heart and soul, again!"

ONE OF THE CUDAHY LETTERS.

The original letter, telling Mr. Cudahy where to "deposit" the $25,000 in gold to insure the return of his son, was written in the same style as the one here shown.

if you value the Boys life at the Price of A Bullet you will withdraw the Reward at once. And leave well enough alone if you Dont Do this we will Finish the Job with A Bullet if Any man whither guilty or innocent is ever Arrested A Bullet will close the Boys mouth. You will think of this WARNING when it is to late with us both this evening!" they cried, aloud. Next moment both had taken a step toward the other. Another instant and their hands were clasped, the ghost lovers gently lifting and pushing the half-reluctant fingers into place.

"Kiss her, kiss her!" murmured the man ghost to the masculine earth lover. "Say something kind and loving," whispered the girl ghost to the other maiden.

Then, when their soft commands had been obeyed, all unknowingly, and all was well between the earth lovers, they joined hands once more and floated off sweetly, their shadowy hearts beating close together.
