Hood'a Sarsaparilla was given the daughter of Silas Vernooy, Wawarsing, N. Y. who had broken out with scrofula sores all over her face and head. The first bottle helped her and when she had taken six the sores were all healed and her face was smooth. He writes that she has never shown any sign of the scrofula returning.

The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. In dealing with the men, the women should lay aside clubs, and try tears and honey.

After a man becomes old, times files so fast that the monthly magazines become dailles. It is fortunate for most people that salaries are not regulated by their use of saw and seen. We know a man who owns an umbrella, and never raises it when there within five blocks. When a woman returns home from & trip, and no one meets her at the train, it breaks her heart. No woman truly loves a man unless she laughs at his jokes, and really thinks they are funny.

When there is a rain after a long dry spell, every church member claims that his church prayed for it. To get into a story book, a girl must be either a winsome little blonde, or a cold, statuesque brunette. When a woman remains cheerful in getting over a love affair, it is a sign she is starting in on another. When a guest refuses dessert, the applause of the children at the table is sincere, though it may be silent. There is only one excuse for buying on credit: the hope that the merchant will forget to charge your purchase. A woman does not make as much of her troubles as she might unless she speaks of the "iron entering her soul."

The lazlest man in every country town rides to the depot at least once a day with the driver of the hotel 'bus. There seems to be as little excuse for some people as there is for weeds and bugs; and they are as hard to get rld of. It is the hardest thing in the world to give an old maid a good time after she has settled down to traveling in a rut.

The day after a girl gets her engagement ring, she goes down town with her mother to look at muslins and embrolderies.

When it is necessary to test the sincerity of a church member's desire to do good, she is sent out to solicit subscriptions for a church social. There are many beautiful things in the world, but none of them compare with a young dining room girl wearing a white dress and blue sash, When you give a boy a nickel, he

It is funny, but in reading, women fairly gloat over a beroine who meets the hero, both fall in love without introduction and are married, while in real life the average woman will scream if her daughter speaks to a man she has met every day in ten years, but to whom she has not been introduced.

When you sit on a porch in the evening, and rip open your neighbors, and put salt in their wounds, you do not hurt your neighbors, but you do give the impression that you have a low. malicious nature. "With limitations, yes," he replied. "The human body is so constructed that it must have a governing influence for the muscles of locomotion in the female as well as the male, hence the presence there of the cerebellum.
