DOINGS OF THE RACE

General Information Concerning the Afro-American.

TAKEN FROM OUR VARIOUS EXCHANGES

Showing the Progress of the Various Lines of Human Endeavor Being Accomplished by the Race.

With the close of this session Mr. White of North Carolina, the only colored man in the house of representatives, goes out of congress. January 29th, in the house, Mr. White pronounced "the Negro's temporary farewell to the American congress" in an impassioned speech, which brought forth applause on the floor and in the galleries.

"I want to enter a plea for the colored man, the colored woman, the colored boy and the colored girl of this country," said Mr. White, in part. "I would not digress from the question at issue and detain the house in a discussion of the interests of this particular people at this time but for the constant and the persistent efforts of certain gentlemen on this floor to mold and rivet public sentiment against us as a people and to lose no opportunity to hold up the unfortunate few who commit crimes and depredations and lead lives of infamy and shame, as other races do, as fair specimens of representatives of the entire colored race. And at no time, perhaps, during the Fifty-sixth congress were these charges and countercharges, containing, as they do, slanderous statements, more persistently magnified and pressed upon the attention of the nation than during the consideration of the recent apportionment bill, which is now a law. As stated some days ago on this floor by me, I then sought diligently to obtain an opportunity to answer some of the statements by gentlemen from different states, but the privilege was denied me; and I therefore must embrace this opportunity to say, out of season, that which I was not permitted to say in season.

"I would like to advance the statement that the musty records of 1868, filed away in the archives of Southern capitols, as to what the Negro was 30 years ago, is not a proper standard by which the Negro living on the threshold of the twentieth century should be measured. Since that time we have reduced the illiteracy of the race at least 45 per cent. We have written and published nearly 500 books. We have nearly 800 newspapers, three of which are dailies. We have now in practice over 2,000 lawyers, and a corresponding number of doctors. We have accumulated over $12,000,000 worth of school property and about $40,000,000 worth of church property. We have about 140,000 farms and homes, valued at in the neighborhood of $750,000,000, and personal property valued at about $170,000,000. We have raised about $11,000,000 for educational purposes, and the property per capita for every colored man, woman and child in the United States is estimated at $75.

"We are operating successfully several banks, commercial enterprises among our people in the Southland, including one silk mill and one cotton factory. We have 32,000 teachers in the schools of the country; we have built, with the aid of our friends, about 20,000 churches, and support seven colleges, 17 academies, 50 high schools, five law schools, five medical schools, and 25 theological seminaries. We have over 600,000 acres of land in the South alone. The cotton produced, mainly by black labor, has increased from 4,669,770 bales in 1860, to 17,235,000 in 1899. All this we have done under the most adverse circumstances. We have done it in the face of lynching, burning at the stake, with the humiliation of 'Jim Crow' cars and the disfranchisement of our male citizens, slander and degradation of our women, with the factories closed against us, no Negro permitted to be conductor on the railway cars, whether run through the streets of our cities or across the prairies of our great country, no Negro permitted to run as engineer on a locomotive, most of the mines closed against us."

TUSKEGEE NOTES.

H. T. Johnson, editor of The Christian Recorder, arrived at the institution Tuesday of this week. He comes for the purpose of delivering a series of lectures to the students of the Phelps Hall Bible Training School. Many wealthy and prominent visitors are expected to be present at the coming session of the Tuskegee Negro conference, which will be held Wednesday, February 20. We have grown nearly 5,000 bushels of sweet potatoes on both farms this year. CYRUS CAMPFIELD, Tuskegee, Ala., Feb. 19, 1901.

One of the most successful life insurance companies of this country is the Washington Life Insurance Co., of New York. Blair T. Scott is general manager for the North Pacific department of the company, with general offices in the Chamber of Commerce building, Portland, Or., and branch offices in New York block, Seattle, Wash. The company's Oregon business is very large and a number of the most prominent citizens in the state are policyholders in this company.

SUMMONS.

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Multnomah. State of Oregon, plaintiff, vs. Richard Nixon, as administrator of the estate of Joseph Leonard, deceased, all heirs of the decedent (if any there be) and all persons interested in said estate, defendants.

By virtue of a decree and order of sale duly issued out of and under the seal of the above entitled court in the above entitled cause, to me duly directed and dated the 14th day of January, 1901, in which decree it was adjudged and decreed that the state of Oregon stand and be seized of the following described real property and vested with the title thereto, said real property being described as follows, to-wit:

The west half of the east half of the northeast quarter of Section thirty-two in Township two north of Range one west of Willamette meridian, containing 40 acres, and being within Multnomah county, in the state of Oregon, and in which decree it was further ordered that the sheriff of Multnomah county, Oregon, be directed to make sale of said real property to the highest bidder for cash.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said decree and order of sale, and in compliance with the commands thereof, I will on Monday, the 25th day of March, 1901, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., at the front door of the county court house in the city of Portland, said county and state, sell at public auction, subject to confirmation by the above entitled court, to the highest bidder for U. S. gold coin, cash in hand, all of the above described real property, and all the right, title, and interest which Joseph Leonard, deceased, had on the 4th day of March, 1897, or Richard Nixon as administrator of said estate since had, in and to the above described real property, or any part thereof, as in said decree directed.

Dated Portland, Oregon, February 21st, 1901.

WILLIAM FRAZIER,

Sheriff of Multnomah county, Oregon.

CITY NEWS

C. A. Ritter, Society Editor.

We shall know no favorites, and shall be absolutely impartial. To insure publication, all local news must reach us not later than Thursday morning of each week.

Miss Mary M. Robinson will be married on the 24th inst. at San Francisco to Mr. Powell, a resident of that city.

Mrs. Clara Campbell and mother, Mrs. Palmer, expect to leave for Fort Smith, Ark., the early part of next week.

Master Clarence Taylor, son of Mrs. Sarah Taylor, had the misfortune to be severely scalded on the 13th inst. by a tea kettle of hot water being overturned upon him.

Mrs. L. Bolden and Mrs. Annie New-some are still quite ill from a severe attack of gripple. W. L. Brady and Wm. Fry are rapidly recovering from an attack of the same malady.

The Martha Washington tea given by the Bethel A. M. E. church was a success, both financially and socially. An excellent programme was rendered and a bountiful supply of refreshments served.

Thursday evening the Paul Lawrence Dunbar Literary Society held an interesting session. A large number were present and an excellent programme, both musical and literary, was rendered. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be February 28.

It is rumored that Miss Mary Crawford and Mrs. Lulu Easton have consented to act as bridesmaids in about three weeks. We are not informed as to who the participants are. Mr. M. Miller expects to visit Tacoma in about "three weeks". There may be some connection between this item and the one preceding it. Time will tell.

The members of the Afro-American league desire to warn the public against any and all persons who may solicit goods or money in the name of their organization. This organization is self sustaining and no one is authorized to ask charity in its behalf, and desire that no assistance or encouragement be given to any persons who may make such appeals.

"The Eleventh Hour" at Cordray's.

Lincoln J. Carter, author of "The Fast Mail," "Heart of Chicago," and other equally popular plays, will present his latest success, "The Eleventh Hour," at Cordray's theater next week. In "The Eleventh Hour," Mr. Carter has succeeded in doing what few authors do, viz., to blend pathos and comedy in a manner that pleases the entire audience, holding their interest throughout the play. "The Eleventh Hour" will be presented by a most capable company, with elaborate scenic effects, and the nicety of detail for which Mr. Carter is so justly famous. The patrons of Cordray's theater have a rich treat in store for them, of which they will no doubt avail themselves.
