A perfect light means more than a good light. It means a light that is brilliant and steady, one that gives little heat, no smoke, and no odor, and one that costs but little to burn and needs but slight attention. Wouldn't you call a light like this a perfect light? If you had such a light wouldn't you think it better than gas or electricity? wouldn't you say it had all their advantages and none of their faults? Well, there is such a light—it's the angle lamp and besides these points it throws the light just where it is wanted. It is a perfect substitute for gas or electricity. When stores, churches or houses are lighted with it they look cheerful and attractive. Of course it costs more than poor, old fashioned lamps, but it saves its cost many times over in a year. It's cheap at any price. All styles from an open burner up. Send for catalogue. Jackson L. Brown, 276 Taylor street.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Multnomah. State of Oregon, plaintiff, vs. Richard Nixon, as administrator of the estate of Joseph Leonard, deceased, all heirs of the decedent (if any there be) and all persons interested in said estate, defendants.

By virtue of a decree and order of sale duly issued out of and under the seal of the above entitled court in the above entitled cause, to me duly directed and dated the 14th day of January, 1901, in which decree it was adjudged and decreed that the state of Oregon stand and be seized of the following described real property and vested with the title thereto, said real property being described as follows, to-wit:

The west half of the east half of the northeast quarter of Section thirty-two in Township two north of Range one west of Willamette meridian, containing 40 acres, and being within Multnomah county, in the state of Oregon, and in which decree it was further ordered that the sheriff of Multnomah county, Oregon, be directed to make sale of said real property to the highest bidder for cash.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said decree and order of sale, and in compliance with the commands thereof, I will on Monday, the 25th day of March, 1901, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., at the front door of the county court house in the city of Portland, said county and state, sell at public auction, subject to confirmation by the above entitled court, to the highest bidder for U. S. gold coin, cash in hand, all of the above described real property, and all the right, title, and interest which Joseph Leonard, deceased, had on the 4th day of March, 1897, or Richard Nixon as administrator of said estate since had, in and to the above described real property, or any part thereof, as in said decree directed.

Dated Portland, Oregon, February 21st, 1901.

WILLIAM FRAZIER,
Sheriff of Multnomah county, Oregon.

We guarantee that we will award you a prize. There is absolutely no opportunity for deception on our part—we cannot afford it. As money after 4 p. m. each day as possible, the examiners will judge the lists to the best of their ability, and will designate the prizes. We will write to you at once notifying you what prize has been awarded you, then if you are satisfied you can send your subscription to The Woman's World, and your prize will go by return of mail carriage paid. We are willing to spend $25,000 in this contest in building up a big subscription list, and when this money is spent we reserve the right to publish a notification that the contest has been discontinued. Don't delay until it is too late. The contest will continue until July 1st, 1901.
