

Scrofula

Few are entirely free from it. It may develop so slowly as to cause little if any disturbance during the whole period of childhood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

The best of all medicines for all humors.

Multipled. Towne—See that man? Well, sir, he landed in this country with his bare feet and now he's got millions.

E. W. Groves

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets

Deconstructiveness.

Phrenologist—Your bump of deconstructiveness is very large. Are you a soldier or a pugilist.

Will Be Well Done.

Cuticous—What are you farmers preparing to do this year? Hayseed (absent-mindedly)—Summer boarders, as usual.

FITS

Permanently Cured. No fits or convulsions after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer.

A Suburbanite.

Mr. Isolate (of Lonelyville, on evening train, embarrassed)—You may notice that nearly every suburbian is bringing out either a new cook or waitress with him?

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Too Many Wives.

Miss Makeahit—It is my highest ambition to marry some titled foreigner.

Encore.

"What do you think of that whisky?" asked the host. "Well," said the guest, smacking his lips as he sat down his glass, "it reminds me of a good story."

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE TAKING

When you take Groves' Tasteless Chilli Tonic, because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form.

The Reason.

He—It's strange you members of the Vassar alumni don't hold class reunions.

Belle—Oh! she's just as proud, but you know, the club was organized 15 years ago, and she must have been at least 20 when she joined.

With rich, pure, strong blood one is never troubled with sores or ulcers. A cut or any injury to the flesh heals in a few days, nature supplying the healing.

Slow Healing Sores

swollen joints and inflamed glands often break out into offensive, slow healing sores. A polluted blood is always a menace to health; not only does it keep the skin in a chronic state of inflammation, but every organ and fibre of the body suffers from an impure and sluggish circulation.

I became afflicted with a severe sore leg and from the knee to the foot was one solid sore, which was very offensive. I spent over $1,000 on two trips to Hot Springs, and local physicians treated me to no purpose.

Always Amusing.

Here are a few mixed metaphors worth recording. "You are," said a late Lord Mayor of Dublin, in opposing a municipal scheme, "standing on the edge of a precipice that will be a weight on your necks all the rest of your days."

Paderewski's Great Love of Candy.

Paderewski was formerly a great consumer of sweetmeats, but when this amiable weakness became known to his admirers he received such overwhelming supplies of bonbons and so on that the liking for confectionery quite left him.

A useless life is but a living death.

Frog Showers.

"A Cornell professor says that frog spawn can be carried up in the atmosphere and hatched out in the clouds."

Handicapped by Science.

"I understand that he has long been a student of political economy," said the visitor.

"He has," said Senator Glucose, and his economy in politics has kept him out of office. He thinks he can be elected without spending a cent."

Our Nation's Wealth.

Gold and silver are poured abundantly into the lap of the nation, but our material wealth and strength is rather in iron, the most useful of all metals, just as the wealth of a human being lies in a useful stomach.

Easier Job.

Mrs. Cobwigger—Poor thing, she tried to reform her husband and failed.

Mrs. Dorcas—What is she trying to do now?

Mrs. Cobwigger—To reform the world.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Piso's Cure for Consumption

is an infallible medicine for coughs and colds.—N. W. SAMUEL, Ocean Grove, N. J., Feb. 17, 1900.

Each in its Place.

Willie—Pa, is there any difference between a violin and a fiddle?

Pa—Yes, my son; if you hear it at a concert or an opera it's a violin, but when your next door neighbor plays it it's a fiddle.

The Best Prescription for Malaria

Chills and Fever is a bottle of Groves' Tasteless Chilli Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay. Price 50c.

Not Hungry, But—

Young Bride—Why, Charlie, you do not seem to be eating anything this morning. And I got up early to make these biscuits for you.

Charles—No, dear; I don't feel at all hungry this morning, to tell the truth. Your biscuits are very nice indeed. By the way, I wonder if there are any of those dog biscuit left that I bought for Nero Friday.

When a certain Atchison man was in business he was so tired that he dreaded to see even legitimate callers, and fixed up a scheme to keep out as many as possible. He retired from business, and now he is hiring men to come and talk to him.

A farmer came to town to-day. In a great rush, to buy binding twine, as harvesting is in progress at his place. He met so many agents and solicitors that at 3 o'clock this afternoon he was still trying to get away from a life insurance solicitor.

An Atchison girl is convincing a man that she has no use for her family, and that when she marries him, they will not be allowed in the yard. It is the same old story: they will be crowding him away from first table in a month after the marriage.

Matadors Fear the Cows.

It will probably not surprise our readers to hear that most Spanish bull-fighters object to fighting cows. The real reason may, however, astonish them. A sportsmanlike objection to persecuting a female animal has nothing whatever to do with it. The fact is that the average torador is sincerely afraid of a cow.

And he has good reason. The cows of the half-wild breed used for the arena are much quicker in their movements than are the bulls. Their horns are more pointed and more formidable; they do not lower their heads to the ground, shut their eyes and charge like a locomotive upon the rails, but are alert and ready to follow every movement of their persecutors. Their warlike tactics have been adapted not to blind, bovine frontal attacks, but to the strategy of active and cunning beasts of prey, of which the human bull fighter is only a feeble mimic. If these cheap idols of the Spanish populace would face young and active wild cows which had just been robbed of their calves they might, perhaps, forestall the butcher, but they would, at any rate, do something to earn their laurels.—Pearson's Magazine.

ATCHISON GLOBE SIGHTS.

Comment on Everyday Matters by an Original Genius.

An Atchison woman hires her house cleaning done and cleans house for her kin.

An Atchison boy who has been working for two days is taking a week's lay off.

An Atchison merchant who has four newly married men in his employ, is doing all his own work.

An Atchison man who used to be a mean husband, has reformed, and no longer attracts any attention.

"Well," the women have a habit of saying, after a marriage, "she finally got him; but she didn't get much."

There is a piano, an organ, a mandolin, a guitar and a fiddle in an Atchison family which rents a sewing machine.

An Atchison man who has been married three times has pictures of all his wives, in their wedding dresses, hanging in his parlor.

If a man has a sleepless night, the first person he sees next morning is one of those Cheerful Souls who talk of the beauties of the sunrise.

A sickly Atchison man for thirteen years has heard his wife say, when she bought a new dress, "Well, you may die any minute, so I guess I'll get a black dress."

An Atchison policeman says he thought he knew all the swear words, but he learned some new ones recently while listening to a woman abuse her husband.

An Atchison father of five daughters estimates that from the time his oldest is 16 until his youngest is thirty, will be 27 years; that he will be kept out of his parlor that long.

An Atchison girl who returned home from college a month ago, and screamed when her father said cement for cement, is already sweet on a young man who says "has went."

At a meeting of the Never Work Club last night, made up of girls of 16, resolutions were passed denouncing the mother of one of the members who had asked her to wipe the dishes that morning.

A girl who has been off to school wanted to buy some new glassware. "Why, papa," she said, "we can't offer guests tumblers like these." "But we have done it," the old man replied, "and no guest has refused yet."

It is becoming a late style in Atchison for guests who are invited to a wedding to hang around on the outside of the church instead of going in. They have a better view of the bride this way, can gossip more freely, and it is cooler.

When a certain Atchison man was in business he was so tired that he dreaded to see even legitimate callers, and fixed up a scheme to keep out as many as possible. He retired from business, and now he is hiring men to come and talk to him.

Pays Claims on Sight—The Washington Life Insurance Company, of New York, has just paid the claim of Henry Davis, of Medford. Mr. Davis secured his policy just one week before his death. The proofs of claim arrived at the company's home office, July 2, 1901, and check in settlement was sent to Mrs. Davis the same day. This company has not had a contested claim in the past decade, an enviable record. The Washington Life is one of the strongest and best of all the great life insurance corporations. Its assets aggregate nearly $17,000,000; claims paid, over $36,000,000. No other company in the world offers larger guaranteed cash returns at maturity than those contained in the Washington Life's policies. This company's $5,000,000 office building in New York City is one of the world's finest structures. *

If you will send 15 cents in stamps, to address given below, we will forward you, by return mail, one of our large 34x40 inch wall maps of the United States, Cuba and Porto Rico. Any information regarding rates, accommodations, service, time, connections, stop overs, etc., will be cheerfully furnished by B. H. TRUMBULL, Com'l Agt. * 142 Third St., Portland, Oregon. *

PULLMAN ORDINARY SLEEPERS.

The tourist travel between the East and the Pacific coast has reached enormous proportions in the last few years, and calls for a special class of equipment. To meet this demand the Pullman Company has issued from its shops what it technically calls the "Pullman Ordinary Sleeper." These cars appear similar to the regular sleepers, being built on the same plan, but not furnished with the same elegance. They are equipped with mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, pillow-cases, towels, combs, brushes, etc., requiring nothing of the kind to be furnished by the passenger. Each car has a stove for making tea and coffee and doing "light housekeeping," and each section can be fitted with an adjustable table. A uniformed porter accompanies each car, his business being to make up berths, keep the car clean, and look after the wants and comforts of the passengers. In each of the trains which are dispatched daily from Portland by the O. R. & N. Co. is to be found one of these "Pullman Ordinary Sleepers." The car attached to the "Chicago-Portland Special" goes through to Chicago without change, and the one in the "Atlantic Express" runs to Kansas City without change. Passengers in this car for Chicago change to a similar car at Granger. Much of the first-class travel is being carried in these cars, the rates being lower, and the service nearly equal to that in the palace sleepers. For rates and full information, including folders, write to A. L. CRAIG, General Passenger Agent, O. R. & N. Co., Portland, Oregon. *
