PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

Sets Apart Thursday, November 25, as a Day of National Thanksgiving.

Washington, Nov. 2.—President Roosevelt today issued his proclamation fixing Thursday, November 28, as a day of national thanksgiving. It reads:

"A Proclamation. The season is nigh when, according to the time-hallowed custom of our people, the president appoints a day as the special occasion for praise and thanksgiving to God.

"This Thanksgiving finds the people still bowed with sorrow for the death of a great and good president. We mourn for President McKinley because we loved and honored him, and the manner of his death should awaken in the breasts of our people a keen anxiety and a resolute purpose not to be driven by any calamity from the path of strong, orderly, popular liberty, which, as a nation, we have thus far, safely trod.

"Yet, in spite of this great disaster, it is nevertheless true that no people on earth have such abundant cause for thanksgiving as we have. The past year, in particular, has been one of peace and plenty. We have prospered in things material, and have been able to work for our own uplifting in things intellectual and spiritual. Let us remember that, as much has been given us, much will be expected from us; and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips and shows itself in deeds. We can best prove our thankfulness to the Almighty by the way in which, on this earth, and at this time, each of us does his duty by his fellow men.

"Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 28th of this present November, and do recommend that throughout the land the people cease from their wonted occupations and at their several homes and places of worship thank the giver of all good for the countless blessings of our national life.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington, this 2d day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-sixth.

(Seal)

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

By the president.

JOHN HAY, Secretary of State."

ORDER OF WASHINGTON.

Charges Against Supreme Officers Not Sustained and Everything is O. K.

Seattle, Nov. 7.—Supreme President W. W. Terry, Supreme Secretary J. L. Mitchell, Supreme Captain Paul Pferdner and T. B. McDevitt, of the Order of Washington, have answered charges made by John R. Parker, president of the local union, regarding the organization. The supreme officers were indorsed in every possible manner by the members of the union, and whatever dissent there might have been, disappeared when President Parker threw down his badge and withdrew from the meeting. A unanimous vote of confidence in the head officers was expressed by the Seattle union, and peace reigns, with the exception that Parker is to be tried under impeachment proceedings.

The Order of Washington has unions in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, and has a membership of over 12,000. The supreme officers are leading citizens of Portland. It is incorporated under the laws of Oregon, and was the first society authorized to do insurance business in Washington under the new law.

PACIFIC REGALIA COMPANY.

Business of This Home Industry Requires a Larger Factory and More Capital.

Portland, Nov. 6.—The Pacific Regalia Company, of Portland, has been re-incorporated by Paul Pferdner, J. L. Mitchell, John S. Finney, T. B. McDevitt and May Pferdner, with $50,000 capital stock. The company manufactures badges, buttons, regalia and lodge supplies of all kinds. The factory now operates 30 machines of various kinds and will be still further enlarged to accommodate its growing business.

$500,000 Fire in Louisiana.

Jennings, La., Nov. 6.—Early this morning fire broke out in the restaurant of J. E. Dudley. The wind was blowing a heavy gale, and by 6 o'clock five blocks of the main business part of the town were in smoldering embers and ashes. The loss is estimated at $500,000, with insurance at about half that amount.

Japanese Concession in Corea.

Yokohama, Nov. 7.—Corea has allotted to Japan 650 acres at Chapokko, near Masampo, for a special settlement, to be policed by the Japanese. The land was formerly pegged out by a Russian warship. The Korean veto on grain exports has been withdrawn, in deference to Japan's remonstrance.

The Warren Disabled.

Washington, Nov. 8.—A dispatch from Manila was received at the war department today confirming the news that the transport Warren had been disabled, and stating that the Hancock had been coaled and dispatched to Kobe, Japan, where the Warren now is, to bring the Warren's passengers to San Francisco. The congressional party, who has been visiting the Philippines, were among the Warren's passengers.

Stabbed at a Dance.

The Dalles, Nov. 7.—During a country dance about 20 miles southeast of The Dalles, Saturday night, Nick Marks, a well-known young farmer, was terribly stabbed by Reuben Ford, another young farmer of that district. Young Marks and Ford got into a fight over an alleged insult offered to Marks' wife, and during the encounter Ford pulled out a knife and began slashing Marks. One blow is reported to have struck near Marks' heart, and his recovery at last accounts was considered doubtful.
