SNOW FOLLOWS FLOODS.

Eastern States in the Midst of Another Demoralizing Storm.

New York, March 7.—The sleet storm which raged this afternoon was succeeded tonight, after a brief intermission, by another fall of snow. The snow is dry and threatens to drift badly. A force of about 5,000 men is at work on the streets, which are glutted. A heavy mist which hung over the river during the rush hours tonight made navigation for the ferries somewhat hazardous and there was a terrific crush on the Brooklyn bridge, which fortunately was not attended by any accident.

The situation at the grand central station had not improved much tonight. All trains are arriving from three to six hours behind time.

Telegraph service was further demoralized by the storm. The Western Union Company reported that it was losing wires in all directions on account of the heavy snow which in some localities was followed by sleet. Between Williamsport and Easton, Pa., 20 miles of the Western Union poles are down.

The train service on the New York Central Railroad, which was disorganized by the snow, was further impeded by the snow. The trains from the West and North were in bad shape. No attempt was made to run the Adirondack Express. The Chicago Express, due at 10 A. M., is stalled somewhere along the line, with no means of reporting its condition or whereabouts.

The snow stopped shortly before noon and was followed by sleet. A total depth of six inches of snow has fallen.

The Erie roadbed is washed out in many places between Paterson and Middletown. All through trains on railroads having terminals in Jersey City were very late in arriving owing to the storm. Many coal trains on the Pennsylvania are stalled and there is likely to be a scarcity of coal.

Washington, Ind., March 7.—While two citizens were watching them, burglars looted the First National Bank at Montgomery, seven miles east of here, early this morning, and escaped with $3,500 in money and $3,600 worth of government bonds. Five explosions of nitro glycerin were required to blow open the safe, and many people were awakened by the concussion. Two men, who reside opposite the bank, both watched the burglars work, but gave no alarm for fear of being shot down by two of the cracksmen, who were patrolling the streets with revolvers in their hands.

The fifth explosion tore the doors from the safe, and the men quickly gathered up the money and bonds and ran to the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern Railroad, where they boarded a handcar, abandoning it a mile west of the town. After that no trace of them could be found. The stolen bonds are of the coupon variety payable to bearer, and can easily be cashed by the robbers. The bank is protected by $5,000 burglar insurance.

San Francisco Ironworkers Make Slight Concessions to Employers.

San Francisco, March 7.—After continuing for 9 1/2 months, the strike of the ironworkers of this city, inaugurated May 20 of last year, to enforce a demand for a nine hour day, came to a formal end today. Two thirds of the unions composing the Iron Trades Council have acted upon a recommendation made by that body advising that the strike be prosecuted no longer, and have voted to allow their members to return to work. Within the next week, between 2,500 and 3,000 men will be employed. From good authority the intimation comes that the men accept slight concessions and complete a temporary settlement on the condition that the National Federation will soon adjust working conditions in the iron trades generally throughout the country.

MASSACRES OF MISSIONARIES

Two Outrages Reported From the Interior of the Chinese Empire.

Victoria, B. C., March 6.—Reports of two massacres of missionaries in China were received by the steamer Empress of India, which has just arrived in from the Orient. In Kiang Su, two priests were murdered by a band of Chinese, including soldiers, who attacked their mission. It is stated that the attack was made in revenge for the deposition of the son of Prince Tuan by the dowager empress at the request of the foreign ministers. The magistrates of the district being friendly to foreigners, warned the missionaries, but they were attacked before they could get out of the way.

The other massacre took place in Kiang Si, a priest being attacked while he slept and cruelly murdered. His body was mutilated, both hands being cut off. His two servants were also killed. The viceroy has sent a troop to hunt for the murderers.

Two pirates of a band who had captured two junks in the West river, and were guarding the prisoners taken in the raid, suffered a terrible death. They were attacked by a band of outlaws and the pirates were buried alive.

The Kobe Herald is authority for the statement that 200 fishermen from the village of Wugo were drowned in a storm off the coast of Mijikan, February 17. The boats had gone a long way out, and being overtaken by the storm, were lost. Only 13 out of more than 200 fishermen from that one village returned, and they came in on an upturned boat. Fleets from other villages also suffered.

A Tokio dispatch says that the British subjects in Japan have decided to order two silver vases in commemoration of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, and to present one each to the sovereigns of the allied nations. The British consul at Yokohama, who is the chief mover in this matter, has already ordered the vases, which are about 26 feet in height. The flags of the high contracting powers, the territories and seas of Great Britain, Japan, China and Korea, are said to be shown in the design for these vases. Other Japanese papers comment favorably upon the treaty.
