JOHN P. ALTGELD DEAD.

Ex-Governor of Illinois Expires from Effects of Apoplectic Stroke.
Joliet, Ill., March 13.—Ex-Governor John P. Altgeld died at the Hotel Munroe yesterday morning at 7:09 o'clock.
The physicians remained with him throughout the night. When the end was nearing they worked his arms vigorously to revive respiration, but all to no purpose. The cause of death is given as cerebral hemorrhages, there having been no apoplectic seizure of the brain. The vomiting at first was taken to indicate ptomaine poisoning, but it was determined this was due to different manifestations of the brain trouble.
Mr. Altgeld came to Joliet, having been advertised as the special orator for the big Will county pro-Boer meeting. He confessed that he was not in the best of health, having been troubled with some apparently simple stomach trouble. He was not willing to allow that to interfere with his speech, however, his great interest in the South African struggle having been heightened by the announcement of the Boer success in the capture of General Methuen.

PRINCE HENRY HAS GONE.

Sailed from New York on the Big Hamburg-American Liner Deutschland.
New York, March 12.—Prince Henry of Prussia sailed for Germany on board the Hamburg-American liner Deutschland yesterday afternoon. His last day in America was spent entirely on board the Deutschland, but it was filled with pleasing incidents.
The prince breakfasted early and about 10 o'clock began to receive official farewell visitors, including representatives of Germany in this country and those of the United States government.
The members of the party which accompanied the prince on his tour were his guests at luncheon. Covers were laid for 28 persons in the dining room of the ship, and music was furnished by the band from the Hohenzollern.
At the close of the luncheon, when it came time to say goodbye, the prince, taking a rose from the table, said: "This is the badge of that which I have been admiring during my entire trip to the United States—American beauty." He placed the flower in his buttonhole, and each guest followed his example.
Immediately after the luncheon, at the prince's invitation, the party went to the commander's bridge of the Deutschland, and was there photographed. Then the real leavetaking began. The final farewells were said by members of the German embassy at Washington.
When the ship sailed all the approaches and the pier was crowded. The first cabin section of the Deutschland was packed all the afternoon with passengers and their friends, and in many cases women had to be rescued from the crush to see the prince. The Deutschland sailed at 3:45. As she moved away from her pier the cheering was continuous. The prince appeared on the bridge and bowed. All down North river the passing tugs and craft of every description gave the great liner and her distinguished passenger a noisy send-off. At the Battery, which was reached at 4 o'clock, a crowd cheered as the vessel steamed down the bay. The Deutschland reached the Narrows at 4:35. Forts Wadsworth and Hamilton fired salutes, which were answered by the Deutschland, and the garrison at Fort Wadsworth lined up on the bluff until the steamer had passed out into the lower bay.
The prince's apartments on the Deutschland include the captain's cabin and three other adjoining rooms, especially connected for his use. The social hall on the Deutschland was beautifully decorated with flowers, and there was a profusion of them in the prince's suite of rooms. The company had also tastefully decorated the pier.

PRINCE AND PRESIDENT.

Henry and Roosevelt Exchange Farewell Telegrams.
Washington, March 12.—The following exchanges took place between Prince Henry of Prussia and President Roosevelt:
"Hoboken, N. J., March 11, 1902.—The president of the United States: On this day of my departure, I beg to thank you personally, as well as the nation whose guest I have been, for all the kindness, consideration and good feeling I have met with during my visit to your interesting country. I hope that my visit might have increased the feelings of friendship between the country I represent and the United States. Bidding you farewell, let me wish you every possible success, and, pray, remember me to Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Roosevelt, who so charmingly and with so much luck accomplished her task when launching his majesty's yacht Meteor. Once more, most hearty thanks. May we meet again."
"HEINRICH, Prince von Prussian."
"White House, Washington, D. C., March 11.—Henry, Prince of Prussia, Steamer Deutschland, Hamburg Dock, Hoboken, N. J.: Not only have I enjoyed your visit personally, but on behalf of my countrymen I wish to express to you the pleasure it has been to see you and the real good I think your visit has done in promoting a feeling of friendship between Germany and the United States. It is my most earnest wish that this feeling may strengthen steadily. Mrs. Roosevelt sends her warmest regards, as would also Miss Roosevelt if she were not absent. Pray present my heartiest greeting to his majesty, the German emperor. Again I thank you for your visit and wish you all good luck wherever you may be."
"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

John P. Altgeld, ex-governor of Illinois, was stricken with apoplexy and is lying at the point of death.

The yacht Constitution will be placed in commission again the coming summer. Her owners do not believe the Columbia outclasses her.

It was noticed during the address that the ex-governor threw an unusual amount of energy and feeling into his words, and the collapse, the physicians think, resulted from overstraining his already weakened physical powers.

TORNADO IN THE SOUTH.

Seven Persons Meet Death in a Storm in the State of Mississippi.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 14.—A tornado swept through the southern section of Copiah and the northern section of Lincoln counties this morning, killed at least seven persons and leveled buildings, trees and fences.
Montgomery, a village in Copiah county, on the Illinois Central Railroad, was the worst sufferer, and four bodies are known to be under the debris of collapsed buildings there.

Three miles further south a railroad camp was wrecked and three negroes were killed. A passenger train on the Illinois Central was struck by the storm, and every window in every coach was blown in.
