QUITE SATISFIED.

The New Age is quite satisfied with the result of the election. It is especially so because the two men whom it was particularly anxious should be elected were elected—that is, the two men of whose election there was some doubt until the votes were counted. Of the election of Judge Bean, Treasurer Moore and Superintendent Ackerman, there never was any doubt, from the beginning.

But the governorship was in doubt, all through the campaign. Mr. Furnish is an excellent man, a splendid business man, but he had to be sacrificed. The New Age said some weeks ago that the colored voters were going to show somewhere, somehow, their political strength. They did it by voting, to a great extent, for Mr. Chamberlain, because they could thus make their votes effective. Except for about 400 votes of colored men in this city, Mr. Chamberlain could not have won. These men had no grudge against Mr. Furnish; they simply hit the Republican ticket in the weak spot, because they were insulted and ostracised in the last Republican convention. And what they did this time they will do again, and worse, hereafter, if they are not to some little, reasonable extent, recognized.

The New Age is especially pleased at the election of Judge Williams for mayor. It is proud that it helped in some little degree to bring about that result. Mr. Inman is a good, strong and popular man. The New Age said not a word against him; had nothing to say against him; but it was important, considering all the circumstances, that Judge Williams should be elected. He is Portland, Oregon's, "Grand Old Man," and will make an ideal mayor. When President Roosevelt visits Portland next summer, he will be greeted, officially, by a mayor who has been a constitution framer, a United States senator, an attorney general of the United States. In no other city in the United States, large or small, can he meet and greet, and be greeted by, so distinguished a mayor. The New Age cared for little else, in comparison with this—the election of Judge Williams for mayor. He has been all his life, and still is, the true friend of the Negro race. He fairly deserved their support and he got it. And as it happened he needed it.

It is said in some quarters that Jack Matthews will be the boss, but The New Age doesn't believe he will "run" the mayor, even in the least degree. Even to suppose so is an insult to the new mayor.

As to the general result, it only proves that Oregon is very strongly and solidly Republican, as usual, or more than usual. We will have a Democratic governor, for reasons that needn't be gone over further here—though they are interesting—yet the state is Republican by about 12,000. More than that, it is for Roosevelt for president, as will be developed later.

But let the politicians remember that the Negro voters are liable to cut some figure in future elections, as indeed they did in this one.

AN ENEMY TO HUMANITY.

The extravagant and scandalous representations of Senator Tillman regarding the state of society in the South are making Southern men "tired," and even somewhat angry. Tillman is reported to have said in a recent speech that "throughout the south every white family is living in a state of horror of Negro rapine." Ex-

Governor Fishback, of Arkansas, writes to the Springfield Republican to say that this is not so. He does not profess to know how it may be in South Carolina, but he says he is well acquainted with conditions in Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, Arkansas and Texas, and asserts that such a statement applied to these states is as unfounded as if applied to Massachusetts or New York. He has lived in Arkansas 44 years, and is prepared to say that he doesn't believe that there is one white family in the state who lives in a state of horror of Negro rapine. "The very best feeling exists between the two races." In proof of this he instances what is doing for the education of the colored population, quoting from his own last message a passage founded on the United States census reports that, while the white race is paying 98 per cent of the taxes for the education of the colored people, they are educating a larger proportion of colored people than ever before. This statement as to the percentage of taxes paid is, however, misleading and incorrect. As The New Age showed a few weeks ago, the Negro taxpayer pays a larger per centage of the cost of their schools in the South, and are paying more and more, year by year, and are doing it cheerfully.

This rabid race hatred, as exhibited by the remarks of Senator Tillman, is another disgrace to the white man's civilization. There are bad Negro people, no doubt, of both sexes, North and South, but their badness is largely a result of conditions created and maintained by their white "superiors" and "masters."

There is no more occasion for burning a Negro "rape-fiend" at the stake than there is for burning at the stake a white son of culture and civilization who ruins a colored girl and laughs at it as a smart trick, excused by the church, approved by the law. Isn't it so? Who hangs or burns the white debaucher, even if he is deserving of the uttermost hell-fire? Nobody.

Your courts will not convict him. Your churches will send him up to St. Peter's gate with a certificate of good character. But if a "nigger" wrongfully assaults a white woman, you burn him at a stake, and gnash your teeth in glorious glee.

And you elect such monsters as Tillman, a confessed, professed and boasted murderer of the Negro race, to represent you in the United States senate!

An Interesting Investigation.

During his summer vacation, an English professor traveled about the country, asking every tramp that he met why he didn't work. He interviewed two thousand vagrants, and, classing them according to the various reasons they gave for not earning their daily bread in an orthodox manner, we get the following: Six hundred and fifty-three said they were willing to work, but could not obtain any; four hundred and forty-five could not give any reason that would hold water; three hundred and one thought that no one ought to have to work, and if some people were foolish enough to do so—well, they intended living on those said people; four hundred and seven were on their way to procure work at distant towns, having letters in their possession promising them employment, at the said towns, and the remaining one hundred and ninety-four were waiting for relatives to die and leave them their money.

Our Exports of Coal.

The United States average exports of 750,000 tons of coal per month.

Our National Loaf.

The indefatigable reveller in figures has taken the English loaf as a subject to juggle with, and has produced the following startling statistics and statements:

The national loaf, which weighs considerably over seven million tons, contains rather over 1,015,000,000 cubic feet of the staff of life—that is to say, if turned out having the width and height of the ordinary loaf—i. e., six and three-quarter inches high and four and three-eighths inches wide—it would have a length of 937,805 miles, which would give every man, woman and child in the kingdom a daily ration rather less than four inches long, or in the aggregate a daily loaf 2,567 miles in length, extending from London to three hundred miles beyond Mount Ararat into the heart of the dominion owning allegiance to the Shah.

If baked in the form of a biscuit or cake a quarter of an inch in thickness, the area of the same would amount to over 1,119,000 acres, and if baked in a circular form would entail a walk of one hundred and forty-eight miles to circumscribe it.

Why She Postpones Marriage.

All the suitors for a girl's hands in Borneo are expected to be generous in their presents to her. These presents are never returned; therefore the wily young lady defers as long as possible a positive selection of the happy man.

Bad for Tom.

"It is reported that Tom Reed has taken to smoking cigarettes." "Gracious! And just the other day a Southern judge said he wouldn't believe a cigarette smoker under oath."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The things that make us happy are those to which we have given our hearts. Hearts that will not melt in the sunshine of love will melt in the flame of wrath.

THE EARS pay no taxes. Stress makes strong. A recipe is not a cake. Liking leads to love and love to likeness. The braggart deceives no one but himself. A selfish success is a sad failure. Heaven oft takes in what earth casts out. Cowardly fear finds no favor with God. Many words do not make much wisdom. God's sympathy is not exhausted in sighs. A racket is a revival of nothing but noise. Actual liberty centers in essential loyalty. It takes a great man to comprehend himself. The church is weakened by wicked wealth. A man must lose his all to find himself. Sincerity is the best sermon against hypocrisy. Religion without joy is a sun without light. The true martyr does not hire out to a museum. The path to greatness with God lies open to all. It is hard to be healed when we hide our wounds. When God's showers cease man's supplies fail. A state religion does not make a religious state. The great life is made up of greatness in littles. No man falls of success who conquers himself. Success is not salvation but salvation is success. The pearls of truth lie deep in the sea of patience. A man may be judged by his judgments of others. God wants flowers on hearts more than on altar-cloths. It is still worth while to be right no matter who is wrong. The foolish bark at truth because it is a stranger to them. No one is nearer heaven by belonging to the upper classes of society. The things that make us happy are those to which we have given our hearts. Hearts that will not melt in the sunshine of love will melt in the flame of wrath.
