Remains of Tracy Returned to the Oregon Penitentiary for Burial.

Davenport, Wash., Aug. 9. Tracy's body is on its way to Salem, Oregon. It was taken to Moscow, a station on the Great Northern, 10 miles from here, this afternoon, to be conveyed over that road to Seattle. The inquest was completed this afternoon, and the jury rendered the following verdict:

We, the undersigned, duly sworn by R. P. Moore, coroner of Lincoln county, as a coroner's jury to inquire into the cause of the death of the body of a person before us, after inspecting the body and hearing the testimony of the witnesses, find as follows: That the body is that of Harry Tracy, the escaped convict from the Oregon penitentiary; that said Harry Tracy came to his death at the ranch of Lou Eddy, in Lincoln county, Washington, on August 5, 1902, by means of a gunshot wound from a pistol in his possession and held in his own hands, after first having been wounded by a party or parties to this jury unknown; that Harry Tracy was an escaped convict from the Oregon penitentiary, and at the time of his death was fleeing from officers and possees in pursuit, and that no one is blameable for his death, but that all efforts to effect his capture were praiseworthy and fully in accordance with the laws of Washington.

IMPORTANT RAILROAD MOVE.

Company Incorporated to Build New Portage Road on Oregon Side of Columbia.

The Dalles, Or., Aug. 9.—Articles of incorporation have been filed in the county clerk's office for a company to build a railroad between The Dalles and Biggs, Sherman county, the terminus of the Columbia Southern. The right of way sought is by way of the Seufert ranch up Five Mile to the intersection of Ten Mile creek, thence up Ten Mile creek to the Cooper ranch and across the bench land above Celilo, on to and across the Deschutes above the old Miller Bridge property.

Portland, Aug. 9.—An independent railroad on the line indicated in the Dalles dispatch will serve two purposes. It will admit the traffic of the Columbia Southern railroad to free water in the Columbia river at The Dalles, and it will serve as a portage railroad past the un navigable stretch of the Columbia below Celilo Falls. It will be able to do just what the Paul F. Mohr road was designed to do. The new road is believed to be in the interest of the Columbia Southern.

URGE MANY CHANGES.

Wyoming Democrats Adopt a Platform and Make Nominations.

Rawlins, Wyo., Aug. 9.—The Democratic state convention nominated the following ticket:

Governor, George T. Beek, Big Horn county; state treasurer, Colin Hunter, Laramie county; secretary of state, D. N. Stickney, Albany county; state auditor, W. D. Hays, Big Horn county; superintendent of public instruction, Mrs. Delario, Albany county; congress, Charles P. Clemons, Carbon county.

The platform adopted declares allegiance to the national platforms of the past. It demands the election of the United States senators by the direct vote of the people, the compulsory arbitration of labor disputes; the disincorporation of state institutions from partisan control, municipal ownership of public utilities, and a return to the original Australian ballot. The establishment of the initiative and referendum is advocated and the opening of the Shoshone Indian reserve is urged.

CHILDREN BURNED.

Coal Oil and Matches Cause Frightful Accident at Klamath.

Ashland, Or., Aug. 9.—A most shocking accident occurred at Klamath on last evening, resulting in the death of two children, Lester and Emory Davis, aged 6 and 3 years. They were the children of Mrs. Laura Moon Davis, who conducts a millinery store there. It is reported that the two children were playing in the yard in the rear of the house with some parlor matches, and that close by was a five gallon can of kerosene. In some way the coal oil became ignited, exploded and covered the little ones with a blaze of fire. An attempt was made to smother the flames, and the burning clothing was taken from the little ones, but the flames had already done their work, and, after lingering in great agony, both died at 7:30 o'clock.

FRIARS SOLD EARLY.

Disposed of Their Philippine Holdings Before American Occupation.

Rome, Aug. 8.—According to information received by the Vatican, almost all the real estate belonging to Spanish friars in the Philippines, was sold before American occupation to syndicates and corporations, registered and duly recognized, headed by Americans living in New York. It is alleged by the same authority that, although the friars hold some shares in these corporations, they do not own controlling interests. The Vatican is surprised at the information, in view of Governor's proposition to buy the friar's lands, which are apparently no longer in their control. It is considered remarkable that Governor Taft, fresh from the Philippines, was not aware of the situation.

Washington Knew About It.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The war department has known for some time that portions of the friar lands in the Philippines have been disposed of to companies and all of the recent negotiations conducted by Secretary Root have carefully taken into account any contingencies which might arise through these transfers. The transfers are not considered to have been entirely in good faith and it is generally believed that the friars do in fact hold a majority of stock in the companies which took over the lands.

UP IN THE AIR.

Several Balloon Weddings to Occur During Portland Elks Carnival.

Portland, Aug. 6.—There are to be several weddings "in high life" in Portland during the September carnival of the Portland Elks. The ceremony of tying the nuptial knot will be performed in a balloon in mid-air, a thousand feet above the ground, in plain view of thousands. This is one of the novelties that will be seen during the early days of the Elks' carnival, which will open with a grand prize parade on September 1. Several applications have already been received by the management from willing candidates. For their willingness to experience this unique, if not sensational, ceremony in a balloon, the management is prepared to set the happy couple up with about $500 worth of housekeeping equipment, including everything from a piano to a sack of flour. If any swains from outside Portland are anxious to receive a handsome dowry, all they have to do is to address a letter to the secretary of the Portland Elks' Carnival, to make the final arrangements in advance.
