SEVERAL WOUNDED.

Riot at Wilkesbarre During Which Deputies Fire On Strikers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 16.—A riot occurred at the Warnock washery at Durysa during the afternoon. Trouble had been brewing since early morning. Before 7 o'clock women and boys crowded about the place and started to interfere with those who wanted to go to work. Sheriff Jacobs and a number of deputies were on the ground, and they held the crowd back. The works were started, but remained in operation only a short time. The crowd on the outside threw stones over the stockade at the deputies who were on guard inside. Several times the deputies were tempted to fire. Rather than have any trouble work was suspended for the time being.

The deputy sheriffs returned to Wilkesbarre early in the evening, reporting all quiet at the washery when they left. They had hardly reached Wilkesbarre, however, when the deputies on guard were attacked. Several men in the mob also attempted to climb over the barricade. The deputies warned them to go back, and when they did not, a volley was fired. Half a dozen men were wounded, but none of them, so far as is known, seriously. Warrants have been sworn out before the burgess charging the deputies with rioting and felonious wounding. The constables went to the washery and placed 25 men under arrest. They were held in $300 bail each. They could not furnish the bonds and were brought to the county jail here.

Salt Lake City, Aug. 16.—The grand lodge of Elks has adopted the recommendation of the committee on rules and laws, absolutely prohibiting the holding of street fairs or carnivals under the auspices of Elks' lodges. As a number of lodges throughout the country have already made arrangements for fairs or carnivals, to take place in the next few months, the law will not go into effect until January 1. The debate over the question was spirited, but the feeling of the members of the lodge that such fairs and carnivals were not in accord with the fundamental principles of the order was evidently very strong, and the committee's recommendation was overwhelmingly adopted.

THE NEW TAX LAW.

County Court Has Not Now Any Jurisdiction to Extend Time for Payment.

Salem, Or., Aug. 15.—Under the new law for the collection of delinquent taxes, unpaid taxes become delinquent after the first Monday in October. The county courts have absolutely no jurisdiction in the premises and do not have the right to extend for a day the time for the collection of any such delinquent taxes. Under the old law they became delinquent after April 1, but the county court had the authority to make such extension of the time in which to make the collections as was deemed proper. But under the new law the taxes will absolutely become delinquent after the first Monday in October.

Section 14 of the law now in operation prescribes the times of payment, the amount of penalty and interest for delinquencies, etc.

Section 19 of the same act treats with the delinquent roll and prescribes when and in what manner it shall be made. It is as follows:

If any of the taxes mentioned in the roll shall remain unpaid, and the sheriff shall be unable to collect the same, he shall immediately after the first Monday of October extend the amount of the tax on each several parcel of real property, and upon the personal property assessed to each individual, in a column provided for such purpose on the tax roll, headed delinquent, and shall return such roll, together with a statement compiled therefrom, and entered thereon showing the total amount of double assessments, and other errors, etc.

Subsequent sections of the act provide that after the examination by the county clerk of the roll, and when the proper credits have been made for errors, etc., then the roll shall be returned to the sheriff with a warrant commanding him to sell the property upon which the tax was levied.

So it will be seen that the county court has no voice in the matter. The time when the unpaid taxes become delinquent, as well as the time of their collection now being regulated entirely by statute, and there will be no extension of time.

LABOR DAY IN OREGON.

Governor Geer Issues a Proclamation for Its Observance.

Salem, Or., Aug. 15.—Governor Geer has issued the first Labor day proclamation in the history of Oregon. It follows:

"Whereas, The Legislature of Oregon has set apart the first Monday in September of each year as a legal holiday to be known as Labor day;

"Therefore I, T. T. Geer, governor of said state, do hereby recommend that all places of business of whatsoever kind, as far as possible, be closed on Monday, September 1, 1902, and that the day be devoted to an observance of such exercises as may contribute to a better understanding between labor and capital, the great moving forces behind modern industrial development, and it is especially urged that employers cooperate with their employes in a mutual observance of the day in such manner as will fittingly recognize the reliance which each must place upon the other before the best results from both may be expected or obtained.

"In testimony whereof I have heretofore set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed thereto.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Salem, this 13th day of August, 1902.
T. T. GEER, Governor."

SURPRISED BY MOROS.

Outpost Attacked and Two American Soldiers Killed.

Manila, Aug. 15.—A small party of Moros surprised an outpost of the Twenty-seventh infantry at Camp Vickers. Sergeant Foley and Private Carey were killed, and Private Vandoren was severely wounded. The Moros, who numbered only a dozen, were armed with spears and swords. The morning was foggy. The attacking party crawled to within a few feet of the sentinels and then sprang upon them suddenly. The entire outpost rushed to the relief of the sentinels, but they were too late, and the Moros escaped, although possibly a few were wounded.

The American sentinels were terribly cut with the spears and swords. The attacking Moros were all from Bacolod, and the occurrence will probably result in a move against the town, which has a strong fort and other defenses.
