ing of coming even farther west. He resigned his position at the Mer- chant's and came out to the "City of Destiny" in the year of 1889.

One of the many achievements of Mr. Asberry which makes the writer feel most proud of, is that every drug store you visit you see the unequalled "Asberry Tar-shampoo."

Mrs. H. J. Asberry has returned. Mrs. Fred Mitchell left here Sunday for Portland.

Mr. J. H. Fullilove made a flying visit to Tacoma Sunday. Mr. Fullilove is a very busy man.

Tacoma will be well represented in Portland during the Elk's Carnival as a large number contemplate taking advantage of the extremely low rates offered September 3.

Messrs. Jno. Hall, Jno. Bridges, D. W. Fry, Lawrence Sledge, Mrs. Sledge, and several others who went to Port- land last week on the excursion have returned.

Mr. Edw. F. Meyer, of Bremerton, Wash., was visiting friends in Tacoma Sunday and Monday.

Mr. A. D. Griffin, editor of the New Age, is a hustler, he has only made two business trips to Tacoma and he has secured five columns of display advertisements and established an agency with a paid circulation of one hundred.

An opportunity to show self control, ladyship and good breeding was offered Sunday afternoon on a crowd- ed suburban street car by Miss Mabel Walker when she and several friends were on the car standing and waiting for the seats to be turned on the open car.

Mr. J. C. Boyer of Everett is in the city on business. Mr. Ed Brown it is reported will soon be a benedict.

A "Carnival" will be given for the benefit of Rev. Wright by Miss Hol- ling about the 30th of September. Those who wish to vote for the queen can find the boxes at Mr. Coffey's, Mr. Brady's, Mr. Deering's stores and at Zion church.

The pastor and members of Bethel A. M. E. are laying plans to place before the public an entertainment known as the "Portland Pacific Exhibition."

Services at Bethel A. M. E. church as follows: Preaching, 11 a. m.; by the Rev. W. T. Biggers; class meeting at noon; Sunday school, 1 p. m., conducted by Mrs. Birtha Woods, Supt., at 8 p. m. The services will be pre- faced by a song service from the congregation and choir, with Miss Mary Moore presiding at the organ.

ATTENTION.

Mr. Jerry Brown and Jas. Romano. Several of these may make up their minds to remain in our city for a while at least.

is directed to the G. A. R. Convention to be held in Washington, D. C., October 6th to 11th inclusive, 1902. We can sell you tickets at rates which make going to the convention cheaper than staying at home, and we make enough out of it so that we are not "On the County."

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"A BROKEN HEART," AT COB- DRAY'S THEATER. On Sunday evening, September 14, the people of this city are to have an opportunity of witnessing Eather Bas- jaero's beautiful story of life in the Rocky mountains.

"A Broken Heart" is now playing its second season of unqualified suc- cess. The reason of it is great popu- larity is not difficult to understand. "I write from the heart out," says James Whitcomb Riley, and there is no surer way of writing to the heart than the method of the famous Hooper poet. Miss Rujairo has evidently caught the idea, and the result is a play that will live long after many of the plays of the day are forgotten.

"A Thoroughbred Tramp," which appears at Cordey's Theater is claimed to be one of the best comedies on the road. The story of the play deals principally with the troubles and scrapes of the tramp, T. Rush Thompson, though through the comedy there is a strain of sadness, the history of a wrecked life, a fall from fine raiment to the rags and tatters that proclaim him to be nothing but a tramp.

A New Way to Raise Money. Five years ago a "Picture Club" was organized in a New England town. Twelve members, six of each sex, were enrolled. Each member owned a camera, or borrowed one.

Jewelers' Dummy Clocks. A paragraph has been going the rounds of the press that the dummy clocks used by jewelers and other dealers in timepieces as advertisements al- ways indicate the hour of 8:15 to com- memorate the precise moment at which President Lincoln was assassinated.

Flots on the lakes complain that riv- als use the searchlight to blind them.
