A home remedy: "Do you think coal oil is good for mosquitoes?" "I think a hard slap is better."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"Mannish sort of girl." "Is she really?" "Very. She used the telephone for the first time in her life to-day, and she didn't giggle once."

Tough: "Oh, Henry, don't cut your pie with a knife." "Eliza, you ought to be thankful I don't call for a can-opener."—Chicago Record.

Briggs—What's your idea of heaven? Griggs—Well, it's the way a man feels the first three days after he is home from a summer vacation.—Life.

L. is Object: Citiman—I see you raise your own vegetables. Suburbanite—No! I simply plant a small garden so as to keep the chickens at home.—Life.

Reporter—You are so confident of catching this criminal you must have a strong clew. Detective—We have. He didn't wear a Panama.—New York Sun.

"The singer has made great strides in the profession, hasn't she?" "Yes, indeed. Formerly, when she received an encore, she sang; now she usually smiles."

A Clever Lawyer: "Is he a good lawyer?" "A good lawyer! Why, say! I have known him to prove the truth of what isn't so, and not half try."—Chicago Post.

Making love: "As a mere matter of curiosity, sir, I should like to know how long you have been making love to my wife?" "I began, sir, when you left off."—Life.

Mother—Did the professor propose? Daughter—Dear me, mother, he was on the very verge of it, and I foolishly happened to mention bacteria.—Detroit Free Press.

"Papa, what is the difference between the smart set and the four hundred?" "Why, my son, the four hundred is limited to twenty-six hundred, but everybody is in the smart set."—Life.

Our Two Great Classes: The world seems to be divided into two classes; those who board, and envy those who keep house, and those who keep house, and envy the boarders.—Atchison Globe.

"And you still insist that your flying machine is a practical commercial quantity?" "I do," answered the business-like inventor; "if you don't believe it I can show you the gate receipts."—Washington Star.

Magistrate—Now, I'll let you off this time, but it must be a lesson for you not to be in bad company again. Prisoner—Gee whizz! It ain't my fault that I'm here; the cops made me come.—Philadelphia Record.

Lawyer Brief—I see that case of yours is on. Jury drawn yet? Lawyer Skinner—Yes, and it's a splendid one. Lawker Brief—Above the average in intelligence, eh? Lawyer Skinner—No; way below it.—Philadelphia Press.

At Two Dollars a Visit: "Yes, the doctor has put me on the strictest kind of diet." "Indeed. What is it?" "Well, he says I mustn't eat anything I don't like, and not any more than I want of what I do."—Baltimore News.

"What are you doing?" asked the justice as the defendant's counsel began his argument. "Going to present our own side of the case," replied the justice. "It has a tendency to confuse the court."

Driver—Did you mark the spot where your comrade fell out of the boat and was drowned? O'Lafferty—Shure, O! did. O! took a piece of wood an' left it floatin' on th' water at th' very place he went down, sor.—Ohio State Journal.

The Real Thing: "Are you a real Indian?" asked the investigating youth of one of the painted Indians who accompanied Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. "Sure!" replied the Indian; "I was born an' raised in Indianapolis, Indiana."—Exchange.

Mrs. Wederly (unmasking after the fancy ball)—Oh, but didn't I fool you, though? You had no idea that you were flirting with your wife all the evening. Mr. Wederly—No, I hadn't; you were so very agreeable I was completely deceived.—Tit-Bits.

The danger of a little knowledge: "Don't you sometimes regret that you did not devote more time to your education in early life?" "No, sir," answered the politician; "if I had learned to talk grammatical the voters in my district would think I was puttin' on airs and driftin' away from the hearts of the people."—Washington Star.

"Why did you insist on getting me an upper berth in the sleeping car?" asked the habitually austere lady. "Well," answered her irrepressible niece, "you have been expecting for so many years to find somebody under your bed that I thought it might relieve your mind to have all doubts on the subject removed at once."—Washington Star.

"Yes," said the young wife, "Henry and I had some words this morning, and I can't deny that he got the best of it." "That will never do," returned the experienced neighbor. "You can't afford to start in married life that way." "I know it," answered the young wife. "I've thought it all over, and when he comes home to-night I'm going to bring him to terms so quick that he'll hardly know what's happened." "That's right, my dear. Show some spirit. What are you going to do?" "I'm going to bring up the subject again and then cry."
