THE ELECTION

How the Vote Went in the Various States.

WASHINGTON VOTE

ENTIRE STATE GOES REPUBLICAN BY 10,000 MAJORITY.

Idaho Republicans Win by About 6,000—in California the Strongest Fight is on Governor, with Pardee, the Republican Nominee, in the Lead—Returns from Other States.

WASHINGTON.

Seattle, Nov. 6.—The state of Washington has gone Republican, so far as returns now in show, by at least 12,000 majority for supreme court justice and congressmen. King county alone contributes between 4,000 and 5,000 to these majorities. The legislature on joint ballot will stand at least 110 Republicans to an opposition of 26. The Republican majority is more likely to be increased than lowered by the full returns, which are coming in slowly from more distant precincts.

The next senate will be constituted as follows: Republicans, 32; Democrats, 8. Two districts are still in doubt. The house: Republicans, 78; Democrats, 9; seven districts still uncounted.

The west side of Washington presents almost a solid Republican delegation. Two new Democratic senators go in from the west side. These are W. H. Moore, of Seattle, and John Earias, of Whatcom.

Spokane, Nov. 6.—With Okanogan county to hear from, the Republicans have elected east of the mountains in Washington three state senators and 28 representatives. The Democrats have elected three senators and 11 representatives. These figures may be changed a couple of votes by later returns, but those to hand are nearly complete. There are four doubtful districts yet to hear from..

Spokane County.
Spokane, Nov. 5.—The Republican congressional ticket has a majority in Spokane county of from 1,200 to 1,500. A little time it seems that the Democrats have carried seven of the 12 legislative candidates, and the Republicans five. Of these five, three are understood to be for Ankeny for senator, and two for Wilson. The Republicans have carried their county ticket, with the exception of treasurer and coroner. Rasher and Graves, Dem., for the state senate are elected.

Yakima County.
North Yakima, Nov. 5.—Election returns are coming in slowly. In the city Jones leads the congressional ticket. He is over 300 ahead of the Democratic candidate. Hadley, for judge, leads by 175.

Walla Walla County.
Walla Walla, Nov. 5.—Indications point strongly to the election of the entire Republican legislative ticket. The Republicans lose the auditor and one commissioner. Returns are coming in slowly, only 13 out of the 26 precincts of Walla Walla county having been heard from. The congressional vote gives the Republicans 250 majority.

Thurston County.
Olympia, Nov. 5.—Thurston county shows large gains in the majorities over the election of two years ago. Returns from the 14 largest precincts give the Republican congressional ticket 500 majority over the Democratic.

Okanogan County.
Spokane, Nov. 5.—Eleven precincts out of 24 reporting in Okanogan county show that the Republicans are carrying the state ticket, with the Democrats breaking even on the county ticket and leading on the legislative.

Whitman County.
Colfax, Nov. 5.—Complete returns from 20 out of 58 precincts in Whitman county show a Republican landslide. Indications point to the election of the entire Republican legislative and county ticket, with the possible exceptions of auditor, superintendent and surveyor. The Republican congressional ticket carries the county by a big majority.

Pacific County.
Ilwaco, Nov. 5.—Returns are coming in very slowly. Republican congressional candidates are in the lead.

Cowlitz County.
Kalama, Nov. 5.—Complete returns from four precincts in Cowlitz county, and incomplete returns from five more, indicate the election of the head of the Republican ticket by at least 50 majority. Van Name, the Democratic candidate for state senator, is probably elected by 150 majority; Chapman, Democratic candidate for representative, may be elected by a narrow margin.

Kititas County.

Ellensburg, Nov. 5.—Returns are coming in very slowly. Five precincts show heavy Democratic gains, but the Republican congressional ticket is well in the lead.

Lewis County.

Chehalis, Nov. 5.—Returns from 10 precincts give Cushman, Jones and Humphrey, Rep., a lead of 600. The vote is lighter than it was two years ago.

Stevens County.

Colville, Nov. 5.—The count in nine out of 51 precincts in the county, not including Colville or Northport, give Cushman, Jones and Humphrey a very small lead.

Columbia County.

Dayton, Nov. 5.—All the Republican congressional candidates have won in Columbia county, with majorities approximating 200 each. For supreme justice, Hadley has about 200 majority. Sixteen precincts are complete here, and only three to hear from. It is an even break in the legislative race.

Mason County.

Olympia, Nov. 5.—Incomplete returns received from Mason county show the state ticket to have been carried by the Republicans by at least 100 majority.

Stevenson County.

Stevenson, Nov. 5.—Returns from four of the principal precincts in the county indicate the election of the Republican ticket by a small majority. This is usually a strong Democratic county.

Pierce County.

Tacoma, Nov. 5.—The Republicans swept Pierce county and elected their entire ticket by good majorities. The two state senators and 10 representatives are supposed to be against a railroad commission.

Klickitat County.

Goldendale, Nov. 5.—The Republican state ticket has carried Klickitat county by 400 majority. The Democratic candidates for county auditor and sheriff are elected, while the Republicans elect the rest of the county ticket.

Chehalis County.

Aberdeen, Nov. 5.—The indications are that Chehalis county has given a big majority for the entire Republican ticket.

Garfield County.

Emery, Nov. 5.—Despite rain and blustery weather, with snowfall in mountain precincts, a heavy vote was polled. The Republicans claim to have elected the legislative ticket. The Democrats claim the prosecuting attorney, auditor and sheriff.

Clark County.

Vancouver, Nov. 5.—The election passed off quietly in this city and county. It is conceded, however, that the entire Republican ticket is elected. Complete returns from six precincts in the county gives Jones, Cushman and Humphrey, Republican representatives, 530; Cotterill, Holcomb and Cole, Democratic representatives, 240; Ranck, Rep., legislature, 512; Parcel, Rep., legislature, 4959; Edmunds, Dem., 26; Ricker, Dem., 301.

Adams County.

Ritzville, Nov. 5.—Incomplete returns from seven precincts in Adams county show that the Republicans elect representative, auditor, clerk, surveyor, superintendent and two commissioners; the Democrat, treasurer and sheriff, with the assessor in doubt. The Republican nominees for congress are well in the lead.

IDAHO.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 5.—While exact figures from yesterday's election are not at hand, enough is known to assure a Republican majority on the entire state ticket of some 6,000. French, for congress, leads his ticket, in most sections. Counties that were supposed to be certainly Democratic have swung into the Republican line. Figures from Shoshone show that the Republicans have carried that county by at least 300, and elected their legislative ticket. Ada county has given a majority of 700; Nez Perce and Latah, 400 to 800 each. Throughout the southeast everything is Republican so far as heard from, and it is believed to be a clean sweep in that section. Bannock county gives Morrison, Rep., for governor, 300 majority. There French did not do so well, his lead being comparatively small. Republicans will have 47 members of the legislature, a majority of 13 on joint ballot.

The count is progressing very slowly. Republican claims are sustained, so far as the vote is counted.

NEW YORK.

New New York, Nov. 5.—In spite of a phenomenally large vote in New York and Kings county for Bird S. Coler, Dem., the returns, as far as received, indicate the re-election of Benjamin B. Odell, Rep., to the governorship of New York state, by 1,160 plurality. Coler's plurality in Greater New York exceeded 115,000, but even that large vote was not sufficient to overcome the Republican majorities from up the state.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—Complete returns from San Francisco and partial returns from all over the state indicate that George C. Pardee, the Republican nominee for governor, is elected by a majority of 2,000 or 3,000. Complete returns from 1,185 precincts out of 2,277 in the state outside of San Francisco give Pardee 69,460; Lane, 60,537. The complete vote in San Francisco stood: Pardee, 24,129; Lane, 33,687. The legislature, which will choose a United States senator, is largely Republican on joint ballot. The Republicans have lost two members of congress—Kahn, in the Fourth, and Leud, in the Fifth. They will be succeeded by Livermash and Wynn, Union Labor-Democratic candidates.

MONTANA.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 5.—Late returns from the various outlying counties indicate the election of the entire state Republican ticket. Counties heretofore Democratic report Republican land-slides. Lewis and Clark county Republicans claim the election of six out of seven members of the legislature.

ELECTIONS IN OTHER STATES.

Ohio—Indications are that the Republicans carried the state by over 70,000.

Minnesota—Returns so far indicate that Van Sant, Rep., is elected governor by 30,000.

Illinois—Republicans have carried this state by 45,000. Democrats lost three congressmen.

Michigan—The Republican majority is between 30,000 and 40,000. Eleven of the 12 congressmen are Republicans.

Missouri—Indications point to a Democratic plurality of at least 20,000.

New Hampshire—Republican plurality in this state will be about 8,000.

Tennessee—Twenty-two counties heard from give Frazier, Dem., for governor, a majority of 37,000.

Pennsylvania—The Republicans elected their governor by 175,000.

Indiana—This state went Republican by 25,000 to 40,000.

Maryland—Republicans elected four and Democrats two members of congress.

New Jersey—The Democrats made heavy gains, but their control of the state is doubtful.

Kansas—Entire Republican ticket elected by at least 40,000.

Connecticut—The full Republican ticket was elected by 15,000.

Massachusetts—Bates, Rep., for governor, received a plurality of 37,000.

Florida—There was no opposition to the Democratic ticket, which swept everything.

Alabama—The state ticket went Republican by 25,000.

Rhode Island—Democrats elected governor. Republicans captured all other state officers.

West Virginia—Republicans elected only one member of congress out of nine.

South Carolina—The Democratic ticket carried everything without opposition.

Iowa—The state went Republican by 75,000.

Nebraska—The result on governor is doubtful. Republicans elected the rest of the ticket.

Wisconsin—Wisconsin has gone Republican by at least 35,000 plurality.

North Carolina—Democrats elected everything by overwhelming majorities.

Mississippi—A light vote was polled. There was no opposition to the Democratic ticket.

Georgia—A solid Democratic delegation was returned to congress.

Arkansas—All of the seven Democratic nominees were elected to congress by big majorities.

Colorado—Republicans carried state ticket, but one or more Democratic congressmen win.

Nevada—Entire Republican ticket elected.

South Dakota—Republicans control state, but Democrats made heavy gains.

MUST ACCEPT SILVER FOR DEBT.

United States Supreme Court Passes on Case Involving Bland Act.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The United States supreme court today dismissed, on the ground that no federal question was involved, the writ of error in the case of Fred A. Barker vs. Stephen Baldwin, both of Michigan, involving the constitutionality of the Bland-Allison coinage act of 1878, providing for the coinage of silver dollars. The case arose out of the refusal on the part of Baker, to whom Baldwin owed $338, to accept silver dollars. The case was decided in Baldwin's favor by the supreme court of Michigan, and Baker brought it to the United States supreme court on a writ of error. The former decision was sustained by today's decision, but the court did not enter into the merits of the controversy.

Submarine Boat on Trial.

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—The Holland submarine boat Grampus had her first surface trial trip today, and, so far as the test went, proved a success. She made nine knots, a knot more speed than the contract calls for, and, so far as steering gear and driving machinery are concerned, gave every satisfaction.

NEWS OF OREGON

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS OF THE STATE.

Commercial and Financial Happenings of the Past Week—Brief Review of the Growth and Development of Various Industries Throughout Our Commonwealth—Latest Market Report.

The first heavy frost of the season at The Dalles fell last Wednesday night.

The drug store of Dr. H. A. Wall, Lyle, was robbed of $1,050 by four masked men.

Mrs. Mary Starkey, an Oregon pioneer of 1845, is dead. She had lived in Salem for a number of years.

C. A. Fitch, of Lakeview, Fusion candidate for state printer in 1898, committed suicide by taking morphine.

Citizens of Portland have started to raise a $25,000 fund for an immigration bureau and permanent exhibit.

The sugar factory at La Grande has already received 13,400 tons of beets, which amount is greater than the whole crop of any previous year.

The report of the superintendent of the state asylum for October shows 1,265 persons to be confined in that institution, an increase of nine since September.

Master Fish Warden Van Dusen declares that the laws are violated in many cases by millmen who do not provide good fish ways in their dams. He will proceed to enforce this act.

It has been announced to the students of Pacific university, Forest Grove, that the Corbett prize for scholarship of $50 and the Tibbals prize for oratory of $50 have been again offered this year.

An important ruling has been made by School Superintendent Ackerman. He has decided that the residence of the parent or guardian, rather than the place where the pupil is enumerated, determines the place where a child is entitled to attend school without paying tuition.

The Oregon land and livestock company has been incorporated at Eugene. The capital stock is $1,000,000. The objects of the incorporation cover nearly everything in the livestock business. The company has been formed by members of the Boggs-Kelly lumber company to utilize that portion of their lands found to be more valuable for stock raising than for timber.

The grain fleet now in the river at Portland is the largest on record for the time.

One of the richest gold mines in the United States is the North Pole, located about six miles north of Empter. About $750,000 has been expended on external improvements and underground development work since the mine was discovered. The property is controlled by English capitalists. The actual value of the North Pole is problematical. The management, of course, is familiar with the value of the ore found in the wonderful pay shoots, but it does not know the full extent of the pay shoots. Development work is being pushed to determine the richness and extent of this rich body of ore. If, as there is every reason to believe, this rich shoot extends to the depth, then the mine is easily worth $10,000,000.
