FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

The white man's prejudice against the Negro doesn't do the race half as much harm as the Negroes' prejudice against one another.—Educator.

Blanche K. Bruce, the colored man who at one time was register of the treasury, is publishing a paper in Bond, Miss., its avowed object being the elevation of the colored race on the Booker T. Washington plan. He advises all Negroes to "buy homes, educate their children industrially, serve God and practice morality and temperance and let gambling and politics alone."

As a rule, those Negroes who contribute the least, either of money or brains, to different race enterprises are usually those who have the most to say by way of criticism of the same. Such inconsistent Negroes should shut their big mouths and "go way back and sit down."—Blue Grass Bugle.

A brass band contest took place in London on the 27th of September, for the "One Thousand Guinea Challenge Trophy," and the piece selected for the occasion was Mr. S. Coleridge Taylor's "Scenes from Hiawatha." Bands from all over England participated and the winner realized some $5,000. Mr. Taylor, though possibly needless to say, the well-known Euro-African musician, lies in England and has a colored American wife.

Mrs. George Marshall, wife of the proprietor of a hotel at Jessum, Pa., escorted a non-union miner through a mob of strikers in safety Thursday. She was armed with a shotgun and when the mob advanced she peppered them with bird shot. Mrs. Marshall has shown how any cowardly mob may be repelled and it is to be hoped that her sisters in the South will follow her example when a cowardly mob of lynchers are getting in their work upon members of her race.

Just the past week a colored girl, anxious to prepare herself for life's arduous and exacting duties, is barred out of a girl's dormitory in Chicago.

Isabella Ellis, a mulatto from San Antonio, Texas, has been attending the Northwestern University. She has had quarters in Chapin Hall, but feeling among the whites ran so high she was removed yesterday and told to find a boarding house outside the University. Why should this girl be so humiliated, when she gives promise of being an ornament to civilized society?

The actions of the white actress, at Richmond, in having a room cleaned and calcimined, before using it, and refusing to enter it until her orders were carried out, on account of this same room having formerly been occupied by Black Patti, and the objection of the two white criminals in Louisiana to being hanged with a Negro, are the most ridiculously disgusting exhibition of their kind during the present century. Wonder what kind of treatment will be meted out to such reprehensible men and women, as these herein described, when the final day of reckoning calls them to account?

It is not generally known but it is true that Kentucky has one colored postmaster, Mr. Geo. W. Combs, postmaster at Lenorson, Ky. He was appointed two years ago when the post-office was established and has made an excellent record. Lenorson is a little village about three miles from Midway, Ky.

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE NOTES. Quite a number of new residences are going up around the school. The General Superintendent of Industries has erected a beautiful two-story house, which he recently moved into.

Greater stress is being put upon the study of scientific agriculture this year, than in any previous year.

The hospital is being lighted throughout by electricity.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"YON YONSON."

Coming to Cordray's for one entire week beginning Sunday matinee, November 9, is "Yon Yonson," a play which is one of the most familiar and one of the best liked of all comedy-dramas. "Yon Yonson" is now in his 11th year of uninterrupted success. The play possesses in itself a very strong dramatic interest, as it is filled with situations which are both humorous and sentimental. The character of Yon Yonson represents in a faithful manner a quiet, simple-minded, inoffensive Swede, who in his own way tries to make a living in this country without offending or injuring the next man. It is said that the actor who has been cast for the role of Yon Yonson this year, Nease Erickson, succeeds in giving a faithful and clear-cut impersonation of a Swedish immigrant possessing these qualifications. In the company which will be seen together with Mr. Erickson are such well-known people as Harry Bond, Harry B. Roche, Florence Gear, Patti and Belle Dolan.

On November 14, Miss Mary E. Moore was paid $10 in full for her efficient service as organist at Bethel A. M. E. church. After due consideration the pastor and officers find it impossible to continue Miss Moore's services longer.

On October 23 Bishop Abram Grant, D. D., was united in the bonds of matrimony with Mrs. Lula Armstrong, of Houston, Texas, the widow of the late Bishop Josiah Armstrong. The ceremony took place at the residence of Bishop Benj. W. Arnett and the attendance was limited to a very few intimate friends. After the wedding the happy couple left Wilberforce for Indianapolis, where they will reside.

The conference of the A. M. E. Zion church which was held at Los Angeles adjourned on Sunday evening at which time the Bishop gave out the appointments—we are unable to give a detailed account of the proceedings at this time. Of the appointments we can say that Rev. J. W. Wright has been appointed to take charge of the Los Angeles church and Rev. J. W. Moore, of Oakland, was appointed to the Portland church.

On November 21 at Grand Army hall there will be given under the supervision of Miss Mary Moore and Mrs. Hattie Redmond a Delsart drill by 12 young ladies. At the same time a prize of a handsome diamond ring will be awarded to the most popular lady, married or single, in Portland. Votes are 5 cents each and the voting begins November 5. The proceeds are for the benefit of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Griffin gave a dinner at their home on Stark street last Sunday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Perry, Mrs. C. A. Lucas and daughter, J. N. Fullilove, J. E. Dearing and Mr. M. Fogg, of St. Paul, Minn. The decorations of autumn blossoms and foliage were very dainty, and the table presented a charming appearance. A delicious menu was enjoyed.

The hat trimming contest and showery party at the Bethel A. M. E. church on the 31st ultimo, was well attended and a neat sum realized for the benefit of the church. An excellent program had been arranged consisting in the most part of songs and choruses by the little folks who all carried out their part of the performance well. The instrumental duet by Miss Bonnie Thomas and Mr. Geo. Carnahan was the gem of the evening. Mrs. C. H. Jackson's recitation was excellent, as was also the tableau, "Scenes in Fairyland." In the hat trimming contest Mr. Shepley carried away the first prize and Mr. ———— was awarded the second. The ladies furnished refreshments in the vestry.

MORE ANON.

Blindness is increasing. The proportion of sightless to seeing persons has been watched with especial interest in Great Britain and the latest statistics indicate that it has fallen in a half century from about 1,920 in the million to some 870, or more than 14 per cent. This decline has been so timed as to show pretty conclusively that it is the result of better conditions of living, improved surgery and doubtless a decrease in the ratio of perilous to non-perilous employments for the masses of the people.

AN ALL ABIDING FAITH.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company has an all abiding faith in the future of the Great Northwest. A short time ago, this was manifested by the establishment, in Seattle, of an agency to take care of their interests there. The latest effort is to put on a splendidly equipped new train service between St. Paul and Chicago. The new train will be running Sunday, November 2. They will use their own rails between Chicago and Albert Lea, Minn., and the Minneapolis & St. Louis Ry. track from Albert Lea to Minneapolis and St. Paul, running into the union depot at St. Paul, which is the same that is used by all lines in that city.

The train is to be known as "The Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis Limited" and will consist of sleeping car, buffet library car and reclining chair car through without change between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul. Dining car service will also be maintained, supper being served out of Chicago and breakfast into Chicago. Trains will leave St. Paul at 7:10 p. m. and arrive in Chicago 9:30 a. m.; leave Chicago at 6:10 p. m. and arrive at St. Paul 8:40 a. m., making close connection at St. Paul with all western lines. Tickets can be purchased via this line, in connection with all western lines, at all stations. For further information regarding rates, routes, time, etc., call on or address,
