SUBMISSION OR DEATH.

Savage Seri Indians of Tiburon Island May Soon Be Wiped Out.

Among the most savage tribes on the American continent to-day are the Seri Indians, who inhabit Tiburon Island, in the Gulf of California.

Among them the brightest virtue is the shedding of alien blood. They practice polygamy. No special formalities attend the taking of supernumerary wives.

An expedition for the conquest of the island is being organized by a former American cowboy, Charles Meadows, and it may be that the end of the Seri Indians is near.

TWINS 86 YEARS OLD.

Jonas and Joel Hungerford, Active New England Farmers. Watertown, Conn., prides itself upon having as residents the two oldest twins of all New England.

The Hungerford twins are of the same height and have the same slight stoop of the shoulders.

HUNGERFORD BROTHERS.

one of the twins goes to the postoffice for his mail the old postmaster invariably hesitates and asks, "Jonas or Joel?"

Twenty years ago Jonas and Joel, with their families, made a trip to New York, going from Bridgeport by steamer.

"We are the oldest twins in Connecticut," says Jonas, "and we hope to claim that title for a long time to come, for neither of us has been ill in nearly forty years."
