One Hundred Years Ago.

Vaccination for the cowpox was introduced with great success in Paris. The Bank of Cape Fear, with branches, incorporated the mother bank at Wilmington, N. C. The first session of the Court of Common Pleas was held at St. Louis, Mo., the Supreme Court was organized, and a postmaster appointed. The Harmonists, a religious sect, settled in Pennsylvania. John Stevens, of Hoboken, N. J., built a steamboat with twin screw propellers and engine supplied with fuel boiler. Aaron Burr was proposed as the Federalist candidate for Governor of New York.

Seventy-five Years Ago.

The steam frigate Fulton was blown up and twenty-six persons killed. Fort Pierre was established in South Dakota. The woman's college at Andover, Mass., was established. The board of internal improvements was organized in Mississippi. A branch of the United States mint was established at St. Louis. The United States Telegraph became the organ of General Jackson's administration.

Fifty Years Ago.

Riots occurred at Brooklyn, N. Y., between the advocates of street preaching and the Catholics, when many persons were killed and wounded, quiet only being restored by the militia. The city of Omaha, Neb., was laid out. Gold was discovered at Plainfield, N. H., in the Connecticut valley. Albumen paper was introduced for use in photography. A reciprocity treaty was concluded between the United States and Great Britain respecting Newfoundland fisheries, international trade, etc. Four British steamers attacked and destroyed the ships, dockyard and stores at Ulesborg.

Forty Years Ago.

Major General John C. Fremont, having accepted the Presidential nomination at the hands of the anti-Lincoln Cleveland convention, resigned his army commission. General Fisk at St. Louis, Mo., issued an order forbidding the prosecution in the State courts for harboring fugitive slaves. Provost Marshal General Fry recommended to Secretary of War Stanton that the $300 financial exemption clause of the draft act be repealed. Secretary of the Treasury Chase advertised for sale $75,000,000 6 per cent bonds of the United States, to meet the war's demands. The national union convention which nominated Abraham Lincoln for President and Andy Johnson for Vice President of the United States at the second day's session convened at Baltimore, Md. The Atlantic and Great Western and the Michigan Southern Railroads arranged to carry passengers from Chicago to New York with only one change of cars.

Thirty Years Ago.

Congress defeated the Eads $11,000,000 scheme for the improvement of the mouth of the Mississippi River by jetties, and passed the Fort St. Phillips Canal bill, providing for a ship canal connecting the river and Gulf of Mexico. Electrical, wind and rain storms, occurring simultaneously in Illinois, New York and Michigan, did much property damage and cost a score of lives. Rochefort, Paine and Benedict, French communists, who had toured the United States, sailed from New York. A committee of the Brooklyn (N. Y.) Board of Education, after taking testimony of principals and teachers on a report of Superintendent Fields opposing "mixed classes," recommended the abolition of coeducation in the public schools. President Grant, in an unofficial communication to Congress, declared in favor of the resumption of specie payments and the repeal of the legal tender act, an attitude opposed to his party in the House.

Twenty Years Ago.

An attempt of William H. Vanderbilt to dominate the Rock Island management was answered at the annual meeting, when his candidate for director was defeated. The Republican national convention in Chicago nominated James G. Blaine for President and John A. Logan for Vice President of the United States. Five States of Mexico declared war on President Gonzalez because of an objectionable revenue stamp tax. The Emperor of Germany gave a state banquet at Berlin in honor of the Czarina. While en route to the function Prince Bismarck was surrounded by a mob of workmen and booed. Old papers for sale at this office.
