THE LINCOLN

The Blackwell Hotel Company

Most beautifully and desirably located, on Madison street at Fourth avenue—a section free from noise and dust—most convenient to all points of the city and commanding a magnificent view of Puget sound, Mount Rainier and the Olympic range. The Lincoln is easily accessible from all steamboat landings, depots and theaters. All cars transfer to the hotel door. It is a new, modern, exquisitely furnished structure, containing 225 rooms—100 with private baths—arranged to give its patrons every comfort. The drawing rooms, lobby, dining rooms and gentlemen's cafe are most luxurious, and will be found especially attractive to tourists and commercial travelers, while the service and cuisine will satisfy the most exacting epicure.

Boston physicians are using the piano as an instrument to cure nerve diseases. This must be "a painful operation."—New York Herald.

"Who are the truly great?" asks Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis. We refuse to guess until the battling averages have been figured up.—Washington Post.

The Koreans are getting off more easily than they expected and are even managing to make a little money selling things to the soldiers.—Washington Star.

The Igorrotes may be happy in being unaffected by the present high price of beef, but they must have a standing feud with the dog catcher.—Omaha Bee.

The St. Louis anarchist society which ordered the fat man killed may have been merely experimenting with worry as an obesity cure.—Kansas City Times.

It is feared that some people get into Mr. Rockefeller's Bible class who would rather have a tip on the market than information on how to be good.—Washington Star.

A congressional committee is to investigate the Red Cross Society. It would be more fitting to have the Red Cross Society investigate Congress.—Atlanta Journal.

The worst of Bandit Raisuli's deed will not be known until it is definitely determined whether or not Perdicaris is going to take the lecture platform.—Augusta Chronicle.

Dowie, in his trip around the world, probably learned that there is no place in America quite so easy as Chicago.—Cedar Rapids Republic.

Report comes from Port Arthur of a social entertainment on board one of the Russian battleships. We presume the guests were supplied with diving suits.—Washington Post.

Strange so many French soldiers drop dead from fast walking in maneuvers. Haven't heard of any Russians dropping dead from fast sprinting in action.—Atlanta Constitution.

It is said that the one and only regret of St. Louis at having the fair is that some of the imported grafters are so much more accomplished than the home grafters.—Atlanta Journal.

Railroad companies are making extensive additions to their sidetrack facilities at St. Louis. Probably preparing terminal facilities for the presidential booms.—Washington Post.

Under the latest Supreme Court decision railroads may kill employees with impunity, so long as they are not executed by direct order of the manager or president.—Detroit News Tribune.

There is to be a scientific collection of mosquitoes at St. Louis. Most people will be far more interested in dodging the uncollected ones when the hot weather comes on.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

THE WASHINGTON--SEATTLE

THE SCENIC HOTEL OF THE WORLD.

This magnificent tourist hotel is Seattle's most prominent architectural feature—being situated upon the highest point of land in the downtown district—300 feet above sea level. It is, however, easy of access by private tramway, by regular hotel conveyance, by street car or by carriage. The scenery from The Washington is the most superb to be found on the Pacific coast. The appointments and furnishings of The Washington are entirely modern and high-class; the cuisine and service are most satisfactory. The rates are exceedingly reasonable for a fashionable Tourist Hotel.

The Washington is situated in the midst of six acres of beautiful grounds, which with the broad driveways, green lawns, and a profusion of roses and carnations, make the location an ideal one. The scenery from The Washington and grounds is unsurpassed in the West—no other point in Seattle giving such a magnificent view as can be had from this hotel. President Roosevelt was charmed with the scene that met the eye from the verandas and grounds of the hotel, and so expressed himself. Thousands of others, in public and private life, have come and gone since the opening of this grand hostelry, who have added their tribute to the many expressions of pleasure and satisfaction derived from a glimpse of the Puget Sound country from this vantage ground, including as it does a view of mountains, lakes, Sound, harbor and all Seattle.
