

Hood's

Sarsaparilla is unquestionably the greatest blood and liver medicine known. It positively and permanently cures every humor, from Pimples to Scrofula. It is the Best Blood Medicine.

"Did you ever get into an argument with him?" "Yes, indeed." "He's quite dogmatic, isn't he?" "Oh, positively bull-dogmatic." — Philadelphia Ledger.

Hoyle—The Korner lives very frugally indeed. They have cast-iron rules for the spending of their money. Hoyle—That is what I should call rigid economy.—Kansas City Journal.

Willy—Say, auntie, what did Uncle Bob marry you for? Aunt—Why, for love, of course. Willy (meditatively)—If I love will make a man do almost anything, won't it, auntie?

Rev. Dr. Thirdly—Don't you know, little boy, that you shouldn't fish on the Sabbath day? Tommy Todde—I ain't a-fishin', boss, I'm jus' teachin' worms how ter swim.—Chicago Chronicle.

"Is she a new woman?" "Better than new, even. You see, she secured one hundred thousand dollars alimony from her last husband, and that makes her improved property."—New York Times.

"How many lodges did you say your husband belonged to?" she suddenly asked. "Fifteen." "Mercy on me! But think of a man being out fifteen nights a week! I am really glad that I'm a widow."

"Now, this fair," said the man who had been chasing around St. Louis, with his nose in the air, "is plenty big enough, but—" "Ah!" interrupted the wise observer. "Are you from Chicago or Buffalo?"

"In India barbers rank high. Socially they are the equals of the priests." "Say, where do poets come in over there?" "Same place they do here." "Where's that?" "Among the illustrious dead."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Ayer's

Impure blood always shows somewhere. If the skin, then boils, pimples, rashes. If the nerves, then neuralgia, nervousness, depression. If the stomach, then dyspepsia, biliousness, loss of appetite. Your doctor knows the remedy, used for 60 years.

"Retiring from the Cuban war, I was a perfect wreck. My blood was bad, and my health was gone. But a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla completely cured me."—H. C. DONALDSON, Saratoga, Pa.

It is a bottle, all druggists, Sarsaparilla, Ayer's.

Impure for Blood

Aid the Sarsaparilla by keeping the bowels regular with Ayer's Pills.

"Will you have a piece of the apple pie?" asked the landlady of the Irish boarder.

"Is it after bein' healthful?" asked Pat.

"Of course it is," she replied. "Why should you think it otherwise?"

"Faith, an' O! had a uncle want who doled av apple-plexy," explained the son of Erin. "An' O! thought this might be somethin' av the same kind, O! damno."

You Can Get Allen's Foot-Ease FREE. Write Allen S. Allen, La. Roy, N. Y., for a free sample of Allen's Foot-Ease. It cures itching, hot swollen, aching feet. It makes new or tight shoes easy. A certain cure for corns, ingrowing nails and bunions. All druggists sell it. Don't accept any substitute.

Wherein They Differ. The villain—the angels of the other world are always pictured with wings attached.

The Soubrette—Yes, and the "angels" of the theatrical world are attached to the wings.

For bronchial troubles try Piso's Cure for Consumption. It is a good cough medicine. At druggists, price 25 cents.

Quack! Quack! A stranger entered the postoffice the other day, and approaching the ladies' general delivery window, asked:

"Any letters for 'John Drake'?" "Next window," Mr. Drake replied the polite attendant. "This window is for ducks only."

Alas! Alack! The foot-kicker sat in his easy chair smoking his pipe of clay, for he hadn't a thing to do on earth but while the time away.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.

Adding Insult to Injury. The day had been appointed for the ceremony which was to make one of two, but for some reason best known to the fickle maid she had relinquished the glittering solitaire.

"Oh, well," said the young man in the case, "I don't suppose I could be happy with a woman who dyes her hair, anyway."

"Sir, 'tis false!" she exclaimed indignantly.

"Is it?" he rejoined. "I thought it was only dyed."

Indubitable. "How did you prove that the accused was not from Boston, as he claimed?"

"Got him to swear that he never heard of Emerson and that Boston beans were not cooked with salt pork."—Detroit Free Press.

A youthful aspirant for journalistic distinction, who was asked to write an article on superstition and imbecility, began his essay thus: "That imbecility is not on the wane, perusal of the following lines will amply demonstrate."
