EVERETT HAPPENINGS

Miss Myrtle Warmack, of Seattle, is visiting friends in the city. Mrs. R. T. Jacobs returned east Saturday on a ten days' trip east of the mountains.

The bolters' latest gag now is that Judge Denny granted 337 divorces out of 338 cases. We fail to see any cause for kick, unless they expected the judge to grant 339 out of 338.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET

Snohomish County STATE SENATOR T. B. Sumner, of Everett. STATE REPRESENTATIVES J. A. Falconer, 48th District H. L. Stronberg, 49th District Ben Morgan, 49th District J. A. Theurer, 49th District SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE John C. Denney, of Everett SHERIFF Frank P. Brewer, of Everett AUDITOR Samuel Vestal, of Snohomish COUNTY COMMISSIONERS Dr. C. E. Munn, of Marysville 1st Dist., Nils Sather, of Silvana 2d Dist., A. H. B. Jordan, of Everett

SNOHOMISH COUNTY POLITICS.

As usual Everett and surrounding country has occasion for complaint of the methods, rantings and roaring of politicians and demagogues. If half of the stuff that is being said about the Honorable Judge Denny is true he must be a beastly "something" indeed, and again if it is true how are these fellows going to exonerate themselves from the charge of criminal indifference for allowing all this to go on for years without a single word of protest or a step toward stopping this "outrage" (I against the people.)

GLUT OF ENGLISH GHOSTS.

Many Spooks Are Appearing in England Just Now. A strange epidemic of ghosts is creeping over the country, says the London Express. During the last day or two reputed spooks have been discerned at Treadmouth and Coed-Kernew, near Newport, Wales, and are still unslain.

EVERETT HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Frank Smith gave a box party on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Mary Freeman and Mrs. James Coombs. Rev. S. S. Freeman, patron of Mt. Rainier Chapter of Eastern Star, is in San Francisco in the interest of the order.

In 1900, and has continued in school work ever since. He is now completing his first term as county superintendent of schools, and his record and consideration to us, and colored pupils especially, stops all necessity for argument on our part. The way in which our school districts in Everett are chopped up by the superintendent, had he not been friendly disposed, could have made colored children walk blocks and blocks further than other children, but, however, such has not been the case. Mr. Stiger, by all means, our candidate for this office.

THE STATE SENATORSHIP.

Is another consideration we must not overlook. Mr. T. B. Sumner, whom we hope to elect next month, is a man who, from every point of view, merits our support, in fact we are voting for our own interests and self protection when we support Mr. Sumner. Many of our people in the city and out of it have had business with Mr. Sumner and it would be well to hear what they have to say of the gentleman's personality. We know by experience what his feelings are toward us and our institutions. Just such friends as this are what are most needed in the law-making bodies. We do not want the earth, neither do we want our civil rights abridged. We may be sure that Mr. Sumner is too good a business man to let such acts go unchallenged if he has anything to say; besides he considers that the two races must live for the benefit of the whole and no advancement must be along the same lines as that of his own race. How could we think of any one else for state senator but T. B. Sumner.

Mr. J. A. Falconer

is beyond all question our proper choice for representative. If we do not all of us know him it is safe to say that he knows most of us. There is not a colored man in the county who has met Mr. Falconer who does not consider him a friend and the confidence is not misplaced. Many favors can be accredited to this man, of which he thinks nothing, but which we should not forget them. And keeping these facts in view how could we make a mistake in supporting him to the very last man besides being good, sound business man he has the courage of his convictions, and fears no one. He will champion the cause of the few weak ones as fearlessly as he would the hoard of strong ones, if he believes he is right. He never did think that justice for the Negro was wrong. But why all of this, there never were any better men brought together than those on the ticket at the bottom of this article, so let us do ourselves the good turn of beginning at the top and let the drum and put her in straight from top to bottom.

EVERETT HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Frank Smith gave a box party on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Mary Freeman and Mrs. James Coombs. Rev. S. S. Freeman, patron of Mt. Rainier Chapter of Eastern Star, is in San Francisco in the interest of the order.

Guest—I want a good porterhouse steak. Waiter—Gents what order porterhouse steak are required to make a deposit, sir.—Chicago Tribune.

Swatter—I see you are mentioned in one of the books just published. Primly—Indeed! What book? Swatter—The directory.—Chicago News.

Gaber—You ought to meet Dyer. Awfully clever imitator. He can take off anybody. Miss Duncan (wearily)—I wish he was here now.—Tit-bits.

Stringem—Say, do you want to get next to a scheme for making money fast? Nibbles—Sure do. Stringem—Glue it to the floor.—Chicago News.

At the Art Exhibition: First Judge—Daubleigh is a prolific painter, isn't he? How would you estimate his work? Second Judge—By the quart.—Life.

Another hateful thing: "How did you like our new duet?" she asked. "Oh, was that a duet? I thought you were only quarreling!"—Yonkers Statesman.

Roosevelt and Parker outdistanced: Stella—Men are so stupid. Bella—Yes, indeed; do you suppose it would take me weeks to write a letter of acceptance.—Exchange.

Customer—The last fish I had from you didn't seem very fresh. Fish Dealer—Well, mum, 'ow can you expect fresh fish to come out o' salt water?—New Yorker.

First Physician—So the operation was just in the nick of time? Second Physician—Yes, in another twenty-four hours the patient would have recovered without it.—Harper's Bazar.

At the seaside: She—Oh! George, what lovely waves! He—Very nice; but, poor things, they're just like me; both arrive at the shore in splendid style—and go back broke.—Judy.

Visitor (at Puttin Bay)—What do you do in here all summer? Native—Loaf and fish. Visitor—And what do you do in the winter? Native—We don't fish.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

"I suppose," said the drummer, "you labor on the Sabbath, and rest the remainder of the week." "No," replied the village parson: "I try to collect my salary on week days."—Chicago News.

More Troublesome: "It's pretty hard to be worried by a lot of debts you can't pay." "Nonsense! That's nothing to be worried by; a lot of debts you simply have to pay."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Diagnosis: Patient—Do you consider this trouble fatal, doctor? You know my means are limited, and— Doctor—Well, as a rule, the patient succumbs to it after about two thousand dollars' worth of treatment.—Life.

Sure enough: "Of course, I don't want to criticize, but I don't think it was altogether right for David to say 'all men are liars.'" "Well, at any rate, it was safer than to pick out one man and say it to him."—Philadelphia Press.

Artist—Have you taken my picture to the exhibition? Porter—Yes, sir; it seemed to please the gentlemen very much. Artist—What did they say? Porter—Oh, they didn't say nothing, but they laughed that 'early.—Glasgow Evening Times.

"Did you ever make any money on the board of trade?" "Yes, I made one hundred and seventy-five dollars there one day in less than twenty minutes." "When? What did you do with it?" "Oh, they got it back before I had a chance to see it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Teacher—Have you looked up the meaning of the word "imbibes," Fanny? Fanny—Yes, ma'am. Teacher—Well, what does it mean? Fanny—To take in. Teacher—Yes. Now give a sentence using the word. Fanny—My aunt imbibes boarders.—Woman's Home Companion.

"Mr. Heavyweight," said the minister, "is willing to subscribe $10,000 for a new church, provided we can get other subscriptions making up the same amount." "Yet you seem dissatisfied." "Yes, I am. Yes, I was in hopes he would contribute $100 in cash."—Brooklyn Life.

Jones—It is just impossible for me to keep a lead pencil. People are always borrowing it, you know, and always forget to return. Brown—Why, I never have any trouble. See, I've got a whole vest-pocketful of pencils. Jones—Doesn't that prove just what I said?—Boston Transcript.

The Elder Miss Spinster (appearing at the back door)—Tell me, my good man, are you the person who called here last week? Knight of the Road—You don't mean the bloke you give the 'omade pie to? No, mum, I ain't 'im. 'E left me his ole togs when 'e pegged out, that's all.—Judge.

Sunday School Superintendent—So you are the little man that won the prize books, "The Lives of the Saints," for good behavior. Now, what are you going to do with the books, my little man? Johnny Miggs—Gunner chance 'em, sir, for "Billy Red Black Pirate" and "How Jimmy Raised Red Ranch."—Life.

"There's mighty few people," said Farmer Cornstossel, "that knows what to do with a farm after they get one." "I have noticed that," answered the girl with frizzle; "they always insist on filling the whole place up with corn and oats and things, when they might have such lovely tennis courts and golf links."—Washington Star.

Ear Monument. Throughout Korea a number of monuments are still standing which date from the war of 1892, when Japan invaded Korea with 300,000 men. These "monuments of ears," as they are called, mark the burial places of the 10,000 ears which were cut from the heads of the Koreans as trophies of victory. There are many of these monuments in Japan also, for some of these gruesome relics were taken home by the conquering army.

The small boy is always heard when posing amid the scenery.

FIFTEEN REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD STOP AT THE WASHINGTON.

1st—It is the best hotel on the Coast. 2d—It costs no more than poorer hotels, as shown by rates below.

3d—New hotel, new furniture. 4th—Excellent service. 5th—The Washington, while situated in the center of the city, is on an elevation of 200 feet, which lifts you above the noise, dust and smoke of the street hotels.

6th—The hotel is situated in the center of 4 1/2 acres of beautiful grounds, with thousands of roses and other fragrant flowers to beautify the surroundings. 7th—Eight hundred feet of wide verandas surround the hotel, giving to the guest opportunities for rest and promenade not found elsewhere.

8th—The view from these spacious verandas cannot be described. Mountains, lakes, the Sound and the city itself form one magnificent panorama not found anywhere else on earth. 9th—The hotel lobby, parlors, Turkish room, etc., are exquisite, and form a continuation of comfort and luxury not often found in hotels.

10th—A Dutch grill has recently been added, where service may be had at all hours. 11th—The dining room cannot be excelled. Breakfast and lunch are served in a car, at most reasonable prices, and a table d'hotel dinner for $1.00 is pronounced by all to be above criticism.

12th—Rates—Extremely reasonable. European plan—Room, without bath, $1.00 per day and upward. Room, with bath, $2.00 per day and upward.

'Bus service to and from all trains and boats, 25 cents. Trunks, each way, 25 cents. Carriage fare (private), 50 cents. Special rates made to parties for one month or more.

13th—Being above the street and away from the noise, you will enjoy a night's rest better at the Washington than any other hotel in the city. 14th—Go to the Washington, for such if you are not satisfied that it surpasses all other hotels on the Pacific Coast for excellent service and reasonable prices, your bill will be nothing.

15th—Do not be deceived by believing that some other hotel in the city is as good as the Washington, for such is not the case. The Washington stands alone as the most charming and attractive hotel west of New York.

The following people have stopped at the Washington during the past year and have given unqualified praise and declared that in many respects it excels any other hotel on the continent:

President Theodore Roosevelt, Wm. H. Moody, Secretary of the Navy; Gov. Odell, of New York; Baron Rothschild, Mr. Smith, of the DeBeers Diamond Mines, South Africa; Hon. Cornelius N. Bliss, Ex-Secretary of Interior; Hon. C. S. Melien, President N. Y. Hill and J. N. Hill, of the Great Northern Ry.; Hon. Howard Elliott, President N. P. Ry.; Adelia Patti, E. H. Sothern, Gov. Brady, of Alaska; Mme. Nordica, Maud Adams, Nat Goodwin, Mrs. Fiske, all Raymond & Whitcomb tourists, Richard Mansfield and other celebrities of the commercial and professional world.
