

THE NEW AGE

Established 1892. A. B. Griffin Manager. Office, 454 Second St., cor. Ash, Rooms 1 and 2, Portland, Oregon.

AGENTS: Butte, Mont. J. W. Dunne. Helena, Mont. G. C. Simmons. Seattle, Wash. Geo. A. Hayes. To insure publication, all local news must reach us not later than Thursday morning of each week.

PORTLAND LOCALS

Mr. Genry Calhagan is very ill at his home.

Mr. Billy Miller, the comedian, is at the Lyric.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown are working this week at the Star.

Mr. John Davis, of Tacoma, is in our city for a few days.

Mrs. Annie Wells leaves soon for Seattle for a short stay.

Mrs. Edward Shepard made a flying trip to Portland last week.

The Old Folks' Concert at the Zion church was a grand success.

Mr. Percy Winter is expected in Portland about the first of the year.

Mrs. Ida Freeman, of California, is home visiting her mother, Mrs. Haslina.

Messrs. A. D. Griffin and Lucas left Friday for San Francisco and Southern California on business.

The basar at the Bethel church opened Tuesday evening and they had many pretty suggestions for Christmas.

Mrs. E. T. Lelander entertained at dinner Tuesday evening. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Hill and the hostess.

The concert and basar at the Bethel church was well attended. The program was well rendered, especially by Mrs. Percy Winters, of Butte, Mont.

Mrs. Herman Hill entertained at a dinner party Thanksgiving evening, and a delightful time as well as a sumptuous repast was enjoyed by all present. Covers were laid for fourteen, and the table was tastefully decorated in violets and roses.

Mrs. Cella Parker Wooley, a noted club woman, authoress, lecturer, and social figure, has organized a movement in Chicago to give cultured colored women social recognition.

The organization, which is made up of white and black women, gave a reception recently to black and white women at the home of Mrs. Henry McGee, a white woman.

"I consider Ida Wells Barnett, Elizabeth Davis and other colored women of culture the peers of many of my white friends," said Mrs. Wooley.

"Do I receive colored women as social equals? Certainly, if by social recognition you mean inviting them to my home to eat at the same table, and calling upon them and receiving their calls."

The function was planned by the Frederick Douglas Centre, of which Mrs. Wooley is the founder and president.

"My standard of judgment in selecting friends and associates is that of individual fitness," she said. "I am just as happy to entertain a colored person of refinement and culture as I would be to entertain a white friend. It is entirely a matter of individual merit and qualification. I have investigated and know the restrictions the black man suffers in business and in civil life. The aim of the Frederick Douglas Centre is to remove these barriers. We do not believe in herding classes of races together in one section or place."

POPE'S PRESENT TO COLORED COOK.

Katie, the Negro cook for the board of lady managers at St. Louis, received yesterday a silver medal from Pope Pius. Katie was formerly a slave in Virginia and is a devout Catholic.

When Mr. Francesco Tagliati, who brought the late Pope's jubilee gifts to be exhibited at the world's fair, was in St. Louis he called with Cardinal Stollon on the board of lady managers. There was a reception followed by a luncheon, and Katie cooked it. Later the cardinal blessed the board of lady managers and included Katie, who was the only Catholic present. When Mr. Tagliati returned to Rome he remembered both Katie's cookery and her piety, and he procured a silver medal, which the pope himself blessed, and sent it to be delivered to Katie.—Boston Transcript, October 29.

SALT LAKE CITY NOTES.

(Special to Portland New Age) Mrs. J. O. Scott is indisposed.

Little Ruth Benjamin is quite ill.

Mrs. Wm. Pasha, who is at St. Mark's hospital, is steadily improving.

For nicely furnished rooms call on Mrs. J. O. Scott, 65 Franklin avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ridley and daughter are now at home to their friends at 418 So. State street.

Mrs. J. W. Thompson, of Wichita, Kans., is in the city visiting her brother, Mr. F. Andrews.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the A. M. E. Church will meet Friday afternoon in the church. The ladies are very busy at present working for a dinner and fair to be given on Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Gertrude Smith has issued invitations for a card party at her home on next Wednesday evening. There will be a ragtime ball given November 16 at Federation hall, on East Fourth, So. street.

The evangelist, Mrs. G. A. Elliott, preached an interesting sermon on last Sunday evening. The meeting was well attended. Mrs. Elliott's mission in the city is helping Rev. Green in revival meetings.

The Red and White Rose entertainment, given for the benefit of the Central Baptist church on last Thursday by the Woman's Progressive Club, was a great success, and largely attended. The next regular meeting of the club will meet with Mrs. Susan Blanchard, on So. Third, West Side, November 17.

Mrs. R. B. Hill entertained informally on Tuesday afternoon from four to six o'clock, complimentary to her niece, Miss Jessie Vickers, of Denver, who leaves in a few days for her home. The house was prettily decorated with ferns, carnations and chrysanthemums. Mesdames Emma Jackson, Wm. Russell and C. Rivers being assisted in serving by Messrs. Tom Brown and John Brown. A very pleasant musical program was rendered. Those present were: Mesdames S. T. Young, J. W. Thompson, Wm. Russell, M. Steel, Chas. McSwain, C. Rivers, J. W. Benjamin, E. M. Johnson, O. B. Thurman, Emma Jackson; Messrs. T. Brown, Fred Andrews, Brown; Misses Jessie Nickens, Mamie Perkins, Julia Steward, Ellen Howell, Edith Williams, Jessie Griffin, Gertrude Smith and the hostess.

HELENA HAPPENINGS

Helena has put on her everyday clothes since the election, and is falling back into a state of unusual quietness. For the past three weeks groups of men could be seen standing around the corners of the streets, with congenial, yet deceptive, smiles, and out-stretched hands, with emptiness only full of con.

The old question is asked the passer-by, "How is she looking, old man?" and "What do you know?" but, of course, that is all. Some of the more pretentious will make a few crude promises, and that is all; others will assure you, if elected, you stand a congenial, yet deceptive, smiles, and out-stretched hands, with emptiness only full of con.

WHERE DID YOU GET THAT HAT?

Don't you know that the finest assortment of trimmed hats are now being sold at special sale and at remarkably low figures by the Portland Millinery Company, at 133 Fifth street? Don't you know that you are received and waited on at that popular hat store with the most courteous treatment at all times? Don't you know that you can't get such fine trimmed hats anywhere else in the city at such low prices? You ought to know these things and you ought to go there today and get yourself a new hat. Remember the number, 133 Fifth street.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County.

Edward Schmeer, Plaintiff.

vs.

Maud Schmeer, Defendant.

To Maud Schmeer, the above named defendant:

You are hereby required to appear and answer to the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint the above named plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded therein, to-wit: For a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between said plaintiff and you. This summons is published in pursuance of an order of Hon. M. C. George, Judge of said Court, made on the 17th of November, 1904. The time prescribed in said order for the publication of this summons is six consecutive weeks, and the date of the first publication thereof is the 9th day of November, 1904.

CHAS. F. LORD, Attorney for Plaintiff.

FIFTEEN REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD STOP AT THE WASHINGTON.

1st—It is the best hotel on the Coast.

2d—It costs no more than poorer hotels, as shown by rates below.

3d—New hotel, new furniture, 4th—Excellent service.

5th—The Washington, while situated in the center of the city, is on an elevation of 200 feet, which lifts you above the noise, dust and smoke of the street hotels.

6th—The hotel is situated in the center of 4 1/2 acres of beautiful grounds, with thousands of roses and other fragrant flowers to beautify the surroundings.

7th—Eight hundred feet of wide verandas surround the hotel, giving to the guest opportunities for rest and promenade not found elsewhere.

8th—The view from these spacious verandas cannot be described. Mountains, lakes, the Sound and the city itself form one magnificent panorama not found anywhere else on earth.

9th—The hotel lobby, parlors, Turkish room, etc., are exquisite, and form a continuation of comfort and luxury not often found in hotels.

10th—A Dutch grill has recently been added, where service may be had at all hours.

11th—The dining room cannot be excelled. Breakfast and lunch are served in a carte, at most reasonable prices, and a table d'hotel dinner for $1.00 is pronounced by all to be above criticism.

12th—Rates—Extremely reasonable. European plan—Room, without bath, $1.00 per day and upward.

Room, with bath, $2.00 per day and upward.

"Bus service to and from all trains and boats, 25 cents.

Trunks, each way, 25 cents.

Carriage fare (private), 50 cents.

Special rates made to parties for one month.

13th—Being above the street and away from the noise, you will enjoy a night's rest better at the Washington than any other hotel in the city.

14th—Go to the Washington and if you are not satisfied, it surpasses all other hotels on the Pacific Coast for excellent service and reasonable prices, your bill will be nothing.

15th—Do not be deceived by believing that some other hotel in the city is as good as the Washington, for such is not the case. The Washington stands alone as the most charming and attractive hotel west of New York.

The following people have stopped at the Washington during the past year and have given the highest praise and declared that in many respects it excels any other hotel on the continent:

President Theodore Roosevelt, Wm. H. Moody, Secretary of the Navy; Gov. Odell, of New York; Baron Rothschild, of Vienna; Gen. G. H. B. Treman, Henry Jennings and Fred Jennings, partners doing business under the name of Jennings Bros. Iron, Poulson & Co., a corporation, George H. Williams, E. S. Wood, E. H. Lathrop and J. C. Flanders, partners under the name of Williams, Wood & Co., a corporation, Otto J. Kraemer, defendant.

To George W. Hahn, Gertrude Hahn, E. B. Treman and M. Krutz & Co., a corporation, defendants above named: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and suit on or before the 15th day of December, 1904, and if you fail to so appear and answer, for want thereof, you will be taken by court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit: For a decree that plaintiff have and receive of the defendant, George W. Hahn, the sum of $200.00, with interest thereon from the 24th day of May, 1894, to the date of 10 per cent per annum, and the further sum of $258.29, with interest thereon from the 27th day of May, 1894, at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, and the further sum of $133.51, with interest thereon from the 27th day of May, 1894, at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, and the further sum of $75.00, attorney's fee, and the costs and disbursements of this suit, and that the mortgage executed and delivered by the said defendants, George W.
