

Hood's Sarsaparilla is unquestionably the greatest blood and liver medicine known. It positively and permanently cures every humor, from Pimples to Scrofula. It is the Best Blood Medicine.

A RESOURCEFUL WOMAN.

A year passed as a prisoner in a small city bedroom never visited by the sun, and making up in noise what it lacked in light, would be a severe punishment for most women. But a woman who had gone through a long imprisonment in her home, made necessary by a fall, and had come out again into active life, surprised a prosperous friend by saying, "Oh, I enjoyed myself all those months."

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES

Having tried, without success, all the other remedies, I have found that your medicine is the only one that has cured me. I have used it for several years and it has cured me every time. I can recommend it to all who suffer from this disease.

Shopping Trips. A London paper quotes a shopgirl as saying that the Englishwoman can generally be persuaded to take this or that, whether she wants it or not, and that she does not often see that she gets value for her money.

Millions in Oats. Salzer's New National Oats yielded in Mich., 240 bu., in Mo., 220 bu., in S. D., 11 bu., and in 30 other states from 150 to 200 bu. per acre. Now this Oat is generally grown in 1800, will add millions of bushels to the yield of millions of dollars to the farmer's purse!

Homebuilder Yellow Dent Corn grows like a weed and yields from 150 to 200 bushels and more per acre! It's the biggest yielder on earth!

Lost at the Last Place. The absent-minded man and his umbrella continue to promote the gaiety of nations. They figure entertainingly in an article in a German magazine on Prof. Max von Pettenkofer, who has been called the founder of scientific hygiene.

Hard luck has been the fate of the Emperor of Austria from the beginning of his reign. In every battle he has fought he has been defeated, his wife was assassinated, and his eldest son closed his career with suicide.

Humorous

She—Are you sure you love me for myself alone? He—Did you think I loved you for your mother?—Somerville Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Nubride have joined the church. "Why not? Turn about's fair play; didn't the church join them?"—Philadelphia Press.

Lady—Did you ever feel as though you'd like to work? Tramp—Yes'm, I wouldn't mind being lineman for a wireless telegraph company.—Judge.

"Brainleigh tells me he is writing a popular novel." "Yes, his doctors insisted on his resting his mind for a while!"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

He Got It: The Woman—No, I can't give you a meal. The Tramp—I didn't think you could, mum; you look too young and inexperienced to know how to cook.—New York Sun.

Church—I see the Attorney General is going to stop all this guessing business in the newspapers. Gotham—Whom do you suppose that's aimed at? The weather bureau?—Yonkers Statesman.

Lucky Stars: "I've had a very successful season," said the prosperous-looking theatrical manager. "Well, you can thank your stars for that," replied the seedy-looking manager.—Yonkers Statesman.

He—Do you remember your old school friend, Sophy Smythe? She—Yes, indeed, I do. A most absurd-looking thing. So silly, too! What became of her? He—Oh, nothing. Only—married her.—Boston Globe.

Mamma—Fighting again. Willie! Didn't I tell you to stop and count one hundred whenever you were angry? Willie—But it didn't do any good, ma. Look what the Jones boy did while I counted!—Harper's Bazar.

Cholly—So Miss Tartum loosened up and said a good word about me, did she? Archie—Yes, she said that when one got better acquainted with you one found you were not half as big a fool as you appeared to be.—Chicago Tribune.

One Advantage: Rimer—Do you really prefer to have long poems sent to you rather than short ones? Editor—Yes. When they're long, you see, I don't have to think up any other excuse for rejecting them.—Philadelphia Press.

"I don't believe the woman who recently moved into the flat across the hall is any better than she should be," remarked Mrs. Naggsby. "Of course not, my dear," rejoined Naggsby; "who ever heard of a woman that was?"—St. Louis Star.

Miss Plane—Yes, Tom proposed last night, and I accepted him. See this ring—Miss Wise—Indeed? By the way, dear, don't attempt to cut glass with that diamond, as I did, or you'll make another nick in the stone.—Philadelphia Press.

The Child—Aunt Mary, nurse says when it thunders, it's the Lord scolding us. Aunt Mary—Perhaps it is, dear. The Child—Well, I don't see what he's got to be so mad about. I've done everything to-day 'cept brush my teeth.—Brooklyn Life.

Wife—Henry, what makes you in such a furious temper? Husband—I'm trying to read a Scotch dialect story. The plot is fearfully exciting, but I can't hurdle over the language fast enough to keep up with the hero!—Detroit Free Press.

Rural Adorer (bashfully)—You didn't go to Millie Meadow's party. Don't you like kismet games? Pretty Maid—No, I don't. Rural Adorer (weakly)—Why don't you? Pretty Maid (encouragingly)—'Cause there's so many look-in' on.—New York Weekly.

He (reading about the latest society wedding)—They have a lot to say about what the bride wears, but they have nothing to say about the poor bridegroom. She—They have no need to, because it is a well-known fact that he usually wears a worried look.—Boston Globe.

Madame (in a busy street in Paris)—Oh, M. l'Agent, is it true that it is dangerous to stand with the foot on the electric trolley? M. l'Agent—No, madame, it is not dangerous so long as you do not stand with one foot on the line and the other on the overhead wire.—Plick Me Up.

Miss Flyrty—Jack Hanson was telling me about a romantic adventure he had at the party last night. It seems he bumped into a girl in a dark hallway and kissed her; and he doesn't know yet—Miss Elders—Oh! tee-hee! That was I, Miss Flyrty—What? Oh, for goodness sake, don't tell him now. Let him have his romance.—Philadelphia Press.

Miss Hoamley—Didn't you hear Miss Knox tell me yesterday that I was "the loveliest girl in our set"? Miss Goodley—Yes, the hateful thing! I gave her a piece of my mind about it afterward. Miss Hoamley—Oh! did you? I hope you weren't too hard on her. Miss Goodley—Well, I told her she ought to consider how sensitive you must be about it.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Perfectly Congenial: Naggsby—When a man and his wife think the same thoughts simultaneously, it is a sign that they are exceedingly congenial. Waggsby—So? Well, then, my wife and I are congenial all right, for the other night, when she said that she wondered why I'd ever been such a fool as to marry her, I had been sitting there in silence for half an hour wondering over the same identical thing.—Baltimore American.

Belgium's Suffrage Law. Under the Belgian law, unmarried men over 25 have one vote, married men and widowers with families have two votes, and priests and other persons of position and education have three votes. Severe penalties are imposed on those who fall to vote.

That Explained It. Proud Parent—And just think—she plays that away an' never tuck a lesson in her life! Bored Guest—Oh, that's what's the matter, is it?—Baltimore American.

It takes a college graduate about 20 years to learn how little he knows.

Ayer's

For coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, weak throats, weak lungs, consumption, take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Cherry Pectoral

Always keep a bottle of it in the house. We have been saying this for 60 years, and so have the doctors.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for 25 years, and it is the best medicine in the world, I know, for all throat and lung troubles."—Mrs. J. K. Noxon, Waltham, Mass.

The Lungs

Daily action of the bowels is necessary. Aid nature with Ayer's Pills.

A Wish Eastly Gratified. They were spending the autumn in the Pennsylvania mountains, and a shooting expedition had been planned for the next day. The talk naturally turned on the prospects for various sorts of game.

"We miss the spice of danger that gives zest to hunting in the Far West," one of the younger members of the party began, a little pompously.

"Ah, and it is danger wit your sport you like?" earnestly returned the old German farmer, who was to act as guide. "Den you keeps close by me, sir. De last time I have sport I shoots mine bruder-in-law in de leg. I gladly takes you under mine own wing," he concluded, in all seriousness.

A Yacht for Sale. "What kind of sail are you going to use on your yacht next year?" asked the enthusiast.

"Sheriff's, I guess," replied the owner, who had just looked over the steward's accounts.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Two Views. First Workingman—Look at the inequality. Mr. Million, who lives not ten squares from this corner, has a dog house which cost $5,000. What do you think of that?

Second Workingman—I think it's a good thing he wanted it, for I built it for him, and made $1,000 out of it.

The Chicago board of health asserts that a large percentage of sufferers from Bright's disease are those who indulge in what is called high living. People who live on plain food and lead temperate lives rarely have the disease.

CHRONIC SORES

Wheeling, W. Va., May 28, 1903. Some years ago while at work, I fell over a truck and severely injured both of my thighs. My blood became poisoned as a result, and the doctor told me I would have running sores for life, and that if they were healed the result would be fatal. Under this discouraging report I left off their treatment and resorted to the use of S. S. S. Its effects were prompt and gratifying. It took only a short while for the medicine to entirely cure up the sores, and I am not dead as the doctors intimated, nor have the sores ever broke out again. Some 12 years have elapsed since what I have described occurred. Having been so signally benefited by its use I can heartily recommend it as the one great blood purifier.

JOHN W. FUNDIA, Case Schmulback Brewing Co.

Chronic sores start often from a pimple, scratch, bruise or boil, and while salves, washes and powders are beneficial, the unhealthy matter in the blood must be driven out or the sore will continue to eat and spread. S. S. S. reaches these old sores through the blood, removes all impurities and poisons, builds up the entire system and strengthens the circulation. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic combined. Contains no mineral matter but is guaranteed purely vegetable. If you have an old sore write up and one physician will advise without charge. Do not on diseases of the Blood free.
