RAM'S HORN BLASTS.

Warning Notes Calling the Wicked to Repentance.

O service without sacrifice. Scolding the boy may sour the man. God's grace is His latest glory. There are no households in heaven. A child is God's agent in the home. The emptiest life is the one that is full of self. Self throws sand into the fine wheels of life. The poorest life is the one without friends. The more law in the land the fewer the laws. He who gives happiness helps others to heaven. Fostering passion is feeding the soul on poison. The labor of love never advertises for spectators. Sometimes one sandwich is worth many a sermon. Liking is the effect and not the cause of loving. Nothing enters the mind without leaving its mark. Some people never feel pious until they get pinched. It takes the living Christ to make the live Christian. No man was ever pulled down by lifting another up. Men will never think alike as long as they think at all. A man's position in the world depends on his purpose. Better the pushing pessimist than the dreaming optimist. The active saint is never satisfied with the nimble nickel. A good many sins walk under the name of "Circumstances." The man without reverence should not be trusted with power. A man attracts by what is in him more than by what he has on. A nickel's worth of religion is likely to be all used up before you get to the church door. Judged by some families the world would not be much better if all men were brothers.

QUEER CHINESE BURIAL CUSTOM

Bones of Dead Men Dug Up, Polished and Put in Jars.

The new tomb of the Soon-on-Tong association in the firemen's cemetery is complete, says the New Orleans Times-Democrat. The finishing touches have been put to it, the members of the association have assembled within it and blessed it, and incidentally five large earthen jars, representing as many departed Chinamen, have been deposited there. Of course, the jars do not contain whole Chinamen. Each vessel is only a trifle over a foot in height and about eight inches in diameter. Consequently no accommodation for a real live Chinaman is contained in each of the jars, which closely resembles a large preserve jar. The five vessels containing the bones of the five Chinamen were placed in the tomb on Thursday. On that day the members of the Soon-on-Tong association assembled, and, after saluting, praying and singing for half an hour, during which they also managed to consume a large quantity of incense and sacred colored paper, dedicated the new tomb and deposited the remains of five departed brethren. Few persons would believe the jars represent coffins, but they do in a sense. The five Chinamen whose remains are contained in these vessels have been dead for years. Recently their remains were disturbed, the shrouds in which they were buried were burned and the bones were taken out and placed in the jars. Before being placed in the jars, however, the bones were heated over a fire until very dry, and were then scraped and sandpapered until as smooth as knife blades. Next they were placed in the jars. After that the vessels were sealed up and labeled, and Thursday they were placed in the new tomb. The services held at the tomb were not seen by outsiders. When a stranger approached the ceremonies were stopped and the Chinamen stood solidly by awaiting the departure of the trespasser. The Soon-on-Tongers were busy holding court in memory of their departed brethren, and wanted no interruption on the part of outsiders. The new tomb is of brick, covered with plaster, and its facade resembles somewhat a Chinese laundry ticket. Forty ordinary vaults for coffins and eight vaults for the jars are contained in it. There are also two fireplaces. One of these, the larger, is used to burn the clothes and effects of deceased Chinamen, and the other is for incense and the sacred colored paper. It is a large affair, and said to be unlike any tomb in the United States. When a member of the association dies the casket containing him will be placed in one of the coffin vaults. After he has lain there a number of years his remains will be disinterred, his bones will be polished and then he'll be bottled up and labeled and placed in one of the jars.

THE WASHINGTON—SEATTLE

FIFTEEN REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD STOP AT THE WASHINGTON.

- 1st—It is the best hotel on the Coast.
- 2d—It costs no more than poorer hotels, as shown by rates below.
- 3d—New hotel, new furniture.
- 4th—Excellent service.
- 5th—The Washington, while right in the center of the city, is on an elevation of 200 feet, which lifts you above the noise, dust and smoke of the street hotels.
- 6th—The hotel is situated in the center of 4 1/2 acres of beautiful grounds, with thousands of roses and other fragrant flowers to beautify the surroundings.
- 7th—Eight hundred feet of wide verandas surround the hotel, giving to the guest opportunities for rest and promenade not found elsewhere.
- 8th—The view from these spacious verandas cannot be described. Mountains, lakes, the Sound and the city itself form one magnificent panorama not found anywhere else on earth.
- 9th—The hotel lobby, parlors, Turkish room, etc., are exquisite, and form a continuation of comfort and luxury not often found in hotels.
- 10th—A Dutch grill has recently been added, where service may be had at all hours.
- 11th—The dining room cannot be excelled. Breakfast and lunch are served a la carte, at most reasonable prices, and a table d'hotel dinner for $1.00 is pronounced by all to be above criticism.
- 12th—Rates—Extremely reasonable. European plan—Room, without bath, $1.00 per day and upward. Room, with bath, $2.00 per day and upward.

Bus service to and from all trains and boats, 25 cents. Trunks, each way, 25 cents. Carriage fare (private), 50 cents. Special rates made to parties for one month or more. 13th—Being above the street and away from the noise, you will enjoy a night's rest better at the Washington than any other hotel in the city. 14th—Go to the Washington and if you are not satisfied that it surpasses all other hotels on the Pacific Coast for excellent service and reasonable prices, your bill will be nothing. 15th—Do not be deceived by believing that some other hotel in the city is as good as the Washington, for such is not the case. The Washington stands alone as the most charming and attractive hotel west of New York.

The following people have stopped at the Washington during the past year and have given unstinted praise and declared that in many respects it excels any other hotel on the continent:

President Theodore Roosevelt, Wm. H. Moody, Secretary of the Navy; Gov. Odell of New York; Baron Rothschild, Mr. Smith, of the DeBeers Diamond Mines, South Africa; Hon. Cornelius N. Bliss, Ex-Secretary of Interior; Hon. C. S. Mellen, President N. Y. & H. R. Ry.; Mrs. J. J. Hill, Louis Hill and J. N. Hill, of the Great Northern Ry.; Hon. Howard Elliott, President N. P. Ry.; Adeline Patti, E. H. Sothern, Gov. Brady, of Alaska; Mme. Nordica, Maud Adams, Nat Goodwin, Mrs. Fiske, all Raymond & Whitcomb tourists, Richard Mansfield and other celebrities of the commercial and professional world.
