his immediate presence in Central America, and that he could not think of waiting the motion of an Administration, which he thought hsd no right to throw obstacles in the way of his building up schools and churches in the wilds of Nicaragua. It is supposed that he took with him some thirty men.

Barnum's Baby Show

Went off in N. Y. city, June 5. It was said to be numerously attended. A vast number of babies was in attendance, among whom, those who attracted the most attention were twins and triplets.

Barnum, has been entirely successful in this last project for raising the wind, notwithstanding the majority of the presses have ridiculed him and his baby show, terribly for the last three month's.

What will this prince of humbugs be after next?

Democratic Convention in Georgia.

The democracy of Georgia met in Convention at Milledgeville, June 5, and nominated H. V. Johnson for Governor. The resolutions passed were too long for our columns, but we take the following from the N. Y. Tribune as the cream of the whole of them. They constitute the platform upon which the party will probably fight the great presidential battle in 1856.

1. The Union—but the Union as secondary to the reserved rights of the States.

2. The total non-interference of Congress with Slavery anywhere, in the State, in the Territories and in the District of Columbia.

3. The maintenance of the Fugitive Slave Law just as it is, without amendment and without repeal.

4. The principles established by the Nebraska-Kansas Act, which are the rights of the people of Kansas to form a Republican Government, with or without Slavery, whenever they please, and to come into the Union on an equal footing with the other States.

5. The resolution of the last Georgia Legislature that any opposition to these principles, by man or party, is an act of hostility to the people of the South.

6. Sympathy with the "friends of Slavery in Kansas in their manly efforts" (i. e., by bowie-knife and musket) "to maintain the rights and interests of the Southern people" over "the paid adventurers and Jesuitical hordes of Northern Abolitionism."

7. Opposition to every party at the North which "does not come up fully and fairly" to the Southern standard, including the Know-Nothings.

8. Retaliatory measures against Massachusetts and Vermont for "virtually repealing the Fugitive Slave "Law;" and

9. The annexation of Cuba.

The Know Nothings in Ohio.

This Order has lately met in Ohio and adopted the following as a platform:

PRINCIPLES OF THE AMERICAN PARTY OF OHIO

I. The unlimited freedom of religion disconnected with politics; hostility to ecclesiastical influences upon the affairs of Government; equality of rights to all naturalized emigrants who are thoroughly Americanized and owe no temporal allegiance, by reason of their religion, higher than that to the Constitution,

II. No interference with the rights of citizenship already acquired by foreigners, and the protection of law to all who honestly emigrate from love of liberty; but the exclusion of foreign paupers and felons, and a refusal to extend the right of suffrage to all who come hereafter until they shall have resided 21 years in the United States and complied with the Naturalization laws.

III. Opposition to all political organizations composed exclusively of Foreigners, and to Foreign Military Companies, and to all attempts to exclude the Bible from the Schools supported by the Government.

IV. Slavery is local—not national; we oppose its extension in any of our Territories, and the increase of its political power by the admission into the Union of any Slave State or otherwise; and we demand of the General Government an immediate redress of the great wrongs which have been inflicted upon the cause of Freedom and the American character by the repeal of the Missouri Compromise and the introduction of Slavery into Kansas in violation of law, by the force of arms and the destruction of the elective franchise.

V. In humble imitation of the wisdom of Washington, we oppose all intervention in the affairs of Foreign States; yet on all proper occasions we will not withhold our sympathy from any people aspiring to be free.

UI. We support American industry and genius against the adverse policy of foreign nations, and facilities to internal and external commerce by the improvement of Rivers and Harbors and the construction of National Roads uniting the various sections of the Union.

VII. The Union of these States should be made perpetual by a faithful allegiance to the Constitution.

VIII. In State policy we zealously advocate Retrenchment and Reform, a modification of the present oppressive system of taxation, and a liberal system of Public Schools.

England.

The shipping returns of the Board of Trade for the month to April 30, had been issued, and continue to exhibit a considerable decrease in the employment of tonnage. This decrease has been relatively felt to a greater extent in foreign than in British shipping, with the exception of vessels of the United States. As regards the British totals, the diminution in the number of voyages of the various mail steamers contributes materially to the reduction observable.

Parliament had not been in session during the week.

Addresses had been voted by various deputations of working men to Mr. Layard.

A measure for limiting liability in partnership is now before the public. The measure is set forth in two bills, the first limiting the liabilities of members of certain joint stock companies; the second regulates the conditions under which part of the profits may be received without incurring the liabilities of partnership. The first bill excludes insurance companies from its operation, and refers only to partnerships possessing capital of £20,000, with transferable shares. The second bill chiefly sets forth the liabilities and immunities of persons "lending" capital to partnerships. Alterations will, no doubt, be introduced during the progress of the bills, but at present the measure is very far from being comprehensive in its principle.

An agitation has arisen for the introduction of the Maine Law into Britian,—but without the remotest chance of success.

A return just published shows the revenue of India, during the year 1854, to have been £20,200,000, and the expenditure £21,855,319 Sterling.

☞ "Fol-de-rol," we have no doubt, will be the emphatic comment of many of our readers, says the Portland Daily Advertiser, as they finish the matrimonial protest of Lucy Stone—unless they prefer to bring up from the "pure well of English undefiled" the simpler epithet, "Fudge!" Either of them will form as good and accurate criticism as the nature of the circumstance requires. Who are Lucy Stone and Henry B. Blackwell that they can't be married in the simple, confiding, honest way of our fathers and mothers? What serpent has opened their eyes to see "good and evil" which have escaped the ken of all our common law expounders? And what kind of a marriage is this quitclaim agreement, with its protest equally against law, custom and sense? It is superb nonsense all round. But there—if the parties enjoy it, it is just as well for them. Only we hope such arrangements won't spread under the sacred name of marriage. Had it come off within our editorial diocese, we should have chronicled it thus (which we give to let our young folks see whether it looks any better than the old fashioned form:)

STONE & BLACKWELL.

The subscribers have this day entered into distinct agreement for carrying on the matrimonial, domestic and reformatory business. N. B.—No trust—as the parties do not trust each other.

L. STONE. H. B. BLACKWELL.

☞ The editor of the Kansas Herald of Freedom, published at Lawrence, being threatened with lynch law, warns all hands that he has prepared for the emergency, and will blow up the office and all who enter it with such intent.

COUNCIL GROUND,
WALLA-WALLA VALLEY, W. T., June 12, 1855.

AT A TREATY concluded with the Yakima Nation of Indians at the Council Ground in the Walla-walla Valley the 9th day of June, 1855, the land included within the following boundaries was ceded to the United States, to wit:

Commencing at Mt. Ranier, thence northerly along the main ridge of the Cascade mountains to the point where the northern tributary of the lake Chelan and the southern tributaries of the Methew river have their rise; thence south-easterly on the divide between the waters of lake Chelan and the Methew river to the Columbia river; thence crossing the Columbia, on a true east course, to a point whose longitude is one hundred and nineteen degrees and ten minutes—which two latter lines separate the above confederated tribes and bands of Indians from the Okainakane tribe of Indians; thence in a true south course to the forty-seventh parallel of latitude; thence east on the said parallel to the main Palouse river—which two latter lines of boundary seperate the above confederated tribes and bands from the Spokans; thence down the Palouse river to its junction with the Moh-ha-nesho or southern tributary of the same; thence in a south-easterly direction to the Snake river at the mouth of the Tucannon river, seperating the above confederated tribes from the Nez Perce tribe of Indians; thence down the Snake river to its junction with the Columbia river; thence up the Columbia river to the 'White Banks' below Priest's Rapids; thence westerly to a lake called "La Lac;" thhnce southerly to a point on the Yakima river called "Toh-mah-luke;" thence in a south-westerlykliredtion to the Columbia river at the western extremity of the "Big Island," between the mouth of the Umatilla river and Butter creek—all which latter boundaries separate the above confederated tribes and bands from the Walla-walla, Cayuse and Umatilla tribes and bands of Indians—thence down the Columbia river to midway between the mouths of White Salmon and Wind rivers; thence along the divide between said rivers to the main ridge of the Cascade Mountains; and thence along said ridge to the place of beginning.

There is, however, reserved from the land above ceded, for the exclusive use and occupation of said confederated tribes and bands of Indians, the tract of land included within the following boundaries, to wit:

Commencing on the Yakima river at the mouth of the Attahnam river, thence westerly along said Attahnam river to the forks; thence along the southern tributary to the Cascade mountains; thence southerly along the main ridge of said mountains, passing south and east of Mt. Adams to the Spur whence flow the waters of the Kilkatat and Pisco rivers; thence along said divide to the divide separating the waters of the Satass river from those flowing into the Columbia river; thence along said divide to the main Yakima, eight miles below the mouth of the Satass river; and thence up the Yakima river to the place of beginning.

Also a tract of land not exceeding in quantity one township of six miles square, situated at the forks of the Pisquouse or Wenatshapam river, and konwn as the "Wenatshapam Fishery;" which said tract shall be surveyed and marked out whenever the President may direct.

By an express provision of the treaty, the country embraced in the cession and not included in the reservation, is open to settlement, excepting that the Indians are secured in the possession of their buildings and improvements until removed to the reservation.

This notice is published for the information of the public, and the attention of citizens proposing to locate claims upon the ceded territory, is especially called to the above provision, and for further information they are requested to apply to sub-agent, A. J. Bolon.

E. T. Stone } vs. F. C. Cason. }

BY virtue of a certain writ of Execution, issued out of the District Court for Clackamas county, and to me directed, against E. T. Stone, plaintiff in the above entitled cause, for the sum of two hundred and sixty-two dollars and eighty cents, ($262.80) together with interest and accruing cost, and for want of personal property whereof to make the same, I have levied upon and shall proceed to sell to the highest bidder, for cash, at public auction, at the Court House door in Oregon City, county of Clackamas, Oregon Territory, on Tuesday the 21st day of August next, at 2 o'clock P. M. of said day, all the right, title and interest of the above named E. T. Stone in the following described real estate, (or the right, title and interest that he had therein on the 7th day of March, 1855, being the day on which this judgment was docketed against the said Stone in Clackamas county,) to wit:—A certain tract of land situated and lying in Clackamas county, and bounded as follows:

Commencing at a cottonwood stump on the south bank of the Clackamas river, thence running southerly till it strikes the corner of the late Newton Wheeler's land; thence along the course of said Wheeler's line until it strikes the land of W. W. Buck; thence in a north-westerly direction along the line of said Buck's land until it strikes the Clackamas river; thence down said river with the meandering thereof, to the place of beginning:—containing about 10 acres, and being included within the boundaries of the land claim of Hiram Straight and Susan his wife, as filed in the Land Office of Oregon Territory, and numbered 681, together with all the improvements and appurtenances thereon or thereto belonging.

Saw Mill for Rent.

THE Marion City Saw Mill (now in complete repair) is for rent, on good terms, for one year or more. The supply of water and timber to this mill is endless; the site is pleasant and healthy, and there is an extensive custom, and good sale for lumber. A man with a family and team would be preferred as a renter. The undersigned has on hand a large supply of good lumber, cheap for cash, or in exchange for cattle, hides, butter, wheat, and tallow. Several claims are for sale near the mill, on good terms.

Notice.

A TREATIES concluded with the Nez Perce Tribe of Indians, and with the confederated tribes of the Walla-wallas, Cayuses, and Umatillas in the Walla-walla Valley, at the Council Ground, there was ceded to the United States a tract of country having the following boundaries, viz:

By the Nez Perces, commencing at the source of the Woh-na-ne-she, or southern tributary of the Palouse river, thence down the river to the main Palouse; thence in a southerly direction to the Snake river at the mouth of the Tukannon river, thence up the Tukanon to its source in the Blue Mountains; thence southerly along the ridge of the Blue Mountaine; thence to a point on Grand Ronde river, midway between the Grand Ronde and the mouth of the Woll-low-how river; thence along the divide between the waters of the Woll-low-how and Powder river; thence to the crossing of Snake river at the mouth of Powder river; thence to the Salmon river fifty miles above the place known as the "crossing of the Salmon river;" thence due North to the summit of Bitter Root Mountains; thence along the crest of the Bitter Root Mountains to the place of beginning.

By the Walla-wallas, Cayuses and Umatillas, the tract of land having the following boundaries, to wit:—

Commencing at the mouth of the Tukannon river, in Washington Territory, running thence up said river to its source; thence easterly along the summit of the Blue Mountains, and on the southern boundaries of the purchase made of the Nez Perce Indians, and easterly along that boundary to the western limits of the country claimed by the Shoshones or Snake Indians; thence southerly along that boundary (being the waters of Powder river) to the source of Powder river: thence to the head of Willow creek; thence down Willow creek to the Columbia river; thence up the channel of the Columbia river to the lower end of a large Island below the mouth of Umatilla river; thence northerly to a point on the Yakima river called Toh-nosh-luke, thence to Se Lac; thence to the White Bank on the Columbia below Priest's Rapids; thence down the Columbia river to the junction of the Columbia and Snake rivers; thence up the Snake river to the place of beginning. Provided, however, That so much of the country described above as is contained in the following boundaries shall be set apart as Indian Reservations for the Nez Perce Tribe, viz:

Commencing where the Moh-ha-na-she or southern tributary of the Palouse river flows from the spurs of the Bitter Root Mountains; thence down said tributaries to the mouth of Ti-na-par-up creek; thence southerly to the crossing of Snake river, ten miles below the mouth of the Alpowain river; thence to the source of the Alpowain river in the Blue Mountains; thence along the crest of the Blue Mountains; thence to the crossing of the Grand Ronde river, midway between the Grand Ronde and the mouth of the Woll-low-how river; thence along the divide between the waters of the Woll-low-how river and Powder river; thence to the crossing of Snake river, fifteen miles below the mouth of Powder river; thence to the Salmon river above the crossing; thence by the spurs of the Bitter Root Mountains to the place of beginning.

For the confederated tribes of Walla-wallas, Cayuses and Umatillas, viz:—

Commencing in the middle of the channel of the Umatilla river, opposite the mouth of Wild Horse creek; thence up the middle of the channel of said creek to its source; thence southerly to a point in the Blue Mountains known as Lee's Encampment; thence in a line to the waters of Howtome creek; thence West to the divide of the Howtome and Birch creeks; thence northerly along said divide to a point due West of the South-west corner of William C. McKay's claim thence East along his line to the South-east corner; thence in a line to the place of beginning.

By an express provision of the Treaty, the country embraced in the cessions and not included in the Reservations is open to settlement, excepting that the Indians are secured in the possession of their buildings and implements till removed to the Reservations.

This notice is published for the benefit of the public.

The attention of the citizens proposing to locate claims upon the ceded Territory is especially called to the provisions protecting the Indians in the possession of their improvements—and for further information in reference to the Walla-walla, Cayuse and Umatilla Reservation, they are requested to apply to Agent, R. R. Thompson. To the Nez Perce Reservation, to Sub-Agent, W. H. Tappan.
