THE OREGON ARGUS.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING.

BY WILLIAM L. ADAMS.

Office-Good's Building, Main st. Editorial Room in first story.

TERMS-The Angus will be furnished at Five Dollars per Annum or Six Months for Three Dollars. No Subscriptions received for less than Six Months.

US No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING RATES. two insertions, $4,00 three insertions, $5,00. Each subsequent insertion, $1,00, luctions to those who advertise by the year.

Job Printing.

THE PROPRIETOR OF THE ARGUS IS HAPPY to inform the public that he has just received a large stock of JOB TYPE and other new printmaterial, and will be in the speedy rece additions suited to all the requirements of this lo-eality. HANDBILLS, POSTERS, BLANKS, CARDS, CIRCULARS, PAMPHLET-WORK and other kinds, done to order, on short notice.

BE GENTLE TO THY BUSBAND. Be gentle to thy Husband,

Remember, all day long, Amid the din and tumult, He battles with the throng.

No wonder that the noble brow Grows clouded with the care That presses on his heart on I hands While he is struggling there.

And when the night has gathered home The loved one to his rest, Be gentle-if no smile appears, There's sorrow in his breast.

'Tis true, you miss the welcome voice, Whose tones are always kind, And long to raise the cloud that casts A shadow on his mind.

Yet, never fear, that through it all Thy presence is not blest; For like the sunshine through the storm, It brings sweet thoughts of rest.

And many times, when labor-tossed, Thy gentle tones have come, An I made g'al music in his heart, "Thanks be for thee -and home."

Be sure, although he speaks it not, Thou art the star whose ray Makes life, and guideth all In I fe's dark, negged way.

And so be ever gentle : Kind words and deeds from thee De more toward making labor light, Than ever thou coulds't see.

For the Argus. Who are the .. Monorable Men ?!!

It has been shown in former communica tions what honor there is in the rum seller and the doggery keeper. They are licensed to deal out "the death dealing bowl" by a and outgrounds, my nephew pointed out to class of men who are elected to revise and me an old beach tree, upon the bark of make laws such as, in their judgment, the which was cut: interests, the condition, and the wants of "Here D. C. murdered P. G. Dec. 18 1824." in, when every limb is shattered, and every vein such ac fought with McDowell, Shelby, &c., den San Francisco, excite the imagination, without meat: whereas, a potato diet reinterests of the people they represent.

bring this traffic under the control of law, jury of women, and the verdict was renand for revenue. Some of them have degraded themselves to beastly drunkards, whom they pretended to despise, when they

The Oregon Arans.

W. L. ADAMS, Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. 1.

AMERICA Knows nought of golden promises of Kings. , Knows nought of Coronets, and Stars, and Strings."

OREGON CITY, OREGON TERRITORY, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1855.

advocated the license law, and did what they personal violence, and murdered her to con. | most experienced surgeons; the deadly elammy to curse the writer, and own the truth.

enough to convince every man, who has of them were heard of again, community. To force the greater number the innocent young man, whom they supof your constituents to give up a privilege posed to be guilty. The murderer was one because you by law have licensed a few to of the jury of inquest on the dead body of sell according to law, and impose a fine upon Miss G.! He was then a married man, and any one who sells contrary to your idea of had seen C. part from her near Mr. K.'s right and law in the case. If the retail sugar camp, and afterwards waylaid her, business is an evil that requires restraint, or and committed the double crime, as stated. a special tax, why not stop it?

honorable part in this matter? PROHIBITIONIST.

For the Argua.

A Reminiscence. In the fall of 1850, I visited again the town on the Ohio River, in which I spent my early life. I had a widowed sister residing in the country a few miles from town. I visited her, and while viewing the farm the country require. They are supposed to Twenty-six years had clapsed since the and artery is pouring out the life stream, one might be competent men to legislate for the best dreadful tragedy here alluded to. I was wonder how little will kill! The building used as How are the facts in the case? Are not ties, and all the circumstances came fresh to yard wall, and is situate in the center of the Northern States to business has its danger and daring, its suf- of all European nations. The laborers dethese same representatives, men capable my mind, as though but of yesterday's oc right angles to the line of the relan. The whole contend with, single handed and alone, fering and endurance, and the changes of pend upon them as an article of food, and of seeing, from their own experience and currence. Miss G. had been in the employ. observation, the influence of intoxicating ment of my sister for a few weeks previous mesiles directed at the Barrack battery, and it liquors upon themselves and upon others of to her death. On Saturday evening, Dec. bears in sides, roofs, windows and doors, frequent mayed. Thus far have we been victorious, their neighbors and acquaintances? Are 17th, 1824, the young lady left for her and distinctive proofs of the severity of the cannon- and with the help of God we still continue they so blind, and so ignorant of the effects father's for a change of clothes. One week ade. Entering one of these deers I beheld such a to conquer. of drinking liquor, that they do not know clapsed, and she did not return to my sis.

sight as few men, thank God, have ever witnessed in a long low room, supported by square pillars, arched at the top, and dimly lighted through shatmore than fil other causes to impoverish the and inquired about her daughter, who had tered and anglazed window-frames, lay the woundman that drinks or uses liquor to excess? not returned on the day before, as usual. - ed Ruscians, who had been abandoned to our mer-Do they not feel in their very souls (if they The girl hid now been missing for nearly cies by their general. The wounded, did I say? sundry of the "border ruffians," and their spectacle. Though their weapons—the axe, have any) ashamed to get drunk, and tell us nine days! The streams were very high, No, but the dead, the rotten and festering corpecs eyes sparkle; their arms are nerved. We the plough, and the steamengine—have not they "despise a drunkard?" They make and the first impression was that she was of the sodiers, who were left to die in their extreme laws to punish the man that gets drunk and drowned. On inquiry it was ascertained they could be stowed, some on the floor, others on commits an assault on his neighbor, while that after leaving home the girl lind started wretched treatles and bedsteads, or pallets of straw, death, and it will be so with you and your he is drunk. Do they not know from their for Mr. K.'s, and instead of crossing the sopped and saturated with blood, which coxed and institution if we fail. Atchison, Stringfelown observation that directly or indirectly foot log over a large stream intervening, she trickled through upon the floor, mingled with the low, and the "border ruffians" of Missouri, yet great qualities are often exhibited in more than half of the casualties and heart- had gone by the way of the saw mill of air. droppings of corruption. With the roar of explodreading accidents that occur among us, as C.'s father. The young man had crossed ing fortresses in their ears, with shells and shot their constituents, occur directly through her in a skiff, and was seen to start with her the influence or effect of liquor? Why toward Mr. K.'s. About an hour after, fire around them; these poor fellows, who had serve and yet we have no advocate in the Southhas our Legislature in 185- made a law to he was heard to shoot his rifle, and soon af- ed their loving fr end and master the Czar, but too ern press, and yet we receive no assistance punish by fine a man that sells or gives li- ter he returned home, and had blood on his well, were consigned to their terrible fate. Many from the Southern States. But the time quor to the Indians in this Territory? Is it hands and clothes. He stated that he had might have been saved by ordinary care. Many will shortly come when that assistance must because they could see that the Indian killed a turkey, and had given it to a fami- lay, yet alive, with maggets crawling about in their would be injured or injure others while under its influence, and yet they cannot see G. was seen last with him, and going in the agony, had rolled away under the beds, and glar-one. If Kansas is abolitionized, Missouri that it will injure their more enlightened direction of Mr. K.'s sugar camp. Many ed out on the heart-stricken spectator, oh! with ceases to be a slave State, New Mexico beand honored selves and constituents? Un- persons collected, and a general search com- such looks! Many with legs and arms broken and der our government we have, as citizenss menced. Finally, near the beech tree alludelegated or given to our representatives the ded to, there were indications of a general right, the power, and the privilege to make skirmish — broken sticks, bushes twisted dreadful injuries in the head or trunk, pointed to Such laws for us as they may think will be round, the ground torn up, and dark stains the lethal spot. Many seemed bent alone on makfor our best interests as a people. As dem- upon the leaves. A trail made off, as of ing their peace with Heaven. The attitudes of the ruin of the whole South depends on the ocrats, we support and sustain them in their something having been dragged, and on fol- some were so hideously fantastic as to appal and Kansas struggle. D. R. ATCHISON." legislative acts. Do those acts tend to pro- lowing it near eighty yards a small pile of root one to the ground by a sort of dreadful fascinmote the best interest of the people, or logs was discovered in a slough of water, white bones over have been a human being, or that does the license law, which is kept upon the and a woman's hand was seen peering up burned black mass of human flesh ever had a hustatute book, give an exclusive privilege to between the logs! The body of the girl man soul? It was fearful to think what the anthe unprincipled, soulless being in human was brought out shockingly bruised-the swer must be. The bodies of numbers of men were shape, who pays for the privilege of ruining clothes drawn forward, the body having swelen and bloated to an incredible degree, and as many of his fellow-men as he can bring been dragged on the ground, and across a protruding from the sockets, and the blackened under his influence. I am acquainted with log two feet in diameter. An inquest was some of these license-law-makers in Oregon, held on the body, and a verdiet of death by by the teeth, which had set upon it in the death who have, or did actually assist and advo- beating, inflicted by an unknown person, rattle, made one shudder and reel round. In the cate the granting of licenses in order to rendered. A second inquest was held by a midst of one of these "chambers of horrors"-for cept occasionally an active, warm hearted him, too strong for a doubt as to his guiltpeople of Oregon, whom I have seen beast. tal! The young man was discharged, but eyes, as I hope it will, all I ask of them is six months; and, on returning, his father You may think you can smother this family removed to Vermillion county, Illi- Times. question for a time vet-that the country is nois. The matter began to die away, when jure the community you represent! Has paid the bail money, $1899, and his wife not the license system been tried long and three children were sent off, and none

The log over which the dead body was drag-Do you, as our representatives, act an ged was nearly rotted away when I visited the spot; the old beech tree had died, but the inscription was yet discernible. My heart swelled with emotion on leaving the fatal spot. D. N. Marion Co., O. T., Dec. 14, 1855.

Picture of the Bospital at Sebastopol.

Of all the pictures of the horrors of war which have ever been presented to the world, the Ho-pital at Sebastopol presents the most borrble, heartreading and revolting. It cannot be described, could to legislate and make the business ceal the first crime. A chain of circum- stench, the smell of gangrened wounds, of corrupthonorable. No one notices them now ex- stantial evidence was brought to bear against ed blood, of rotting flesh, were intolerable and edious beyond endurance. But what must have the (and in the estimation of these tender. Public indignation ran high, and often the and who passed away without a hand to give them for the registration of valuable letters, are, wounded felt who were obliged to endure all this, tion of the Act of March 3, 1855, providing hearted, soulless rum sellers, "too philan- jail in which he was confined was in danger a cop of water, or a voice to say one kindly word thropic") son of temperance, who still lubors of being forced open, and C. suffering the to them? Most of these men were wounded on in hope of better times. Some of them vengeance of an enraged populace. The Saturday-many perhaps on the Friday beforehave descended to the doggery keeper's stactors of court, and finally, have been there. In the harry of their retreat the tion, and actually dealt in the article. But when the trial came on, three days were Mascovites seem to have carried in dead men to of registered letters shall be scaled, is heretheir works follow them-some of them consumed in making up the jury. Able get them out of the way, and to have put them on by revokedhave become victims of their own soulless counsel were employed for and against the pallets in horrid mockery. So that their retreat and miserable traffic. I know some who accused, and after a long and faithful hear- was secured the enemy cared but little for their now fill the station of representative of the ing the jury brought in a verdict of acquit- wounded. On Monday only did they resieve those whom we sent out to them during a brief armistice ly drunk. Should this article meet their so great was the excitement that he left for ourselves, as our overcrowded hospitals could not entered. contain, and our overworked surgeons could not atsold out his farm and mill, and with his tend to any more. - Correspondent of the London

A correspondent of the Descret News gives not prepared for prohibition-that the lo! the true murderer became known. The the following account of the discovery of a new falsehood and misrepresentation respecting chain of circumstances by which the truth kind of sugar at Provo City: "Last week a sweet falsehood and misrepresentation respecting chain of circumstances by which the truth the Maine law will satisfy the people, and was divulged is too revolting to relate. He A few began to gather it by stripping off the leaves suppose the Maine liquor law is defeated. quirk of the law he was boiled out, and fled Daniels made eleven pounds of sugar; it looks and (which is not the case.) do not the evils, the forever. He came westward, and changed tastes like maple sagar. Many scores of men, it. When it was first discovered some said that it was honey-daw; others said that it proceeded from the cottonwood leaves; but it is found on all kinds of leaves and on the rocks. My children any reason in his brain, that to license the Poor C. died of a broken heart. Deep have gathered and brought in a quantity of it, that business is only to protect it, and make it a and lasting regret pervaded the minds of the they had taken from the leaves as it is deposited; mono oly among the unprincipled part of community for their untiring pursecution of many of the leaves have scales of this sweet substance as thick as window glass, and some a great > Senator Atchison on the Kansas Question. Sentor Atchison, of Missouri, having been invited to attend the celebration at the spot of the battle of King's Mountain, in North Carolina, sent the committee the following significant reply :-

"PLATTE CITY, Mo., Sept. 12, 1855. "GENTLEMEN-Your letter of invitation requesting my attendance at the celebration of the battle of King's Mountain has been for me to be present on that occasion, I have certain duties, both private and public. to discharge at home. The battle of King's Mountain was fought by the whigs under the lead of Campbell, McDowell, Shelby, Sevier and Williams, against the tories, under the gallant Ferguson. We have a similar anything at all like unto it. How the poor human foe to encounter in Kausas on the first Monbody can be mutilated and yet hold the soul with- day in Oct. next. The "border ruffians," gorgeous and reckless New York, and sud- could "stand their work" on baked apples, such men as fought with Ferguson on the intimately acquainted with both of the pars a hospital is one of the noble piles inside the deck. other. We (the, "border ruffians,") have many a wonderful and moving story ; for use apples extensively, as do the inhabitants pathy from any quarter; yet we are undis-

have been acting on the defensive altogethed in the North; abuse most foul, and falsewhich they lay, with the cracking and hissing of hood unblushing, are poured out upon us. and will be rendered; the stake the "border ruffians" are playing for is a mighty comes a free State, California remains a free State; but if we secure Kansas as a slave State, Missouri is secure; New Mexico and one got out of the way."

OF The Louisville Courier states that a constant stampede is going on among the slave population of that city and county.

Registration of Letters--Important Modi-

The regulations and instructions to Post masters for carrying into effect the 3d secby direction of the Postmaster General. modified, as follows, viz:

1. So much of sections 4, 5, and 6 of these regulations as requires that packages

2. All registered letters are, before mailing, to be numbered on the upper left hand corner, their numbers to correspond with those on the letter bills in which they are

3. Each registered letter, or package of registered letters, will be enclosed in a wrapper in the usual manner, and if there be a package of unregistered letters to be sent circles that the British Minister asserts that by the same mail, the package of registered the late attempt to convict him of a violaletters will be placed in such package, with- tion of the neutrality laws of this country. out being tied, and the whole will then be was the result of a conspiracy of foreigners keep back enquiry upon the subject. But was arrested and committed, but by some and soaking them in water; in this way Br. A. carefully tied up into one package, address to embroil the two governments; that at ed to the office of its destination, and placed the proper time he will show such to be the in its appropriate bag at the moment when case. Furthermore, Mr. Crampton intivices, and the necursed effects of liquor, in- his name, as was supposed. His securities women and children are now engaged in gathering that bag is to be finally locked and sent from mates, that, should his recall be consummathe office. If no unregistered letters are to ted, no successor would be appointed in his be sent by that mail, the package of regis- place. tered letters is to be tied and forwarded in the same manner without being sealed.

> warded by the usual route as an unregist housand dollars. tered letter.

5. The number given to registered let-changed in the accounts or letter bills of is far underrated. Besides containing a distributing offices through which they may large amount of sugar, mucilage, and other 6. Postmasters are required to see that the postmark of each registered letter powerfully in the capacity of refrigerants, (whether written or stamped,) is clear and tonics, and antisepties; and when freely distinct, so that the place and date of mailreceived. It will be altogether inconvenient ing can be readily determined .- Washing prevent debility, indigestion, and avert.

A Picture of our Country.

ing fact. The Western clearings, the impotatoes. In the year 1801-which was a mense farms of the Mississippi Valley, the Lake trade, the foreign immigration, toil being converted into cider, were sold to the ing Africa chained to the car of commerce, poor; and the laborers asserted that they by all that they imply and fore-shadow .-They represent many ideas, and embody al nutriment. The French and Germans fortune, in this new world of boundless re- frequently make dinner of sliced apples and sources and free activity, are more marvel- bread. There is no fruit cooked in as many This bold enterprise that stretches to the nor is there any fruit whose value, as an Pacific, this skilled and thoughtful race article of nutriment, is as great, and so lit-"Gentlemen, I thank you for the kind grasping a vast empire, like a homestead, to the appreciated. - Water Cure Journal. expression in the concluding paragraph of cultivate, and plant, and adorn; this brave your letter-"Three cheers for Atchison and army of workers, marching on irresistibly Kansas!" I have read this paragraph to to the conquest of nature, form a grand the lustre of poetry that gleams from the $300,000,000 more in real estate, mines &c. er; the contest with us is one of life and point of the sword; though the heroes of the farm, the work-shop, and the countinghouse, like village Hampdens, die ansung, as to the aggregate wealth of the whole these humble fields of men's effort, and $40,000,000. The idea is purely absurd their labors found nations, as those of the that their wealth should amount to such an coral insect lift the basis of an island above enormous sum as $1,000,000,000, equal at the sea, to the light and air of heaven.

have that love of money which is the root hands a large portion of the wealth and proof all evil; and under the deadly shade of perty of all Europe. the tree from that root, the love of knowl- PATHIOTIC .- A short time since there beauty, withers and dies. In prosperity no Falls. In the reading room of the Internaalters smoke,' The curse of Midas is upon tional sat a staid, sober, middle-aged man, Southern California, if not all of it, becomes us. Our feelings, our ideas, our aspirations, absorbed in the contents of a newspaper, the material, not the spiritual; the visible der louder, more terriffe than any which ## "The Russians," says an English We are practical, not intellectual; and our able echoes through the garge, and the acpaper, "had three heavy pieces of ordnance pleasures are of the senses, not of the rea-companying lightning throwing a larid in a battery at the east side of the dockyard son, imagination and taste. We are smit- glare upon everything: Our quiet man creek, which threw their shot at least six ten with the lust of the flesh, the lust of deliberately raised his head obove the edge miles! They rarely did any harm. The the eye, and the pride of life.' We are of the paper, and as deliberately remarked: the features distended to a gigantic size, with eyes noise of their course was so great that every true disciples of the ethics of interest and "That's on the American side-They can't utility, and our only morality is cark pay- get up such thunder in the Queen's doment. Truly has it been said, that 'he who minions," and then resumed his reading maketh haste to be rich shall not be inno- without another word. cent.' If intemperate drinking be the degrading vice of one portion of our people, The Know-Nothing State Conven- intemperate money-making is the besetting growl about it. By so doing you'll be sure tion of North Carolina have formally re- sin of another and much larger portion, and to get rich and make yourself particularly solved to abandon all secresy whatever. it is difficult to say which is the more per- agreeable to every body.

One is a vice of the senses, destroying the mind; the other, a deluson of the mind, and a selfish passion, blasting the moral sentiments, and palsying the higher powers of the intellect

"The poor drankard cannot resist the "banefal cup," which benumbs his soul, 'unmoulding reason's mintage," and transforming him and the infatuated worshipper of Mammon deliberately uses his mental faculties for his own destruction, prefers the ignoble and low to the pure and high, and shuts out the light of heaven from his life. Successful industry, rapid gains, rank prosperity, without counteracting causes to modify their influence, have stimulated this passion for wealth to excess, and have produced already, in this new country, luxury, venality, corruption, contempt for intellectual pursuits and pleasures, and sneering indifference to ennobling and elevated sentiment. Hence vulgar estentation of our cities; hence the general want of literary taste and culture; hence the deplorable frauds of business; hence much of the baseness of our politics." -North Am. Review.

"Into the inglorious likeness of a beast,"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

It is reported here to-day in diplomotie

In the Court of Claims to-day the case of John C. Hale was argued by Hon. F. E. 4. The registered letter bill will be inclo- Stanton. The claim is for the tract of land, sed in a separate envelop, addressed to the on which are situated the celebrated hot postmaster, as now required, and will be for- springs of Arkanses, valued at one hundred APPLES FOR HUMAN FOOD,-With us ters at the office of mailing are not to be the value of the apple, as an article of food. nutritive matter, apples contain vegetable acids, aromatic qualities, etc., which act and used at the season of mellow ripeness, they without doubt, many of the "ills which flesh is heir to." The operators of Cornwall, England, consider ripe apples nearly as "America, as she now stands, is a strik-nourishing as bread, and far more so than year of much scarcity-apples, instead of lous than the tales of the Arabian Nights .- different ways in our country as apples;

THE ROTHSCHILDS .- An article is going the rounds of the press stating that the $700,000,000 in money capital besides So far from this being the fact, we understand that the general estimate in Europe concern is 200,000,000 francs, or about 6 per cent, to an annual income of sixty But the picture has its dark sides. The millions of dollars - a sum which, in comeager desire for wealth, the incessant and paratively a few years, accumulating in a Sabbathless' pursuit of it has become the compound ratio, and doubling it every universal passion and occupation. We twelve years, would concentrate in their edge and art, of truth, and virtue, and was a terrible thunder-storm at Niagara and transient, not the invisible and eternal preceded, reverberating with the innumer-

05 To care poverty - sit down and