

Impeachment of Judge Kane.

Petitions are in circulation in several of the States for the impeachment of Judge Kane. The following is a copy of one published by an Ohio paper:

To the House of Representatives of the United States of America:

The undersigned, your petitioners, residents of _____ county, _____, respectfully but most earnestly demand the impeachment of John K. Kane, a Judge of the District Court of the United States, in violation of the rights of universal humanity, inasmuch as he has attempted to enslave three persons who were entitled to freedom, not only by natural right, but also by all the principles of law and all the judicial precedents bearing upon their case. And we further demand it as a protection to our own individual liberties; because, going beyond his jurisdiction in the case referred to, and by the imprisonment of Pamore Williamson, he has usurped and exercised a power and established a precedent, which, whilst unrebuked, places in jeopardy the personal liberty of every individual in the nation, and leaves it at the mercy of federal judges, irresponsible to any power in the government, save that of impeachment by your honorable body.

National K. N. Convention.

It will be recollected that the K. N.'s at their Philadelphia convention last June, fixed upon the 22d Feb. next as the day for nominating a candidate for President. Since then a special meeting has been summoned to meet at Philadelphia on the 18th Feb. It is thought the object of this "special meeting," is to postpone the time of the National Convention, to a later period, as many objections are raised to bringing a candidate into the field at so early a date as Feb. Among all the candidates talked of by the Americans, MILLARD FILLMORE seems just now to stand the fairest with the party. Sam. Houston, who was much talked of a year ago, seems to be pretty universally dropped. Hon. Garrett Davis, of Ky., is seldom spoken of and the field seems to be abandoned for the present, to George Law and Fillmore. The latter stands the better chance of the two.

Parvillians Repeating.

The citizens of Parkville, Mo., who it will be recollected drove George S. Park from Platte county, last spring, after having shown his press to the Luminary in the Missouri river, and threatened Park and Patterson, with all sorts of "border pains and penalties, having, either from the smiting of their own consciences, from the stings of the whip of public scorn, which an outraged community all over the nation has applied to their hides, or from motives of pecuniary interest, invited G. S. Park to return, upon the plea that his "business relations" with the people in and around Parkville demanded it. A portion of the old mob who lived in the country on their own hog and hominy, drinking their own whisky, and "chawing their own tobacco," thought the citizens of the town most too sensitive, and sent in word that "Park must travel again." Upon this the citizens of P. (who by the way have become very much refined, all at once) called a meeting and issued a tremendously long pronouncement, setting forth the necessity of Park's remaining, and telling their neighbors that they ought to be gentler, and "leave Park alone." Whether Civilization or "Borderism" triumphed we do not learn from our Missouri exchanges.

Soldiers for Oregon.

The news of Indian difficulties in Oregon and Washington Territories, having reached Washington, the Government has ordered out the Ninth Regiment of Infantry to this country.

The men of this regiment are armed with the Minto rifle, carrying a ball with accuracy 1000 yards, and are trained to travel all day at the rapid pace of five miles an hour. The following order has been issued:

1. The ninth regiment of Infantry will proceed, via Panama, to San Francisco, California; and, if not otherwise directed at that place by order from the headquarters of the Department of the Pacific, will repair thence without delay to Fort Vancouver, W. T.

2. Transportation will be furnished from New York, to be at Ft. Monroe, Va., by the 11th or 12th, and the regiment will embark on or before the 14th inst.

3. Officers on regimental recruiting service, regimental recruiting parties, or recruits, will be immediately called in; and officers of the regiment on leave of absence will rejoin it without delay.

By command of Brevet Lieutenant General Scott.

BYVIN McDOWELL, Assistant Adjutant General.

Virginia.

Gov. Johnson laid his annual message before the General Assembly of Virginia, on the 3d of Dec. In transmitting to the Assembly the resolutions of the Legislature of Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut, upon the Kansas-Nebraska question, the Gov. thus disavowed the various horns of the dilemma which seem to sprout up, offering "Old Virginia" a choice between about four of them:

"By some it has been suggested to adopt a system of retaliation, by taking possession of their vessels and other property when within our jurisdiction, and by acting towards their owners, when attempting to assert their rights, precisely as they act towards a master attempting to secure his slave, passing laws similar to theirs, and harassing and annoying them with criminal prosecutions, penalties and forfeitures.

By others it has been thought best to exhibit hostility to our institutions, by imposing rigid commercial restrictions, laying taxes upon their goods, and obstructing their intercourse by every means sanctioned by the Constitution. Some would appeal to our sister States, who suffer similar ills with us, and recommend the call of a Southern Convention, to consult together for our safety and the security of our property, and if need be resume those sovereign powers now delegated to the General Government—while others would at once rush into the alternative of dissolving the Union, and refuse to submit to Constitutional provisions, which are violated with impunity, under the sanction of State authority.

Such propositions, gravely mooted by legislative bodies, by executive functionaries, and by the people in their primary assemblies, are solemn warnings of imminent danger. History teaches to what they lead. When men begin to talk of pledging their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to preserve their rights, we need not be told that the spirit of the fathers of the revolution is rekindled. The subject is one for deep reflection and wise counsel. Threats and monitions are useless. I leave it to the calm consideration and dignified action of the General Assembly, confidently believing that no rash step will be taken, but that when action is decided on, it will be such as will vindicate our rights, redound to the honor of the Commonwealth, and to the glory of the Union."

Money Plenty in the States.

The N. Y. Herald says that the last steamer brought two millions of gold from California. Everybody is rejoicing over the prospect of "good times coming."

From Europe.

Dates are to the 24th Nov. The Russian and Allied armies had gone into winter quarters. There were still a few prisoners of a Russian attack. It is said that although winter stops field operations, it is intended to bombard the northern side of Sebastopol, to permit the fleet to winter in the harbor.

The town of Mar and on the north coast of the sea of Azoff was bombarded by the Allies on the 31st Oct. no great damages done. Gen. Wragge menaced the Allied position at the straits of Yemkale. The allies have, however, from 30,000 to 40,000 men there.

A serious accident occurred at Inkermann by the blowing up of a French park of artillery, causing the death of 30 French troops and 100 wounded. On the part of the English deputy Assistant Commissary Yelton was killed, and 137 officers and men wounded.

Kars was still under siege. There was some talk of peace, but nothing satisfactory.

A note containing the following excellent resolutions, well expressed, was handed us several weeks since by a son of our old friend Cog, former Postal Agent of Oregon. As we were occupied at the time, we slipped the note into our pocket book, and entirely forgot the whole matter till this week, when in overhauling our papers we turned it up. This will account for its not having appeared before:

Mr. Editor—I am glad to hear that your paper is devoted to temperance; and perhaps you will be glad to learn that one person at least is on the right side; which you will infer from the following lines:

I've signed the total Temperance pledge
A sober boy to live,
I'll ne'er be found beneath the hedge,
My parents dear to grieve,
My parents dear to grieve, my friends,
Or cause one bitter tear;
Nor touch the wine cup to my lips,
To make my head less clear.

I've signed the total Temperance pledge,
I'll be a sober man,
And it shall be my privilege
To do what good I can;
To do what good I can, my friends,
Though narrow be my sphere,
Cold water drink, till life shall end,
Cold water pure and clear.

I've signed the total temperance pledge,
To drink no beer nor rum;
Or any other beverage
That makes the drunk to come;
That makes the drunk to come, my friends,
A mark for jeer and fun—
I'll ne'er be found beneath the hedge
From drinking too much rum.

I've signed the total Temperance pledge,
May God assist me now,
That I may live to good old age,
And keep this solemn vow;
And keep this solemn vow, my friends,
Light heart and clear cool brow—
And keep this pledge till life shall end,
With life give up my vow. H. C. C.

MAXIMO THE MOST OF IT.—A country editor, in giving an account of a slight accident which happened to one of his subscribers, while splitting kindling wood, says:—"Had the ax struck him on the top of the head, in all probability it would have split his skull so as to have taken his life."

To Fanny Fern's 1,000,000 Readers!

A NEW BOOK COMING!

WE have the pleasure of announcing that we have in press, and shall publish about the first of December, a new work of fiction, entitled

ROSE CLARK,

A ROMANCE—BY FANNY FERN.
The last work, and first continuous tale of this brilliant and fascinating authoress, "Ruth Hall," achieved a success unexampled in the annals of letters. In the language of a leading periodical, it "created a more profound sensation than any which has been issued during a quarter of a century." But it is unnecessary to allude to the merits of "Ruth Hall." Judging from the number of copies of it we have sold, we judge that every body in the United States has read it. As respects the work we have now in press, ROSE CLARK, we can only say that we regard it as, in every respect, a greater, better work; and are confident it will not only sustain, but even increase the reputation of its distinguished authoress. We have reasons for thinking "Rose Clark" will make a greater sensation than did "Ruth Hall."

It will form an elegant 12mo volume of over 400 pages. Price $1.25, or receipt of which copies will be sent by mail, post-paid. It will be for sale by all booksellers. Published by 40-3w MASON BROTHERS, New York.

Take notice that the Bill of Complaint in this cause was filed in this court and subpoena issued thereon on the sixteenth day of August last past; that this suit is brought by said complainant to recover the sum of $5400, claimed to be due to complainant as and for interest upon the sum of $45,000, arising and accruing as follows:—that Robert Moore and Jane E. his wife, on the 1st day of December, 1852, sold and conveyed to Daniel H. Ferguson certain lands and premises therein described in this City, in the then county of Wash., now county of Clackamas, and for the unpaid purchase money thereof received back at the same time from said D. H. Ferguson the promissory note of said Ferguson (among other things) for the sum of $45,000, secured by mortgage at same time on the premises aforesaid; that said note bore date the said first day of December, 1852—was payable to said Robert Moore or order in ten years after said date with interest at six per cent. per annum, payable annually; that on the 19th day of March, 1853, said Ferguson sold and conveyed same premises, subject to said mortgage, to the said Willamette Falls Canal, Milling, and Transportation Company, with actual notice to said Company, at the time of such sale, of such claim of Moore thereon—which conveyance is and was all the title of said Company to said premises; that said Company is in possession of said premises; that on the first day of April, 1854, said Moore for valuable consideration assigned and conveyed said note and mortgage to O. C. Pratt, who on the tenth day of August, 1855, assigned and conveyed same to said complainant; that no part of said principal money or interest has been paid, and complainant seeks to foreclose said mortgage for nonpayment of said sum of $5400 due thereon for interest; that said defendants respectively, to whom this notice is addressed, have filed mechanic's liens with the proper officer against said premises for work and labor all-ged to have been done thereon and materials found for such work for and on account of said Willamette Falls Canal, Milling, and Transportation Company, or have obtained judgments against said Company in the District Court of said county of Clackamas, duly recorded; that the sheriff of said county, having returned that you the said defendants, to whom this notice is directed, could not be found, it is ordered by the court that you and each of you do appear in said court on the first day of the next term thereof, to be held at Oregon City in said county on the first Monday in March next, to answer the said bill of complaint, or that the same will be taken as confessed against those not appearing.
