.Catholic Priests -- Arms and Ammultion. "By reference to the following letter by Lieut.

Rodgers to Gov. Abernethy, it will be seen that the arms and ammunition attempted to be taken into the upper Indian country by the Catholic priests, have been seized by Lieut. Rolgers, and deposited in Ft. Lee. Orders had been dispatched to Lieut, Rodgers to seize and detain those munitions. Much credit is due to Licut. Rodgers and the little garrison at Ft. Lee, for the promptness and efficiency with which they acted in the matter. We understand that there was no disposition on the part of the government, to destroy or confiscate those munitions, but, that they were detained to prevent their transportation into the Indian country under main with the Indians, than lose a few dimes by to have spoken plainly upon the attempt, by Catholic Priests, to transport such a quantity of arms and ammunition into the Indian country at this are now safe, we abstain from present comment upon the transaction .- Oregon Spectator of Sept-7th, 1848.

ROSE CLARK,

A ROMANCE - BY PANNY FERM.

The last work, and first continuous tale of this brilliant and fascinating authoress, "Ruth Hall," achieved a success un xampled in the annals of letters. In the language of a leading periodical, it "created a more profound sensation than any which has been issued during a quarter of a centhan any tury." But it is undecessary to allude to the merids of "Rath Hall." Judging from the number of copies of it we have sold, we judge that every body in the United States has read it. As respects the work we have now in press, Ross, CLARK, we can only say that we regard it as, in every respect, a greater, better work ; and are confident it will not aly sustain, but even increase the reputation of its only sustain, but even increase the reputation of ite distinguished authoress. We have reasons for thinking "Rese Clark" will make a greater sensa-tion than did "Ruth Hall."
It will form an elegant 19mo volume of over 400 pages. Prize $1.25, on receipt of which cop-ies will be sent by mail, post-paid. It will be for sale by all booksellers. Published by 40.3w MASON BROTHERS, New York.
