The Oregon Argus.

Vol. II.

OREGON CITY, O.T., MAY 21, 1856.

No.

THE OREGON ARGUS.

A Weekly Newspaper, devoted to the Principles of Jeffersonian Democracy, and advocating the side of Truth in every issue.

BY WILLIAM L. ADAMS.

Office-Booth, Halsey, O.T.

1,000 copies printed-

1,000 copies sold.

For the Oregon Argus, at the office.

16th June, 1856.

Mr. Editor:—

This is a copy of a newspaper which is the most popular in the city of Oregon City, the capital of the State of Oregon, and which is published by Mr. William L. Adams, who is also its editor.

This newspaper was started in the year 1852, and has been published ever since, without interruption, until the present time.

It is published weekly, and contains from 16 to 20 pages, according to the size of the press.

The Oregon Argus is printed in the best manner, and is sold at the lowest price, viz: 25 cents per copy, and $1.00 per annum.

It is a very good newspaper, and is read by a large number of people, both at home and abroad.

J. B. F."