THE OREGON ARGUS
A Weekly Newspaper, devoted to the Principle of Jeffersonian Democracy, and adverting the dilly of Truth in every issue.

Vol. II.
OREGON CITY, O. T., JUNE 1, 1846.

Dear Sir,

I have just received a letter from my friend in the East, which contains some important information on the subject of [Letter content continued with various paragraphs discussing political and social matters of the time, including references to the Legislative Assembly, the city of Portland, and various personalities such as Mr. Adams, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Johnson.

Yours, etc.,

[Signature]

Secretary of the Convention.