Nearly all the Southern aspirants for the Presidency, desire Mr. Pierce's nomination. Mr. Hunter, Mr. Cobb, of Georgia, Mr. Rusk, and Col. Orr, each have some chance for succeeding Pierce, as the choice of the Democracy for the term commencing in 1861. They are all young enough to

Mr. Douglas, on the other hand, would prefer the nomination of Mr. Hunter or any Southern man, hoping to succeed him. It is understood in the Democratic Party that hereafter the North is to have the Presidency alternately with the South .-This is a great concession certainly, on the part of the South, which will contribute most of the electorial votes to the election of a Democrat at the coming election, and probably in future ejections.

As matters stand, Mr. Pierce's chance for the nomination is, I think, better than that of any other Democrat, Northern or Southern. There is but one difficulty about it, and that is the apprehension that if nominsted, he will not be elected. As Mr. Buchanan is sure of Pennsylvania, it is contended, with much force, that he is the only Democratic candidate who can, with any fair prospect of success, be put in nomination .- Cor. N. Y. Com. Adv.

OF As speaker Banks declines to be a Candidate for the Presidency; as Senator Seward does not consider his chance as of success very good, if nominated, the prevalent opinion is, that Col. Fremont will be selected to carry the standard of the Republican party.

The Hon. James C. Jones, Senator from Tennessee, and an old line Whig, has published a letter to his constituents on poditical parties, and the reasons which will induce him to act with the Democratic party at the coming election.

07 The Washington Star says that Senator Douglas' bill for the admission of Kansas, while it will pass the Senate by a Aarge majority, will have a clear majority in the House of Representatives. It prowides that when Kansas has the require population, she may enterinto the Union avith-such a constitution as the may adopt, without reference to the slavery question.

Increase in Five Years. - The population of four of the Southern States, four of the Western, and three of the Central, shows an increase in five years of 1,532,787, or at the rate of 20 per cent. A like increase in the rest of the States would give for the FAMINE IN THE CAPE DE VERBE ISLANDS. -An officer in the American navy, writing to his friend at Washington, gives a painful account of the famished and perishing condition of the inhabitants of the Cape de Verde Islands, owing to the scarcity of rain and consequent shortness of crops for the last three years. Already from 5,000 to 6,000 have died of sheer fumine out of a population of 120,000. At St.Jago the Governor is doing his atmost for the poor prople, by sending small vessels, as he can raise the means, to the cost of Africa for grain, which he distributes with the strictest economy to the destitute, devoting to that purpose the whole of the revenues of the islands, and his own salary he has not touched for the three years of his governor ship, living very poor and with great frugal ity. He thinks he will be able to keep starvation in check till July, after which, unless provisions are sent out from Europe and America, 20,000 persons at the least calculation will starve to death between then and Dec. He is about to make an appeal to our government at Washington; and the writer strongly urges the condition of this unfortunate people upon the sympathy and charity of the American public.

65 A Crimean correspondent of a Paris journal, giving an account of the rejoicings which took place between the French and Russians, on the banks of the Chernaya when the news of the armistice arrived, eays: "At last they separated, promising each other to meet again. 'Good bye, till we meet in Paris!' were the words they hallooed to each other with enthusiasm, as they retired."

The Kingdom of Oude has been seized by the British East India company, under the following circumstances : they made a treaty with the king, some years ago, by which they bound themselves to respect his rights, and he agreed to govern with wisdom and moderation; under pretence he has not done so, they depose him, seize his kingdom, and levy a tax upon it to fill their coffers. Had the Yankees done this, it would have been termed "fillibusterism;" done by the British, it is merely "a masterstroke of diplomacy.

27 The total number of land warrants issued under the laws of March, 1855, as we learn by a dispatch from Washington, are 227,000; requiring upwards of 15,000,000 seres. The number of claims received are 245,700. Upward of 14,000 warrants, covering 1,700,000 acres, were issued in

STAMPS CUT FROM LETTER ENVELOPES ARE VALUELESS .- We understand inquiries continue to be made at the department why stamps cut from stamped envelopes cannot be used in prepayment of letters in the same manner as ordinary postage stamps. Persons, in addressing their letters, sometimes, through carelessness or mistake, destroy the envelope, and, without stopping to reflect, many think it a hardship that having paid the government both for the stamp and the envelope, they can not be allowed to cut out and use the stamps on a plain envelope. The principle reasons why this cannot be permitted are : first, the law gives po value to such stamps, and makes no provision for their use, except when connected with, and forming a part of, the envelopes as prepared under the law, with suitable water marks, etc., to prevent fraud; second, letters in stamped envelopes may be lawfully carried outside of the mail, and when so carried it is believed that the stamps are seldom, if ever canceled. These are controlling reasons, and will at once commend themselves to every person of reflection. - Washington Union

Conditions of the Treaty.

The Opinione, of Turin, gives, upon what it declares to be good authority, the conditions contained in the treaty of peace. They are affirmed to be as follows:

I. Neutralisation of the Black Sea. Russia not to keep more than ten ships of war rmed for the defence of the coasts.

II. Nicolaieff reduced to a merchant port with engagement that no ship of war shall be constructed beyond the number agreed

III. Russia to allow consuls from all the powers in the ports of the Black Sea and

IV. Bomarsund not to be reconstructed. of Bessarabia, comprising the fortress of Is-

VI. Russia renounces the exclusive protectorate of the Danubian principalities. VII. She equally renounces the protectorate of the Greeks of the Ottoman empire. VIII. The free navigation of the Danube is guaranteed to all States without except-The IXth article refers to the commission to be sent into the principalities to study the questions of the frontiers and the mode of government. The Opinione denies that any stipulation has been made in favor of Sardinia, and that the Italian question will be discussed at large by the plenipotentiaries in their supplimentary sitting. Russin will, it is said, send an embassador to Paris after the ratification of the treaty.

A bill just reported in the Massachusetts House of Representatives enacts, that if any person shall be guilty of adul-terating milk by water or otherwise, he shall, on conviction, be fined, $50 for the first offence, one-half of which shall be paid same time an aggregate increase of 4.638,- to the complainant; and for the second of-375, and a total population of 27,830,251. | feace, shall be imprisoned in the House of

New Fire-Arms--Important Improvements The National Intelligencer describes a set of specimens of fire arms, all of them new models, invented in New York. The first specimen is a magazine repeating needle oun. It solves the problem of the application of the discharging needle to revolvers. A cylindrical magazine containing forty cartridges is attached longitudinally underneath the barrel of the gun. These car-trideges are successively fired as fast as the gun can be cocked, and the mechanism is such as to secure a most perfect loading.

Also, a revolving needle gun, without the magazine, having the advantage over all other revolvers, that it can be used with cartridges.

The last gun we saw strikes us as being a most important invention. It is an old United States musket converted into a breech-loading gun, and this is done by such simple and ingenious means, and the gun operates with such facility, that we cannot but anticipate the best results from it. In all the attempts at producing breech-loading guns that have hitherto been made the great difficulty was to keep the sliding surfaces of the breech and barrel so completely uninjured by the combustion of the powder as to insure uniform nicety of operation.-This gun has a contrivance which, effecting the opening of the breech by the dis-charge of the bullet, prevents any deleterious action from gases on the breech by produc ing an instantaneous draft of fresh air through the barrel and breech. The inventor claims that the latter improvement ossesses great advantages, especially in a military point of view, that it enables men to shoot from five to six times more rapidly and to obtain a greater range than with the present musket, and that it obviates all danger from premature discharge.

STARTLING PHENOMENON .- Mr. John Parker and son were attending some fish ines on the river about three miles above here, when they were surprised by a continuous, unusual roaring towards the middle of the stream; the night was without wind. Owing to the darkness, no effort was made to ascertain the cause of this strange noise until daylight, when it was seen that a whirlpool of large extent was in active operation some two hundred miles from the Missouri shore, which still continues in operation, drawing in a great body of matter; so much indeed, that the vol ume of the river below is sensibly lossened. Driftwood and large floating logs go in and disappear totally. Many hundreds yesterday went up to see this strange sight. Unless this chasm soon fills up with water, the effect upon navigation will be calamitous indeed, for it would seem that the bottom of the river has really fallen out .- Squatter Sovereign, (Atchison, K. FOR MOTHERS' EYES .- Mothers who encourage their daughters in superficial accomplishments and bold display, are often preparing for them a lifetime of chagrin and misery. On the other hand, when they are trained at home, by precept and example, in retiring, industrious, studious, virtuous habits, they are prepared to be useful and happy throughot life.

Vicious company is as dangerous as an infectious and contagious distemper, and therefore ought to be carefully and industriously avoided.
