The Jennie Clark brought up 700 Indi. Jury from the Free State men, and this ans yesterday, which were brought to precaution was deemed necessary. There were about three hundred citizens Portland by the Steamer Columbia from Port Orford. George and Limpy with their flocks compose the crowd. John's band have given up their arms, and will come in by land: This will of course close the war in Rogue River. It behaves the Indian Agent to look well to his family in Yambill, and see that they are deprived of weapons with which to slay each other and endanger the safety of the settlements around. We hear that some of the Regue River Indians on the reservation still retain their arms. The Agent knows his business botter than we do, but the people will not feel safe with a knowledge of the fact that numbers of these Indians still retain their arms, and the Agent is afraid to insist upon taking them. This may not be so, but we have it from a certain "General" conspicuous in the "grub department" of the last war.

Mansas.

In regard to the Kansas difficulties, we can obtain nothing which appears more authentic than the annexed, which we find in the St. Louis Intelligencer of 28th May .-It seems to be a reasonable history of the disturbances :- Alta California.

The steamer Star of the West arrived yesterday from the Missouri, bringing us a number of papers and extras from offices in that region, referring mainly to events of recent occurrence in Lawrence and thereabouts. We have also seen Judge Fain, who acted as United States Deputy Marwhat and as Deputy Sheriff, in Lawrence, and who hav given us some additional items of news. The Judge is on his way to Geor-gia, for his family, intending to return im-gia, for his tamity, intending to return im-mediately to Kansas, to take up his perma-nent residence in Lecompton. According to the reports before us, early on Wednesday morning, the United States Marshal, with the men who had obeyed his proclamation calling for aid to assist in the execution of certain write in his hands, Lawrence. They numbered from four to five hundred men. Between 10 and 11 o'clock, the Marshal sent his Deputy, Judge Fain, into the town, with a posse of eight men, to execute the write. They made four arrests, returned, and delivered the prisoners to the Marshal, and he dismissed his force.

The Lawrence people were disposed to exult over this result, declaring that they fid not intend to resist his authority ; although Reeder had set them the example of contemping it and that of the U.S. Judge of the Lecompton District. But when Marshal Donaldson had performed his duty Sheriff Jones, who had recovered from the wound received in the attempt to assassinate him in Lawrence, appeared on the scene, and summoned the same men to aid him in a like service. He took about twenty men with him and rode into Lawrence. He stopped in front of the Free State Hotelditted up, as is well known, as a fortification -and, calling for Gen. Pomeroy, demand-ed from him all the Sharpe's rifles and pieces of artillery about the fort, or hotel, giving him five minutes to decide whether he would surrender them or not, saying that he desired to effect this purpose peaceably and quietly. Pomeroy, having consulted with others, agreed to deliver up the arms, and fifteen minutes further time was allowed to stack them in the street.

of Lawrence still in town on Wednesday, and many of them were greatly exasperated at their leaders, because they had deserted in the hour of their difficulties, and they vowed that they would not again be found in resistance to the laws of the Territory. A good many were passengers on the Star of the West, returning to the East.

The Canadian View of the Dismissal.

Some of the leading Canadian presses have expressed their views upon this matter. From the Toronto Globe we have the following :

"The telegraph announced to us yesterday evening that the long threatened dismissal of Mr. Crampton, and the British consuls at New York, Philadelphis and Cincinnati has taken place, and that as a consequence, diplomatic intercourse be-tween the United States and Great British has tween the United States and Great Brinin has ceased on this side of the Atlantic. We have never thought that this movement, on the part of the American government, would lead to a scious rupture between the two countries ; and, indeed, Mr. Marcy's letter, which accompanies the disami-al, is said to have been framed specially to avoid the danger of such an event. But it cannot be concealed that this action of the United States must lead to difficults which will appear to be of a threatening character, even if they are not real-ly so, and will have a prejudicial effect on in-ternational commerce. Mr. Pierce must be held responsible for this evil, and we doubt moth wheth-er he will find himself benefitted at the Cincin-nati Convention by the course which he has ta-ken. An idea that war will arise out of the bus-ness can only be mentioned to be ndiculed." The Montreal Herald mays:--"By the attention of our Washington correspondent we were enabled clap trap on the part of a President who is a dis-grace to the great combine whose government he has been accidentally called to administer. "Grave as this incident may appear, it by no means follows that more than official coolness for a brief period will result from it. Much will depend on the good sense of the Anglo Saxon race on both sides of the At antic—we rely very confidently on the strong sense of our Yaukes "cousink," who we imagine to be sufficiently "calculating" to count the cost of such an afflictive war, and who, we may be sure, will not be ready, to countramis the unthe cost of such an afflictive war, and who, we may be sure, will not be ready, to compromise the un-portant interests of commerce uniting the two pro-ple in such close links, for the purpose of furthering the views of a set of unprincipled political adven-turers like Pierce, Cushing, &c. "But it behaves us to give our "cousins" across the border unmittakable evidence of our desire to live on friendly terms with them, and we would hail with pleasure some public action to elict the expression of such opinion."

then requested by Shariff longs to move
then requested by Sheriff Janes to move his furniture from the building, giving him	-
two hours to do it in. But this he refused	I.
to do, and the posse entered and removed most of the furniture into the street. The artillery was then placed in front of the ho-	1
tel, and fired upon it until the walls began to fall, when fire was put to it, and it was	ľ

The printing materials of the Herald of Freedom office, and of the Kansas Free State office, were then taken and thrown into the river. It was the express order of Sheriff Jones that no private property should be injured, and particularly that Gov. Robinson's house should not be touch-ed; but it became impossible to restrain the crowd, and the presses, &c., were des-troyed, and, after a portion of the posse had left the town, Robinson's house was fired, put out, and again set on fire and burned down. It was a two-story frame. This was the extent of the damage to property. One man who was observed attempting to make his escape from a house, during the heat of the excitement, was fired upon and killed; and a pro-slavery man was danger-ously injured by the falling of a brick from the hotel walls. Another pro slavery man was accidently shot, but he will probably get well.

Sheriff Jones gave Gen. Pomeroy a receipt for all the rifles and cannon surrendered by him to the authorities of Douglas county. Jacob Branson, whose name has figured a good deal in the affairs of Kansas, was arrested on the 19th, by Deputy Sheriff Fain and four others. He was taken at his house. He threatened to shoot the officers, and put a rifle through the crack of the house, but did not fire. His wife opened the doors, with a pistol in each hand, and warned them not to approach a step nearer ; but the trigger was not pulled. Finally, Branson agreed to surrender.

The evening before Lawrence was entered, a man was killed at Branson's bridge. He was hailed by the picket guard, refused to answer, started to run, and was fired upon and shot in the back.

The same evening two of the picket guard were out about one mile from Lawrence; they were met by five men from the town-were asked if they belonged to the Pro-Slavery party, and on answering that they did, they were fired upon, one of them receiving a shot in the arm-the other shot one of the assailants in the head -and both of them then escaped.

Gov. Shannon, it was understood, would request that 100 of the regular troops should be stationed in Lawrence, 100 at Topeka, and 100 at Osawatomie. Sheriff Jones had some writs to serve at Topeka, and it was and 100 at Osawatomie. Sheriff Jones had some writs to serve at Topeka, and it was reported that about 100 of the malcontents had assembled at the Big Spring, to give him battle, but, after the occurrence at Lawrence, this will hardly be done. At Osawatomie Judge Cato, of the District Court, had been prevented from holding his court, by threats of violence to the Grand

There were consumed as beef in that city 185,574 cattle in one year, and in Philadelphia and Baltimore about 100,000-one an half of which it is estimated came from the Western States ; it is believed the business for the ensuing year will be much larger.
