The Southern papers often betray the fact of the existence in that region of growing anti-slavery sentiment, which can be kept from openly manifesting itself only by the terrors of Lynch law. For exam. ple here is a paragraph from the Mobile (Ala.) Advertiser :

Well might the delegate at the late Black Republican convention, at Philadelphis, arge that so rapid would be the spread of republican doctrines, that in four years they could with impunity hold their convention in Richmond, Virginia, or Lexingground for the assurance, in view of the delegates in that body from Virginia, Maryland, Dela ware, Tennessee, Kentucky, and divisions, who are opposed to the repeal of the following choice selections of grafted the District of Columbia? If he known how many Black Republicans there were in this State and community, he might have moved to adjourn the convention to meet in 1860 at Montgomery .-There are men here in Alabama, and is this county, who are not ashamed to own a preference for Fremont, or any other Abo litionist to Buchanan! An aditor too, of a leading Fillmore paper in an adjoining county, very recently called for a rope to hang, not the black skinned Douglass, but as the wretch termed him, the black-heart. ed Douglas-yes for the Senator from Illinois, who has nobly and patrio ically perilled his life and fortune in defense of Southern rights. How can the South ever expect to maintain her self respect, or obtain her just rights, if she even endurer such persons on her soil, much less permits them to occupy influential positions within her borders? Forbearance, it is said, sometimes ceases to be a virtue, and this is, in our opinion, one of the cases.

THE HOLY SEPULCHAE .- However strong ly the reverence for sacred graves may have been developed in the Jews of later times, the ancient Israelites never seem to have entertained the same feeling of regard for the resting places or the remains of their illustrious dead, as was carried to so high a pitch in the earlier Pagan and in the later Christian world. "Let me bury my dead out of my sight," "No man knowof his sepulchre unto this day,"-express, If not the general feeling of the Jewish nation, at least the general spirit of the Old Testament. Every one knows the most signal instance in which this indifference was manifested. Somewhere, doubtless, near the walls of the old Jerusalem, or buried under its ruins, is the "new sepulcire hewn in the rook," where the body of Jesus was laid," but the precise spot, never indicated by the Evangelists, was probably unknown to the next generation, and will, in all-fikelihood, remain a matter of doubt always. In this respect, the controversy regarding the Holy Sepulchre is an illustration of a general fact in sacred topography. Modern pilgrims are troubled at the supposition that such a locality should have been lost. The israelites and the early Christians would have been surprised if it had been preserved.—Stanley's "Sinai and Palestine."

Applicationers,—The Anti-Slavery Standard is out against Mr. Banks' Wad street speech and the Republican Party, as its views and purposes are therein read. It complains that the Republicans de not propose to allelish Slavery, to repen the Fugitive Slave law, not even to resist the admission of any more Stave States into the Union. It is inclined to doubt "whether the moral wealth and strength of the Anti-Slavery mavement is so a movement of the possible character of which Mr. Banks has thus foreward us." The conservatire character of the Republican movement is be ning every day more and more conspicuous.-

DUELLING ON A LARGE SCALE.—Gen. LANE of Kausas has sent a challenge of a rather remarka-ble character to the Colinth of Slavenerary, to meet him in single combat, with a hundred for er; on each side, and settle the Kausas difficulties by a free fight, and so put an end, once for all, to the matter; the question of Slavery or freedom for the new State to be determined by the usue of the combut.- N. Y. Times,

ENGLISH PRIDE OF BIRTH ANALYZED.—The Normans came out of France into England worse men than they went into it, one hundred and sixty years before. They had lost their own language. and learned the the Romance or barbarous Latin of the Gauls; and had acquired, with the language all the vices it had names for. The conquest has obtained in the chronicles, the name of the "memory of sorrow." Twenty thousand thieves landed at Hastings. These founders of the House of Lords were greedy and ferocious dragoons, sons of greedy and ferocious pirates. They were all alike : they took everything they could carry: they burned, barried, violated, tortared and killed, until everything English was brought to the verge of roin. Such, however, is the illustration of antiquity and wealth, that decent and dignified men now existing boast their descent from these fifthy threves, wh showed a far juster conviction of their merits by as suming for their types the swine, goat, jackal, leop-ard, wolf and snake, which they severally resembled.-Emerson's English Traits.

The deceased had for a long time been wasting away under the slow but certain influence of a disease which had already carried off several members of her family. She seemed conscious that she was gradually descending into the dark valley | Fall Butter, of the shadow of death; but she approached it calmly, supported by the "rad and staff," on which the patriarchs, saints, and prophets leaned, and which has directed the faltering steps of myriads who have goes before her into a valley dark and | White Duoyan, gloomy to those who die without heavenly assurances, but illustrious with the meridian splendor of the great Sun of the Universe to such as posess an "eye of faith."

Mrs. Greer was for many years an exemplary nember of the Christian church, and possessed to a large degree those graces which consisted in an inward adorning "which is not corruptible, the inward man of the beart," She was an amiable wife, a devoted and affectionate mother, a kind neighbor, and a sincere friend. During her afflicneighbor, and a sincere friend. During her afflic-tion her patience was remarkable, her resignation beautiful grafts of the foregoing varieties, of thrifty musurpassed, and she fell "as'eep in Jesus" in the growth from one to three years old.
