FRANKLIN'S FIRST APPEARANCE IN AN ENGLISH PRINTING ORFICE.-When quit a youth, Franklin went to London, entered a printing office, and enquired if he could get employment as a printer.

"Where are you from ?" inquired the

" America."

"Ah!" said the foreman, " from Amer ca! a lad from America seeking employ ment as a printer! Well, do you really understand the art of printing ? Can you set type !"

Franklin stepped to one of the cases, and in a very brief space set up the follow ing passage from the first chapter of the Gospel of St. John :-

" Nathaniel said unto him, can any good thing come out of Nazareth ! Philip saith unto him, come and see."

It was done so quick, so accurately, and contained such a delicate reproof, so appropriate and powerful, that it at once gave him standing and character with all the

REBUILDING OF SEBASTOPOL .- Two Archbishops recently visited Sebastopol by order of the Emperor, and consentrated the south side previous to rebuilding the city. A letter says:

As all the churches are destroyed, di vine service was performed in a solitary sacred edition that is left, in which a temporary altar was constructed. The service was attended by the commandant of the harbor, Vice Admiral Jocharina and Admiral Panfilof, who had arrived from Nico laieff to inspect the sunken ship and superintend the recovery of ship building materials. As the south side has no inhabitants as yet, but a few mariners, two battalions of infantry and a few visitors from Simpheropol were present during the ceremony. A committee has been appointed, by supreme command, to conduct the process of rebuilding the city at the national expense, after a plan adopted at St. Petersburgh. A vast suspension bridge is to restore communication between the south and north side.

PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY.—The Rev. Lewis Trapier of Charleston has addressed a letter to the Charleston Mercury, October 22, in which, speaking of the Episcopal General Convention, recently held at Philadelphia, he says:- And from first to last, (with the exception of a single speech which, though inflammatory enough, fell like spark upon the water,) not a word has escaped from any one however far away in the North, or the East, or the West, which might not have been spoken at the corners of Broad and Meeting streets and would not have met approval there. Aye more, we Southerners have been greated with most cordial affection, listened to with respectful attention, and treated altogether with such fraternal consideration, that our hearts are very full of love in return, and of thankfulness to Gol. South Carolina and Massachusetts are on the best of terms; New York and Virginia exchange and interchange continual courtesies; Ohio and Mississ-ppi are arm in arm; Maine and Texas go side by side; and the whole convention, in both houses, by acclama tion, aggree to meet next south of Mason's and Dixon's line in Richmond, Verginia, expressly to give "Lounga" .- A man lately went to the Post Of fice, and putting his mouth close up to the delivery box, cried out "Louder." The clerk supposing the man to be deaf, and that he was making a request of him to speak londer, so that he could hear, asked him in a very loud tone the name of the person for whom he wanted the letter.

"Louder!" cried the man. "What name?" yelled the clerk.

"Louder!" again bawled the man, who now sup posed the clerk to be deaf

The clerk took a long breath, and with all his might again bellowed out in the man's face the same question, "What name?" This was done in so loud a tone that the echo seemed to return from the far off hills.

The man started back in alarm, shouting to the very top of his big lungs: "Louder, sir, Louder! I told you Louder!-My name is nothing else !"

"Oh, ah! oh, ho!" said the clerk, "your name in Lauder eh! Didn't think of that ! here's your letter; Mr. Louder, here's your letter."

KANAKA MORMONS-In the minutes of a gineral conference of the Sandwich Islands' Mission of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, we observe that several live Kanakas figure extensively. and a number of native elders were awarded missions. Proselytes to polygamic faith are manufactured all over the globe.
