☞ James Buchanan, if alive was probably inaugurated President last Wednesday. The poor man has been so harassed with office-seekers since his election that he has nearly gone crazy. Visitors at his bachelor hall at Wheatland ate up every thing in his granary and cellar, and compelled him to take up lodging at the tavern, where he let the office-hunters pay their own board bills. Besides some fifteen thousand who have applied to him in person for office, it is said that he has received six bushels of letters from distant applicants, one peck of which is said to have come from Oregon and California.

☞ The citizens of Carson's valley in Utah, have petitioned Congress to cut them off from Utah, and annex their valley to California. They give as some of the reasons, that they are hundreds of miles from Salt Lake, but adjacent to California, where they do all their business.—They also complain that while none of them of account are mormons, Orson Hyde has been sent there as Probate Judge. The ladies also state in their petition that this Orson Hyde has brought along one of his spiritual wives, and wishes the ladies of Carson's valley to associate with her.—This they stoutly refuse to do, and declare their conviction that she is no better than the "Scarlet lady." We fear that these poor sufferers will have to endure these evils till our government is redeemed.—The party in power stands upon the principle, as a fundamental one, that "the people of the territories have the right to regulate their own domestic institutions, (Slavery and polygamy) as they choose."

☞ By reference to card, it will be seen that the Hon. W. T. Matlock has formed a copartnership with W. C. Johnson, Esq.—and they have opened a law office in this city. Business entrusted to them will be faithfully attended to.

☞ By reading the advertisement of Mr. Broughton, it will be seen that he has opened a store in Linn City, where he is actually beginning to draw custom from this side of the river.

☞ The citizens of this place have voted to raise $3,100 for the purpose of supplying the city with water.

☞ Jack Hurly, a noted scoundrel, who recently broke jail at the Dalles, where he was confined for murdering Moffitt in California, and made his way towards Utilla, but was found and brought in by the U. S. soldiers. He is now in prison in Portland.

U. S. Senate.—Mr. Harlan, of Iowa, was ousted from his seat in the Senate, on account of some informality in his election by the Legislature. The Legislature of Iowa being in session, he was immediately re-elected by 39 majority over his competitor.

The Senate now contains twenty Republicans, instead of twenty-six as published last week. The rest are Democrats and Americans, besides two or three vacant seats, which will very likely be filled by Democrats. The Senate, when full, contains 62 members.

Lanes on the Sea.—In consequence of the frequency of disasters to ocean steamers, it is proposed to lay off a lane twenty or twenty five miles broad, on the northern and southern borders of the great roadway generally traveled by the European steamers, which is about three hundred miles in breadth, and recommend to steamers to use one or the other, according to the direction they are going, so that the rule of "keep to the right" will be recognized at sea as well as on land. It is believed that not only will the chances of collision be diminished by this course, but that it will probably shorten the average voyages to the West, and not materially increase those to the East, as the Gulf-stream, better weather, and diminished frequency of fogs are in its favor.

☞ Reschid Pacha has become Prime-minister of Turkey, and Omar Pasha Minister of War. It has been agreed between England and Austria with the Porte, that the occupation of the Principalities by Austria should be prolonged, The British fleet in the Black sea has been increased.

☞ Three thousand miles of telegraph have been ordered by the British government in India, to be added to the 4,000 already in existence there.

The Soldier's Tribute.—A Highland soldier in the Crimea, whose wounded arm had been preserved from amputation through the unremitting care and nursing of Miss Nightingale, being asked how he felt toward his preserver, said that the only way he could give vent to his feelings, was by kissing her shadow when it fell on his pillow as she passed through the ward on her nightly visit.

☞ What is the difference between anger and an oven? The one makes you beat and the other bakes your meat.

DIED:

At his residence in Polk county, on the 20th of January, 1857, after a lingering illness of several months, of consumption, James M. Frederick, in the 42d year of his age.

The deceased was a native of Wayne county, Ohio, and emigrated from Iowa to Oregon in 1847, where he resided to the date of his decease, sustaining the character of a useful and exemplary citizen, and died in the triumphs of the Christian faith.

How blest the righteous when he dies!
When sinks the weary soul to rest!
So fades a summer cloud away:
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;

How mildly beam the closing eyes!
How gently heaves th' expiring breast!
So gently shuts the eye of day:
So dies the wave along the shore.

A holy quiet reigns around,—
A calm which life nor death destroys;
And naught disturbs that peace profound,
Which his unfetter'd soul enjoys.

John McLaughlin, complainant, vs.
Francis W. Pettygrove & Alfred Pettygrove.
Clackamas County District Court, Oregon Territory.

IN this cause it appearing by an affidavit of complainant filed with his bill that both of the defendants are non-residents of the Territory, it was ordered by the Court that the Clerk make an order, and have the same published, directed to said defendants; this is therefore directed to the said Francis W. Pettygrove and Alfred Pettygrove, and they are hereby notified that this suit was commenced against them on the 6th day of September, 1855; that the object of the bill is to quiet the title to lot No. 6 in block No. 28 in Oregon City in favor of the complainant, and for a decree that a certain bond, touching the same, made by the complainant to Alfred Pettygrove on the 13th day of September, 1843, be canceled.
