☞ David Wilmot, the author of the Wilmot Proviso of 1846, is the Republican candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. In 1848 he lead the free-soil democracy of Pennsylvania in favor of Van Buren.

DEATH OF WM. J. BROWN.—This well-known Democratic politician of Indiana died near Indianapolis on the 18th March. Mr. B. served four years in Congress, and came within four votes of being elected Speaker in 1849. He was Second Assistant Postmaster General under Polk, and at the time of his death was Special Mail Agent for the West.

THE DIFFICULTY WITH NEW GRANADA.—A Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune says: "The intelligence from Mr. Morse at Bogota does not warrant the belief that the Panama difficulty can be adjusted, and it is probable that this question will present the first serious issue to be considered in our foreign relations."

☞ The manufacture of cotton was first introduced into France in 1770, and has increased at an enormous rate. The total number of persons now employed is 300,000. The total value of all the manufactures of France annually is 1,600,000,000 francs, and they are rapidly increasing.

COTTON MACHINERY.—Mr. George C. Henry, a merchant of Mobile, has obtained a patent for an arrangement and combination of machinery which is expected to create quite a revolution in the industry of the South. By its means, it is claimed, the seed cotton will be converted on the plantation, by one continuous process, into merchantable yarn, and this without much increase of capital, and with the ordinary labor.

☞ For the gratification of some of my personal friends, I present myself as an independent candidate for the Council in Marion county, and, if elected, shall endeavor to subserve the true interest of the country to the best of my ability. I wish it distinctly understood that I am openly opposed to the powers that rule in Oregon, from principle alone, and shall ever oppose such democracy, let it emanate from whatever source it may.
JOSEPH MAGONE.
Standard and Oregonian please copy, and I will settle charges. J. M.

To the Voters of Clackamas County.

At the request of many of my fellow-citizens, I offer myself as an independent candidate for the Constitutional Convention.

I respectfully ask the support of all who think the office above mere politics, and of such of my Democratic fellow-citizens as may be so generous as to allow that one of the five delegates from the county can safely and fairly be taken from the ranks of their opponents for the purpose of framing an instrument, which is to be the safeguard and protection of the whole people, and not of a party. If elected, I will use my best abilities to assist in forming a constitution worthy of a free, intelligent, and prosperous State. A. HOLBROOK.
Oregon City, May 2, 1857.

Independent Candidate.

I announce myself to the people of Washington county as an independent candidate for Delegate to the Convention to frame a State Constitution.—I am decidedly in favor of a free constitution for Oregon. D. J. SCHNEBLY.
Oregonian, Times, and Standard, please copy, and I will settle charges. D. J. S.

MARRIED:

In this city, Thursday, May 6, by Rev. Mr Mackin, JOHN MCCRACKEN, Esq., of Portland, to Mrs. ADA BEARD, of this city.

DIED:

At his residence near Union Point, Linn county, O. T., on Sabbath, April 26th, JOHN FINDLEY, in the 56th year of his age.

The deceased came to Oregon, from Oquawka, Ill., in 1847, and though he experienced no little adversity in the overland journey, he still had some property left, and in a few years found himself in easy and comfortable circumstances. He was amiable and pleasant in his manners, and the unusually large concourse of people who attended his funeral bore testimony to the high repute in which he was held by his fellow-citizens.

He was a useful member and a ruling Elder in the United Presbyterian church of Union Point. His religion was a matter of fixed and intelligent principle with him, and during his long and painful sickness (he was for weeks in an agony of acute pain) his mind was calm and his hope in Christ unclouded. Toward the last he longed much to be away, but ever manifested entire submission to the Divine will. And while the congregation with whom he was accustomed to worship were assembled and offering their devotions on the Lord's day, his spirit passed to that "rest which remaineth for the people of God." His end was peace. B——N.
