|  |  |  |  |  | Lass car |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| scription, that if offered for sale in market would attract the eye of a purchaser want  ing a good thing. We once inquired of |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| an eminent landseape painter why such |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | Went |
| that they were picturesque ! $\mathrm{So}_{\mathrm{o}}$, the |  |  |  |  |  |
| meaner bis cattle the more valuable his  le sconery  of trees and groands as mean and cen. |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| temptibleas the eatilel The artists don't  know everything yet. |  |  |  |  |  |
| Now, utiity being a part of benuty, inanyihing, we liold that the more usefal anobject is, coupled with our daily require. |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | 3oobe |  |
| ments, the more beautifal it becomes by |  |  |  | \% | Joti P . Rroozs |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | nama |
| $\begin{aligned} & \text { ble. Oxen may, or may not be se. We } \\ & \text { will commence with the cow. She gives } \\ & \text { us milk; the milk yields cream; the cream } \end{aligned}$ |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| makes butter-three indispensabie artiolesof good house-keeping. Now, what con- |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| our definition. First-One that gives alarge yield of rich milk. Second-Agentle, kind creature, that feeds well, and |  |  |  |  | Koi |
|  |  |  |  |  | 8,nis |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | Fem |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | nef ramem ampivo of |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | T. |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| edge but twe distinct breeds of the cowwhich are perfect of their kind, and that are likely to be applied to the use of our |  |  |  |  | \% |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| characteristics, and combine, withal, so much of style and beauty, that they will |  |  |  |  |  |
| much of style and beauty, that they willbecome the universal favorites of those whopessess a marked taste in horned animals; |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | * |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Mosilil |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | $0{ }^{\text {a }}$ |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | aneme |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| milking quality, may be from 875 to $$ 300$. |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | \%ois |  |  |
| Tuesanation, |  | 5m |  |  |  |
| and ornamental objects combined, a hun-dred dollars will secure the cow you want;and she is a cheap animal a! that. She |  |  | Oregos lity |  |  |
|  |  |  | \% |  | Reading for the Millition |
| will give you, on good pasture, twenty tothirty quarta of milk a day, muking six totwelve pounds of butter a week, and on |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | Ammen |
|  | ${ }^{\text {a moum }}$ |  |  |  |  |
| and a proportionably good yield for fourmonths more, allowing her to bring a calfevery year. In the pasture, the paddock, |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| the slable, or the yard, she is always anobject of beauty and admiration, if wellkept, and without good keeping no cow is |  |  | $\mathrm{F}_{0} \mathrm{mec}$ ercmante |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Theme |  |  |  |  | Name |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Smaller and more active than the Short Horn, she will subsist on closer pasture |  |  | \%abanetry 4 |  |  |
|  |  |  | W00 are now meoetiver |  | 1 |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Horn as her weight and quality. In hill or mountain scenery, the setivo Devon is |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Semen |  |  | Cav, Af Se |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| neede, or the demands of your farm may require, you may need some instruction |  |  |  |  |  |
| come |  |  |  |  |  |
| If not, you must got a trusty cattle jobberor a friend to do it for you. These de. |  | HRer |  |  |  |
|  | = |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |

