AN UNEXPECTED COMPLIMENT .- The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher of I'lymouth Church, Brooklyn, received yesterday in his own Church a public compliment as novel as it was unlooked for. At the termination of the morning service, Mr. Beecher having concluded the reading of the closing hymn, was about resuming his seat, when a well-dressed man about fifty years of age and of very respectably appearance, arose from his seat in the far corner of the gallery, and standing erect with his arms folded, addressed the reverend gentleman in a loud tone. All eyes were instantly turned upon the speaker, the house was perfectly silent, while the minister and congregation waited anxiously to hear what the interrupter of the ceremonies had to say. Having secured the undivided attention of the audience, this latter individual again addressing the pulpit, made the following remark :- " I only wished to say, Sir, that if your dinners are as good as your sermons, I should not object to dine with you some day."

As Mr. Beecher did not extend the expected invitation or vouchsafe to recite to the stranger his bill of fare for the day, there was nothing more to be said on that head, and at the conclusion of the services the unknown epicure departed, evidently in a state of great disgust .- N Y Tribune.

65 The disaffected " Democrats," and the Fillmore Know Nothings of Pennsylvania are about to nominate Gov. Geary as their candidate for Governor-so report says. Gov. Geary has been counded on the matter, and agrees to accept the nominstion. We have some doubts as to the correctness of the report.

07 The Hard Shell Baptists have a great repugnance to an 'edicated ministry.' One of them recently preached in Carroll co., Missouri, and thus began : "I am gwine to preach you a very plain sarmon to-day-one that every woman can understand. You will find my tex in the 5 varse of two-eyed chapter of one-eyed John." It was some time before the audience perceived that he meant 1 John, chapter ii.

15 The Baltimore True Union says :-"Lord's day services have of late been held by the Israelites of our city. A call is now made for a decision, as to the permanent continuance of the arrangement. This will prove an important step to the Jews, should the arrangement prove permanent."
