THE Oregon Argus.

200 PRINTER.

A Weekly Newspaper, devoted to the Principles of Jeffersonian Democracy, and advocating the Sale of Land in every

Volume III. OREGON CITY, OREGON, AUGUST 1, 1857.

No. 16.

State Letter at First Session of 40th Congress.

[Text continues with various paragraphs discussing current political and social issues of the time, such as land sales, democracy, and possibly religious and educational topics, common in 19th-century American newspapers.]