CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Trenton, Sept. 29th. — The petition in behalf of the Constitution of the State, suggesting a Convention to revise the Constitution of this State, was presented to the Legislature to-day, and attached to the Adjournment. Mr. A. W. Whitehouse, of Somers Point, presented an address in favor of a Convention for the purpose of revising the Constitution of the State, and in which he expressed his opinion that it was necessary and desirable to have such a Convention, and that it was the duty of the Legislature to appoint one. He said that the Constitution of the State was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. He said that the Constitution was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. The address was read by Mr. Whitehouse, and was referred to a Committee on the Judiciary, to be reported on the 30th instant.

A. W. WHITEHOUSE.

COME OF A CONVENTION.

Trenton, Sept. 29th. — The petition in behalf of the Constitution of the State, suggesting a Convention to revise the Constitution of this State, was presented to the Legislature to-day, and attached to the Adjournment. Mr. A. W. Whitehouse, of Somers Point, presented an address in favor of a Convention for the purpose of revising the Constitution of the State, and in which he expressed his opinion that it was necessary and desirable to have such a Convention, and that it was the duty of the Legislature to appoint one. He said that the Constitution of the State was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. He said that the Constitution was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. The address was read by Mr. Whitehouse, and was referred to a Committee on the Judiciary, to be reported on the 30th instant.

A. W. WHITEHOUSE.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Trenton, Sept. 29th. — The Governor addressed the Legislature to-day, and laid before it a communication from the Governor of the State, suggesting a Convention to revise the Constitution of the State. He said that the Constitution of the State was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. He said that the Constitution was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. The address was read by Mr. Whitehouse, and was referred to a Committee on the Judiciary, to be reported on the 30th instant.

A. W. WHITEHOUSE.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Trenton, Sept. 29th. — The Governor addressed the Legislature to-day, and laid before it a communication from the Governor of the State, suggesting a Convention to revise the Constitution of the State. He said that the Constitution of the State was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. He said that the Constitution was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. The address was read by Mr. Whitehouse, and was referred to a Committee on the Judiciary, to be reported on the 30th instant.

A. W. WHITEHOUSE.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Trenton, Sept. 29th. — The Governor addressed the Legislature to-day, and laid before it a communication from the Governor of the State, suggesting a Convention to revise the Constitution of the State. He said that the Constitution of the State was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. He said that the Constitution was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. The address was read by Mr. Whitehouse, and was referred to a Committee on the Judiciary, to be reported on the 30th instant.

A. W. WHITEHOUSE.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Trenton, Sept. 29th. — The Governor addressed the Legislature to-day, and laid before it a communication from the Governor of the State, suggesting a Convention to revise the Constitution of the State. He said that the Constitution of the State was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. He said that the Constitution was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. The address was read by Mr. Whitehouse, and was referred to a Committee on the Judiciary, to be reported on the 30th instant.

A. W. WHITEHOUSE.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Trenton, Sept. 29th. — The Governor addressed the Legislature to-day, and laid before it a communication from the Governor of the State, suggesting a Convention to revise the Constitution of the State. He said that the Constitution of the State was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. He said that the Constitution was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. The address was read by Mr. Whitehouse, and was referred to a Committee on the Judiciary, to be reported on the 30th instant.

A. W. WHITEHOUSE.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Trenton, Sept. 29th. — The Governor addressed the Legislature to-day, and laid before it a communication from the Governor of the State, suggesting a Convention to revise the Constitution of the State. He said that the Constitution of the State was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. He said that the Constitution was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. The address was read by Mr. Whitehouse, and was referred to a Committee on the Judiciary, to be reported on the 30th instant.

A. W. WHITEHOUSE.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Trenton, Sept. 29th. — The Governor addressed the Legislature to-day, and laid before it a communication from the Governor of the State, suggesting a Convention to revise the Constitution of the State. He said that the Constitution of the State was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. He said that the Constitution was a source of great national pride, and that it was necessary to have a Convention to revise it. The address was read by Mr. Whitehouse, and was referred to a Committee on the Judiciary, to be reported on the 30th instant.

A. W. WHITEHOUSE.