persons on board the ship from any blame from the disaster. Another very impor-tant fact stated by Professor Morse, is that the cable was ranning out but very little faster than the rate at which the ship was going.

Discretine in Childbuoop. — Young peo-ple who have been habitually gratified in all their desires will infallibly take it more amiss when the feelings or happiness of others require that they should be thwart. There is a Library of 1000 volumes for the use of the students Applicants for admission to college must have a ed than those who have been practically trained to the habit of restraining them; and consequently will, in general, sacri-fice the happiness of others to their own selfish indulgence. To what else is the selfishness of princes and other great peo-ple to be attributed i It is vain to think of selfishing the selfishing of the selfishing in the selfishing of the of cultivating principles of generosity and beneficence by mere exhortation and reasoning.

Nothing but the practical habit of overcoming our selfishness, and of familiarly encountering privations and discomforts on account of others, will enable us to do it when required. And therefore, I am firmly persuaded that indulgence infallibly produces selfishness and hardness of heart, and that nothing but a pretty severe discipline and control can lay the foundation of a magnanimous character .---Lord Jeffrey.

To MAKE "LAGER BEER."-Take a barrel of rain water, put in one pair of old boots, a head of last year's cabbage, two short sixes, a sprig of wormwood, and a little yeast, let it work, and when clear, you'll have excellent lager beer.
